

AVOCA NEWS

Oscar Zimmerer visited a number of relatives in Nebraska City last Sunday, remaining for the evening as well.

Bud Marquardt and wife, who have been visiting here for the past week returned to their home in Lincoln last Monday.

Fred Ehlers has been rather poorly and has been confined to his home and bed for a short time, but is getting about again and feeling slightly improved.

Miss Mary Lou Kenwood, age 8, of Omaha, who has been enjoying a visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zaiser, returned to her home in the metropolis last week.

Fred Kuhnanhan, of Syracuse, was a visitor in Avoca last Monday, coming up for a load of lumber which he is using in building construction on the farm near Syracuse.

William Frost, brother of Mrs. E. J. Hallstrom, was a brief visitor in Avoca on Tuesday of last week, where he was looking after business matters and visiting with the folks here.

Paul Wolfe and Fred Marquardt were on the market with a truck load of cattle which was delivered to the market by Henry Smith on last Monday. The cattle brought very good prices.

Mrs. Henry Smith was a visitor in Weeping Water last Monday, where she went to visit with an uncle, from the east, who was visiting there at the home of Mogens Johnson, and on her return to New York stopped in Chicago for a short visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marquardt went to Utica last Tuesday, where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hile, the latter a sister of Mr. Marquardt. On their return home, they were accompanied by Mrs. Caroline Marquardt, mother of Fred, who had been visiting at the Hile home for some time past.

Irvin Steinhoff, who has been conducting the cream station for some time, sold out to Wm. Grafe, who is now conducting the business. The new owner has moved to Avoca and is occupying the home of Mr. Steinhoff, which formerly belonged to Fred Buckmann. Mr. Steinhoff moved to Nebraska City, where he has accepted employment as a truck driver.

Attended Church Dedication

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tefft, of Weeping Water were in Avoca last Sunday and attended the dedication of the Congregational church here. Mr. Tefft was one of the speakers on the program, which honor was also shared by Elmer J. Hallstrom.

Purchased 80 Acres of Land George Shackley, who visited down in Missouri with relatives recently, has purchased an 80 acre farm not far from the place occupied by Mrs. Shackley's sister, Mrs. Harry Davis, and family.

Building Two Houses

Herman Bose was in Avoca securing lumber for the construction of a house in Syracuse. He is also building one on his farm near Unadilla, which looks like there has been something grown on the farm this year.

Suffered Severe Fall

When Uncle J. W. Kuntz mounted a step ladder to turn out an electric light that was beyond his reach, the ladder toppled and went over, precipitating him to the floor. In falling, his hip and leg came in contact with a piece of machinery lying on the floor and he was quite severely injured, although not broken. He was able to be around a few days afterward, but is still plenty sore.

and Mrs. Henry Wohlers, who have been away for nearly two weeks, visiting at the home of Mrs. Zaiser's parents in Wisconsin, returned home last Monday. They enjoyed a fine outing and some splendid fishing and came home well pleased with the enjoyable time they had.

The Boys Did Some Trading

Not unlike the farm woman with a large number of boys who worked at various jobs and came home on Sunday to "each make four or five dollars trading among themselves," the "boys" of this vicinity seem to have gotten the trading fever during the past week, and although we wouldn't even hazard a guess as to how much each made on their deals, they sure did trade. Automobiles seemed to be the principal stock in trade. John Marquardt traded off five cars Monday, one going to Harold Greenrod, one to Lloyd Behrens and three to John Roberts. Emory Voyle and Mr. Marquardt traded for a tractor and then disposed of it, again. Ed Morley and Wm. Steinhoff traded cars. Marius Nelson received a steam engine in a trade he made and then traded it off again the same day.

Celebrate Passing Birthday

Mrs. Elmer Hennings was passing her natal day on Friday, September 3rd, and in recognition of the event, a number of neighbors, friends and relatives met at her home to help her celebrate. They brought along plenty of good things and a determination to have a good time, which they proceeded to do. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. William Wendt, of Ashland; Mrs. John Gauer, Ray Wright and Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Hennings, of Louisville, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wendt and family and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heil and family of Cedar Creek, and Mr. and Mrs. Verne Hild, of Mynard. In departing, they extended best wishes for many more happy birthdays to follow.

Dedicate Church Building

Since losing their church building as a result of fire some years ago, members of the Congregational denomination have struggled long and hard to acquire another one. They first rented the former Christian church building and later took steps to buy it. By that time the Christian church membership had dwindled to a point where the building reverted to the Nebraska Christian Missionary Association, parent body. So, it took considerable time and a lot of negotiations to acquire title to the property. The deal was completed some time ago, however, and the building transferred to the Congregational denomination.

Last Sunday a church-wide meeting was held to dedicate the newly-acquired building to the worship of Almighty God and to rededicate the members to a more faithful service.

Principal speaker on this occasion was Bishop Tyler, secretary of the Congregational Missionary Society of Nebraska, who spoke words of congratulation and encouragement to the large audience gathered therein for the dedication. Other speakers were Senator Fred Carsten and Elmer J. Hallstrom. While Calvin Carsten and wife sang a selection, the different church officers each lighted a candle at the altar, dedicating the house of worship, with the lights representing a lamp to guide the people in the right path.

Following the morning service of dedication, the noon hour brought the members together for a dinner, and in the afternoon a special devotional service was held, thus making a full day of the dedicatory exercises.

ALABAMA FACES PROBLEM OVER DRY AND WET ZONES

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UP)—Store to door delivery service on whisky is against the law, in the opinion of Attorney General A. A. Carmichael.

His ruling on the question was made in answer to a request from W. O. Baldwin, chairman of the state liquor control board, who reported that operators of "special delivery service" were doing a thriving business in some counties purchasing liquor from state stores for clients and delivering it to their home, both in wet and dry counties, for a small fee.

FARMERS' ATTENTION

If you have any bloomed stock such as cattle, horses, poultry, hogs and the like, why not doll them up on a float for the Farmers Day parade Thursday, September 23. See Charles Barnard or call 150.

WISH NAMES OF TWINS

The Carnival committee is desirous of getting the names of twins born in Cass county during the year 1932. Phone C. C. Wescott, No. 150.

SEEKS FAMILY GENEALOGY

Sheriff Homer Sylvester has been greatly interested in the tracing of the genealogy of the Sylvester family as he has received letter and messages from members of the family from all sections of country.

In correspondence with others the sheriff has located Dr. Homer Sylvester, residing at Mendota, Minnesota, who has a record of the family.

The Sylvester family is traced back to England in the year 1512 and to an unbroken line to the present time.

CALLED TO IOWA

From Thursday's Daily—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Benedict departed at an early hour today for Afton, Iowa, where they were called by the message announcing the death of the father of Mr. Benedict which occurred at 11 o'clock last night.

PRESENTED WITH LAMP

Michael Bajek has been presented with the table study I. E. S. lamp that has been on display at the Iowa-Nebraska Light & Power Co. offices. This is a very handsome lamp and will be greatly appreciated by the winner.

HERE FOR FUNERAL

Quite a number of former residents of this city were here Friday for the funeral services of Dr. T. P. Livingston and among these were Dr. and Miss Violet Dodge, Clyde and Gerald Drew, Mrs. A. N. Sullivan, Mrs. Asa Snider and Charles Sullivan, Dr. C. R. Kennedy, Dr. Herbert Davis, Dr. George Pratt, Miss Anna Wurga, Judge Jesse L. Root, Charles C. Parmele, Mrs. Myrtle Levings Edwards, all of Omaha; Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Green of Falls City; Dr. and Mrs. Elster of Omaha.

OPEN NEW ALLEYS

LaRue and Ellis, operator of the bowling alley in the Hotel Plattsmouth building, have started a duck pin alley at Beatrice. Their alley at Nebraska City has opened under the management of Lucian LaRue, brother of Ellis LaRue, and who was widely known over the central west as a youthful radio star.

VISITS PARENTS HERE

Robert Hall, who has been working in a drug store in Lincoln, was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hall Thursday evening. Next week he will continue his work at the school of pharmacy at the state university.
