

Elmwood News

William Fleischman and wife attended the state fair in Lincoln last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joy Miller of southeast of town were Sunday evening guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Backemeyer.

Ace Fellows has been sick for a number of days and confined to his home a portion of the time. Although some better at this writing, he is still feeling quite poorly.

Jay Stanton and wife drove over to Lincoln Tuesday evening after the day's business was over at the cream station, and attended the night program at the state fair.

Henry Wendt was in Weeping Water Tuesday of last week, where he was called to look after business matters, and also enjoyed meeting numerous old friends there.

Walter Oehlerking was filling his silo with corn ensilage Tuesday of last week, thus insuring feed for his stock during the coming winter. A number of his neighbors were assisting with the work.

Morris Penterman, who arrived home the day before, was looking after business at the Elmwood lumber yard Tuesday while Chris Backemeyer and wife were transacting business in Shenandoah.

Dr. A. O. Liston went to Lincoln Tuesday to visit Mrs. Ella Eiber, who has been confined to the Bryan Memorial hospital since her recent auto accident. He reports her as getting along fair but rallying slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Rosenow were in Lincoln last Sunday, and while there paid a visit to Mrs. Bert Kitzel, who is a patient at the Bryan Memorial hospital. They report her improving nicely from her recent operation.

The Rev. Walter Lenz and wife, of Beaver Crossing, were visiting a few days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Backemeyer, and also were calling on other friends and acquaintances in and about Elmwood.

William Fleischman took his fishing paraphernalia and went over to the Weeping Water creek at a point near Wabash, where he spent Tuesday afternoon trying to coax some of the finny tribe to accompany him home. However, he found them very obstinate.

George Clark, minister of the Christian church at Beaver City, accompanied by his wife, have been spending a vacation period in Elmwood, but it has really been no vacation for Rev. Clark, who has busied himself with the painting of property owned by his wife, which is located just south on the corner from the Eber produce station.

Sells Farm in Iowa
L. F. Fitch, the land man, was at Leon, Iowa, last week, with a party from Omaha, to whom he sold a farm in that vicinity. He reports fine crops in the vicinity of Leon, where everything is green and there is an abundance of blue grass pasture.

Home from the West
Morris Penterman and his feminine friend, Miss Goldie Keatch, who have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Keatch, at Yuba, California, arrived home Monday. They made the trip via bus, going out in 50 hours, but making considerably slower time on the return trip. Morris was enthused over the wonderful fruit crops that country produces and says that the peaches are so large it only takes four to fill a quart jar. They drove over considerable country out there in the car of Mr. Keatch, taking the ferry across San Francisco bay. En route home they visited the grounds of the Mormon temple at Salt Lake City, but were not allowed to enter the temple, as that requires a good deal of influence.

Injured People Getting Better
Ronald Schlichtemeier and family went to Murray to visit Ronald's parents, who were injured in an auto wreck recently, finding them considerably improved, but the father, Frank Schlichtemeier is still very sore. Mrs. Ellen Elder, aunt of Ronald, who was the most severely injured, is still at the Bryan Memorial hospital, in Lincoln, where she is recovering rather slowly and will be there for some time yet.

Home from the West
David Kuntz, daughter Minnie and two sons Ralph and Irvin arrived home last week from a trip of more than two weeks' duration, which took them through some very interesting and picturesque country. They traversed the states of Nebraska and Wyoming and part way across the state of Idaho to their destination at Box Elder and the Big Sandy Montana, where a niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Cowger reside. Mr. Cowger is both a farmer and an implement dealer.

They found the country very dry most of the way. Wheat yielded in that vicinity all the way from three to ten bushels to the acre. They returned via the northern route thru North Dakota and Minnesota and also extended their trip into Michigan, coming back through Iowa. In North Dakota they found the drouth especially bad, with no crops, but in Minnesota and Iowa there are abundant crops of all kinds. Taking into consideration the entire country traversed, they consider Elmwood and Cass county very well favored.

They traversed the Black Hill region, for which they have but little favorable comment.

VISITS IN THE CITY

From Saturday's Daily
Miss Hazel Baier, formerly of the Journal staff, who is now with the "Avalanche" at Tarkio, Missouri, was in the city for a short time today to visit with a few friends and call on the Journal force.

Miss Baier is enjoying the work in the Missouri city and has been successful in getting out a neat and attractive paper.

She was en route to Lincoln where she will be a guest of friends over the week-end.

LEAVES FOR CONVENTION

Joseph Stodola left last Friday for Brainerd, Minn., to visit friends and take care of a few matters of business. On leaving there he intends to go to Milwaukee, Wis., as delegate for the Western Bohemian Fraternal association of Lodge Tyers No. 18 of Plattsmouth. At the convention they intend to discuss and alter plans and policies to meet the changing conditions and thereby promote a more substantial program for the coming years.

REPORTED SOME BETTER

Marylin Bourck, who has been ill for the past several days, is reported as being somewhat improved and is now able to take nourishment. She has been suffering from an attack of stomach trouble.

MANLEY NEWS

Theo. Harms and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Stohman attended the state fair last Wednesday, being well pleased with the fine array of exhibits shown there this year.

John A. Stander was in Murdock Wednesday of last week, where he was looking after business matters, securing a man to work on the farm, as he says there is too much for one man to do.

John A. Stander and wife were in Lincoln last Monday (Labor day), attending the state fair. They report a fine array of exhibits this year, and a very pleasant time at the rodeo performance given in the evening.

Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. John Zoz of Tecumseh and Edward Sheehan of Falls City were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sheehan, Sr. During the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reynolds of Pappion came over for a visit.

Mrs. Roy Wiles, who recently returned from the hospital, where she underwent an appendectomy, is getting along very nicely. Mrs. John Rohrdanz has been caring for her and also looking after the household until such time as Mrs. Wiles may be able to get around.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bergman and Oscar Dowler and wife were in Lincoln last Monday, going to attend the fair. They say it was a wonderful exhibition and the crowd much like old times, although still short of the peak years when just about everyone took time off to go to the fair.

John Rohrdanz and Arthur Edwards, Jr., are assisting Herman Rauth with the work of putting up hay for himself and his father, John C. Rauth. The recent rains have brought a good growth of alfalfa and hay crops, and farmers are busy cutting same before bad weather sets in to delay the work.

School Opened Monday
Miss Margaret Bergman accompanied her father to Elmwood last Monday, where she began teaching the school located two and a half miles from town in the center of a section, with roads leading in every direction, although they are only for the convenience of the scholars in getting to and from school. Practically all the rural schools are now open, throughout the county.

IN A town near Boston where nearly all the residents were persons of means there was a smart country-club. Here on Saturday nights whole families gathered, the boys, girls and the younger married couples to dance and the elder statesmen to play a quaint old Persian game called draw-poker.

On a certain March evening the head of a household found himself far in the rear when time came for his family to go. He sent them off in the automobile and told the chauffeur he would walk home.

When the session was concluded the gamblers found it had been snowing heavily for hours. The principal figure in this episode started off foot in the slush.

Long before he reached his house he was soaked up to the knees. On arrival his first act was to remove his shoes and trousers. With his trousers left on a downstairs radiator to dry he mounted the stairs and passed through the lighted hallway to his chamber. This took him past the room occupied by his favorite daughter.

Out of the darkness to him came these words: "Well, old sport, I see they finally got your pants!"

home in Plattsmouth last Wednesday after a pleasant week's visit in Manley. She was taken home by Bobbie McDonald and wife, who went to Plattsmouth to look after business matters and to secure their drivers' licenses.

Will See the Great West

Miss Rena Christensen, sister of Mrs. Herman Rauth, is spending some time visiting at the Herman Rauth home, where the sisters are enjoying a very fine visit. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler of Weeping Water were also guests there Monday evening and were inquiring about the recent trip of Mr. and Mrs. Rauth to the west as the Kecklers are planning to leave soon for a similar trip to the northwest and will be accompanied by C. J. Elgaard of Weeping Water.

Home from Extended Visit
Harve Bergman, who became acquainted with Larry Rees when they were attending school at Louisville, received an invitation some time since to come to Beatrice and visit him. The invitation was accepted and Harvey spent three very enjoyable weeks there as a guest at the home of his school chum, returning home rather reluctantly as the time approached for school to start here. It was a grand visit, and they both enjoyed it very much.

PLATTSMOUTH WINS 11-4

The Korn Klub kitchenerians proved too much for the Glenwood boys as they bested the Iowans 11-4, in a game that was marked by many hits and errors.

The big inning was the second when six runs were scored. Aylor singled, going to third on Stephenson's one-base blow, Ashbaugh drawing a walk, after which Spidell was safe on an error, scoring Aylor and Stephenson. Kennedy also drew a base on balls and Chet Smith cleared the bases with a home run to deep right center.

Kennedy worked on the rubber for the Platters, giving but one hit and securing seven strikeouts. Dick March took it over in the seventh, and held the opponents to four runs on five hits.

Smith led the local attack with a home run and a single in three appearances, while Kennedy had a round tripper and a single in four trials. Stephenson, Malek and Ofe each had two hits to their credit.

Mayfield, the first sacker from Glenwood, led his team with two safeties and was safe on an error in his four trips to the plate. Byers got the only extra base blow, being a double in the eighth with Richardson on second.

Hubbell started pitching for Glenwood, but gave way to Hall in the third inning.
