and theme, each of the judges making their own finding on the points and these were then checked and the winners secured. The prize winning floats were:

1st—"Loreli," Cullom school, district No. 30. Miss Dorothy Simonet, teacher.

2nd—"Cass County Farmers," Mt. Pleasant school, district No. 26, Miss Marie Lutz, teacher.

3rd—"We the People," Lewiston school, district No. 7, Marie Haltz, teacher.

4th—"Imlauderbach," Wehrlein school, district No. 40, Miss Esther Tritsch, teacher.

5th—"Virginia," Kenosha school, district No. 8, Miss Mildred Wilson, teacher; and "Mother Goose Lullaby," Cottonwood school, district No. 27, Miss Velma Fulton, teacher, were tied for this position as both had very fine floats that made judging very difficult.

Donald Cotner, of Tarkio college, was heard in two very fine saxophone numbers from the platform after the parade and which was followed by the tap dancing exhibition. The tap dancers were a fine group of youngsters from the recreational dancing class under the direction of Miss Thelma Duncan. With only a few weeks training these youngsters made a fine showing for themselves and teacher.

The soap box derby was run down high school hill and drew much attention. Kenneth Wohlfarth and Walter Bryant, former city champions were present with their cars but did not participate in the races.

The active contestants were Ivan Smith, Leslie Niel, Jr., Raymond Arnold, Leroy Topfiff, Murray, Lemuel Sheard, Jim Deles Dernier, Murray, Dick Case and Billy Cloidt.

In the first races Smith, Topfiff, Deles Dernier and Cloidt were the winners, while the finals were between Smith and Deles Dernier, with Ivan Smith being the winner.

All the boys received prizes and the runnerup $2.50 and the champion the trophy.

The Evening Program
One of the real musical treats of the carnival was afforded Saturday night in the vocal selections offered.

Miss Gwendolyn Reed, of Avoca, was presented in two songs and which showed the fine range of the singer as well as her artistic training that made the popular songs presented ones long to be remembered.

Lucian LaRue, former Union young man, who was an early radio star over WOW several years ago on the Plattsmouth community program, gave a group of the popular songs of the day and demonstrated that Lucian had developed with the years. He was accompanied by the pianist, "Freddie" of the Wine and Dine at Omaha where Mr. LaRue has been an entertainer.

The Louisville Farmers Union band under the leadership of Irving Mendenhall, gave a very fine concert and one that held the close attention of the audience.

The band is one of the best in this part of Nebraska and their program embraced some of their best of the standard numbers, all given with finish of fine musicians.

The visit of the Louisville band here was one that was very much appreciated by the Plattsmouth people, not alone for their fine work as musicians but as a visit of friends and neighbors to participate in the fine Karnival.

The band also assisted in the drill of the Veterans of Foreign Wars sponsored drill team under the direction of J. V. Orvington of Omaha, the band providing the effective musical settings for the drills and this without any rehearsal.

The drill and concert afforded the close of the evening program and was a fitting climax of four days of real entertainment and pleasure.

LOCAL MEN IN LINEUP

TARKIO, Mo., Sept. 27—With three Plattsmouth athletes in the starting lineup for Tarkio, a large delegation of Plattsmouth fans are expected to attend the Tarkio-Simpson game at Red Oak Thursday night. The game will be played on the American Legion field and is being sponsored by the Red Oak chamber of commerce to give southwest Iowa fans a taste of college football.

Kenneth Armstrong and Stuart Porter will start at tackle for Tarkio and George Adam will play at left guard. Joe Case and Wayne Falk, freshman members of the Owl squad will also make the trip.

Both Tarkio and Simpson were defeated in opening games last week. While Simpson was being swamped 26-0 by Luther College of Decorah, Iowa, a conference foe, Tarkio succumbed to a second half rally to lose to the Warrensburg (Mo.) Teachers 9-0. The teachers were unable to dent the powerful Tarkio line but completed a pass in the third quarter to score the only touchdown of the game and in the final period, booted a field goal from the 30 yard line after three futile attempts to move the Owl forward wall which has a trio of two-hundred pounders: Porter, 205; Armstrong, 241 and Everly, center, 202.

PENNIES FAIL TO BUY MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP)—Pennies may come from heaven, as the song writers would have you believe, but they still won't buy a marriage license at Buffalo City Hall.

William Podlewski and Maria Mecca discovered this when they presented a clerk with 200 "coppers" as payment for a wedding certificate. "Too busy to count 'em," was the blunt refusal.

Plattsmouth offers a splendid market for farm produce. Local dealers always pay top prices.

STEAL WPA CHECKS

LINCOLN, Sept. 29 (UP)—The theft of WPA checks from mail boxes is "getting to be a racket" Deputy United States Marshal Joe O'Grady, Jr., said today.

O'Grady said an increasing number of complaints have been received concerning stolen relief checks. Endorsements are forged and the checks cashed at various stores. O'Grady urged merchants to insist on positive identification of persons presenting WPA checks, for their own protection.

Friday Program One of the Best Ever Offered

Musical Selections and Tuning and Dancing Features Are Presented at Platform.

The Friday program at the platform at Fifth and Main streets was one of the most enjoyed as it gave a wide range of fine musical selections as well as Bohemian folk dancing and the Avalon orchestra in the typical Czech numbers.

The Avalon orchestra opened the program at 1 o'clock with a program of selections that received hearty applause and demonstrated that this is one of the best orchestras in this section.

The Wegener sisters, Lorene and Lola, of Weeping Water were returned on the afternoon and evening program with their fine vocal offerings.

The Korn Karnival babies were presented during the afternoon and this was enjoyed by everyone with opportunity of looking over the fine group of boys and girls who arrived here in the year of the birth of the Korn Karnival idea.

The football game took up the remainder of the afternoon and afforded Announcer R. Foster Patterson an opportunity of rooting for the old P. H. S. where he had been principal for a long period.

The Musical Nichols, father, son and grandson, of Louisville, gave a short program and was much appreciated. Boss Nichols, of the second generation of the family also gave a very fine saxophone solo.

After the parade the Catholic Sokols of South Omaha gave an exhibition of their drills both by the girls and the boys sections that was very interesting and demonstrated the carrying on of the old world lessons of the Sokols for physical fitness. Miss Louise Dvorak of Omaha was the director of the girl's section and led them in their difficult and artistic formations. The boys' class also showed fine training in their part of the program.

The Bohemian folk dances were presented by a large group of the South Omaha Czechs in the costumes of their native land and was a revelation in artistic motion as they gave several of these dances. It was a treat that will long be remembered by those able to get close to see the dancing. J. E. Dvorak of Omaha was the director of the dance numbers.

The evening closed with the old and new dances being offered at the Bekins building by the Avalon orchestra and who drew a capacity crowd.
