Hearing on Campbell Estate Here Monday

Will of Mrs. Sarah Campbell Admitted to Probate in County Court by Judge Duxbury.

A hearing was held in the county court Monday in the matter of the estate of Sarah Campbell, deceased, the last will and testament of the deceased being offered for probate by Mrs. Sarah B. Rau and Mrs. Frances Schaefer, daughters.

The admission of the instrument as the will was objected to by Charles, David and George Campbell, sons of the deceased.

The value of the estate was estimated at $3,000 in personal property.

The deceased passed away on July 25, 1937 and left the will which was witnessed by L. B. Mullen and Earl Rosenow.

After hearing the testimony of the proponents and objectors to the will the court sustained the will and appointed Mrs. Frances Schaefer as executrix.

The appeal bond was fixed at $200. The proponents were represented by Attorney Carl Ganz of Alvo and the objectors by Attorney J. C. Bryant of Ashland and Attorney H. A. Bryant of Wahoo.

WOMEN WHO HOLD THEIR MEN NEVER LET THEM KNOW

NO matter how much your back aches and your nerves scream, your husband, because he is only a man, can never understand why you are so hard to live with one week in every month.

Too often the honeymoon express is wrecked by the nagging tongue of a three-quarter wife. The wise woman never lets her husband know by outward signs that she is a victim of periodic pain.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three decades of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."
