UNION ITEMS.

C. A. Burch and wife were enjoying the State fair last Monday.

D. Ray Frans and family were visiting the Nebraska state fair last Wednesday.

Donald Hoback and cousin, Mary Hoback were attending the Nebraska state fair on Monday of this week.

James Fitzpatrick of Nebraska City was looking after some business and visiting friends in Union Monday afternoon.

Jess Pell and wife and two daughters, Dorothy and Rachel, were guests over the week end at the home of their son Loy Pell.

Mesdames J. T. Carper and Fannie Elenbary were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Chilcott.

Will G. Cook with his truck was unloading a car of coal for the Frans Lumber company which he was delivering to the Union public schools.

The Thompson family of Omaha, friends of Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Booher, were guests at the Booher home last Sunday, returning home the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Moss McCarroll and Howard Snodgrass and family were dinner guests last Sunday at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Comer.

Mrs. John Lidgett, Mrs. Martha Lynn, Mrs. James Pittman and Miss Bessie Copenhaver were visitors in Plattsmouth last Thursday for a few hours.

Clarke Finney who has been working at Franklin with his father, O. W. Finney, building bridges for the state, returned home last Sunday and will enter Peru Normal the coming Monday.

Miss Nola Banning was attending the state fair Monday, and Tuesday went to Nebraska City where she starts on her school year, teaching for the third consecutive year in the schools there.

During the day last Monday while George A. Stites was looking after some business at Omaha and Elmer Withrow was down in Oklahoma, the elevator and grain office was being cared for by C. W. Hoback.

Mary Becker is at the state fair this week where she is working and during the time she is away the bank is being looked after by Miss Gwen Stites who has just recently returned from taking a course of instructions at an Omaha business college.

Henry H. Becker who has planning on taking a trip to the Pacific coast, accompanied by the family, has deferred the trip for two days on account of the pressing work, and now when Henry was just about to depart he has to dig a well for a farmer who is out of water, so the trip had to be postponed again, but there is plenty of time yet.

Season for Meetings Opens.
The first of the fall meetings of the Union Woman's club was held on Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. R. E. Foster. A program was presented during the afternoon, followed by a very fine luncheon at the close of the gathering.

Visited in the North.
Mrs. Charles Atteberry with her car went to Plattsmouth where she picked up her mother, Mrs. Mary Campbell, driving to Hartington where they visited from last Thursday until Sunday at the home of Susan Clarence who is an aunt of Mrs. Campbell and great aunt of Mrs. Atteberry.

Make Trip to Ponca.
During the summer the three grandchildren of Anna Bauer have been enjoying a very pleasant visit

Entertain for Friends.
Mr. and Mrs. John Lidgett entertained at their home last Tuesday their friends, Mr. and Mrs. M. Willet and family of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lidgett and Mrs. Martha Lynn. It is needless to say there was a very enjoyable day spent by those present.

Visitors from Chicago.
Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lidgett had a very pleasant surprise last Sunday, when Mr. and Mrs. M. Willet, their sons, Fred and Robert, and daughter, Miss Dorothy, of Chicago, dropped in on them. It was indeed a happy meeting as Mr. Willet is a brother of Mrs. Joe Lidgett and it had been more than 20 years since they had seen each other. After a few days visiting they returned to their home this week.

Will Attend M. E. Conference.
Rev. E. P. Booher, pastor of the Methodist church of Union, departed Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Booher, for Fremont, where they are to attend the annual conference of the Methodist church of this district.

Will Close at Six.
The Griffin produce station which has been keeping open in the evenings will be closed hereafter with the exception of Wednesday and Saturdays at six o'clock in the evening. Farmers can deliver their cream and produce, however, by appointment or calling on telephone. The change is to go into effect October 1st.—H. W. Griffin, Union, Nebr.

Was Very Sick, But Better.
Mrs. Thomas McQuinn, living southeast of Union, has been very sick for the past week with threatened pneumonia, but by careful nursing and care by the family doctor the condition of Mrs. McQuinn has been better and hopes are now entertained that she will soon be able to be up again, which is also the hope of her many friends.

Building Looks Pretty Spiffy.
That is the cream station, with the front painted white and a large sign extending across the entire front two times in large black letters, painted there by Mr. Griffin and King David Clark, making the place look excellent.

4-H judging contests, which were the highlight of Saturday's program, held the concentrated attention of hundreds of 4-H clubbers. Four teams represented Cass county in judging. The Cass county poultry judging team placed second, with Oren Raymond Pollard of Nehawka second high individual in the contest. The livestock judging team placed 7th, with 30 teams competing. James Schaefer of Nehawka placed 5th as an individual in judging horses. Cass county's canning team placed 8th.

For the second consecutive year, Ruth Ann Sheldon's 4-H club secretary's book received a blue ribbon. Miss Marie Anderson received second place on her book.

John Wolph of Avoca, won third place on his miscellaneous farm poster, while Frances House placed second and Helen Chappell third on meat posters.

Back on the Job.
H. G. Soennichsen, who has been several weeks at the U. S. Veterans' hospital at Lincoln recovering from an operation, was able to return home Tuesday afternoon and is much improved.

He was back on the job at the store today and while he is still somewhat weak from the long stay in bed he is hitting the ball in the Black & White as of old.

Cass County 4-H Members at the State Fair

Make High Showing in All Classes in Which They Were Entered; Capture Many Firsts.

That Cass county's 4-H club members are out to "bring home the bacon" from the state fair is evidenced by their placings in the first announcements of winners. Clothing and canning club members made outstanding placings on exhibits considering the number of competitors. Miss Ruth Ann Sheldon of Nehawka won the coveted blue ribbon on her complete outfit for sport wear. Hazel Neitzel of Murdock won third on a house dress. Virginia Pollard of Nehawka won fourth placing on her summer afternoon dress and fifth place in this same class went to Frances Rehmeier. Frances also won fifth placing on her informal afternoon dress for winter wear. Mary Creamer of Murdock won fifth placing on her slip, while Hannah Menke of Washburn won fourth on her towel with Nellmarra embroidery.

In canning, the following placings were won by Cass county 4-H club girls:

Emergency dinner: Ruth Ann Sheldon, Nehawka, 1st; Margie Ruth Pollard, Nehawka, 2nd; Virginia Pollard, Nehawka, 3rd.

Second Year Budget: Cass County Canners club, Nehawka, 1st; Cass County Canners club, Nehawka, 3rd.

King Korn Klub Team Wins from Junction, 2 to 1

Play Air Tight Ball Back of the Pitching of Kennedy to Win a Well Earned Victory.

The faithful softball fans who gathered at the Athletic park on Sunday night were treated to a quickly and very well played kittenball game, staged between a Pacific Junction aggregation and the local All-Stars. The Korn Klub roster consisted of softballers who were outstanding in past softball seasons. Both teams played a hard, clean game, and the local team, which convinced those in attendance of its worthiness to represent Plattsmouth, played the peppiest, liveliest brand of ball that has been exhibited by a local team in many a campaign.

Kennedy proved especially effective, whiffing 11 Iowans and allowing but four hits in seven frames. The defense also proved very capable, with Malek and Ashbaugh turning in scintillating catches.

The visitors scored first, tallying their lone marker in the second. Watts singled. With two out, Fagel blasted a triple, scoring his teammate.

The locals' fireworks started in the fourth. Fay Spidell, trusty backstop dynamited a triple, and his battery mate, Kennedy, later poled out a timely single, as Fay scampered over the platter.

In the sixth frame, Fay again slugged out another extra base blow, this time sewing up the ball game as he belted a homer over the head of "P. J." left fielder.

The local fans will have another opportunity to view the Korn Klub team on Friday night, when a dangerous Glenwood club journeys here to do battle with the Platters. A game is also tentatively scheduled for next Sunday night.

TO TEACH AT BELLEVUE
Miss Maybelle Taplett has been elected teacher in the 4th grade at Bellevue, Nebraska. She is filling the position left vacant by Miss Marcella Ogorek of Bellevue, who has accepted a teaching position in Illinois.

Miss Taplett had begun teaching her third term in the lower grades at La Platte last Monday and the community regrets her leaving.

Miss Taplett had made Plattsmouth her residence while teaching there. She has been staying at the Clyde Graves home while in this city.

Historical Society Has a Fine Meeting

Sessions Held at Methodist Church at Nehawka—Dr. G. H. Gilmore Heads Society.

The annual meeting of the Cass County Historical society was held at the Methodist church at Nehawka on Friday afternoon at 2:30 and with a very good attendance from the different sections of the county.

Dr. G. H. Gilmore, president, presided and also gave a very interesting talk on the vanished towns near Nehawka, he being a close student of the early history of Nebraska and presented a thorough discussion of this phase of our county history.

Superintendent Stimbort of the Nehawka schools gave a talk on the relation of local history as taught in our schools and the work done by the historical society and that they should go hand in hand.

Andrew Sturm, a pioneer of Nehawka read a very interesting paper dealing with the social surroundings of the pioneers of this section of the west.

The business session took up the matter of the election of officers for the ensuing year and the following were selected: Dr. G. H. Gilmore, Murray, president; Mrs. L. O. Minor, Plattsmouth, first vice president; Miss Lillie Woods, Washburn, second vice president; Alvin McReynolds, Nehawka, secretary-treasurer.

Many of the earliest settlers were present at the meeting and among these Charles E. Heebner, who was born in a log cabin on the old Heebner place seventy-five years ago. He owns the old homestead and still lives on the land where his parents settled.

Refreshments were served by the ladies of Nehawka and an enjoyable round table held for over an hour by the members of the association.

LOCATE MISSING CAR

Saturday night a car was reported to be missing from the Cass County Chevrolet Co. garage at Fourth and Main streets, apparently having been stolen from its parking near the building. The car was later discovered by Sheriff Homer Sylvester to have been abandoned north of this city near one of the summer resorts. The car was not damaged and apparently had been taken by a joy rider who sought some means of reaching the dance hall.

HAVE FINE MEETING

From Monday's Daily—

Last night the Methodist Epworth League had a very interesting meeting led by Mrs. Loy Fiske. Mrs. Fiske's topic was "Sportsmanship." Here is the "Code of a Good Sport" which she used to develop her topic: 1—Thou shalt not quit; 2—Thou shalt not alibi; 3—Thou shalt not gloat over winning; 4—Thou shalt not be a rotten loser; 5—Thou shalt not take unfair advantage; 6—Thou shalt not ask odds thou art unwilling to give; 7—Thou shalt always be ready to give thine opponent the shade; 8—Thou shalt not underestimate an opponent, nor overestimate thyself; 9—Remember that the game is the thing, and that he who thinketh otherwise is a mucker and no true sportsman; 10—Honor the game thou playest, for he who playeth the game straight and hard wins even when he loses.

Aren't these good rules to apply to life?

STUDENTS AT PERU

Among the members of the class of 1937 who are to attend college this year, three are to be enrolled at the State Teacher's college at Peru.

Misses Edna Mae Petersen and Mildred Knofficek, who were among the outstanding musical students of the Plattsmouth high school in their four years of study, will carry on their work at Peru.

Clark Finney, popular football star of the 1935-36 football seasons, has also picked Peru as his school for the coming term. Clark has been spending the summer at Franklin, Nebraska, with his father, O. W. Finney, and assisting in bridge work in that section for the state highway department.

Do You . . . Want Lower Taxes?

Everyone complains about the taxes that they have to pay. But if everyone paid their taxes, taxes as a whole would be lowered. It may interest you to know there are enough delinquent taxes in Nebraska to PAY FOR THREE STATE CAPITOLS like the present one. That fact alone is enough to show you that if everyone would pay his share of the tax burden, taxes would be greatly reduced.

SAVE 7% ON DELINQUENT TAXES

Many of us have been unable to pay our taxes because the last few years have been hard times in which to pay any bills. But those of us who have been unable to pay our taxes as they came due now have a chance to do so without penalty or interest (up to March 19) thus saving money — 7% on each year of delinquency. Now new interest is being figured from March 19, so it is important that all pay NOW and cut off this new interest accumulation.

For further details see your county treasurer at once.
(This Applies Only to Real and Personal Taxes)
