YOU CAN THROW CARDS IN HIS FACE ONCE TOO OFTEN

WHEN you have those awful cramps; when your nerves are all on edge—don't take it out on the man you love.

Your husband can't possibly know how you feel for the simple reason that he is a man.

A three-quarter wife may be no wife at all if she nags her husband seven days out of every month.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and go "Smiling Through."

The Curious Ways of Sheep

By IRVIN S. COBB

A COWPUNCHER named Russell knew all about there was to know about beef cattle and about horses but his education regarding the ways and habits of sheep had been neglected. All the same, he went out on the range with a flock of woolly haas-baas. Ten days passed, and he returned to headquarters to replenish his supply of provisions. The boss met him at the ranch-house.

"Well, Charlie," he asked, "how goes it?"
"Oh, all right," said Russell.
"Satisfied with your new job, eh?" pressed the employer.
"I guess so," said Russell. "But if you want me to keep on working for you there's one thing you'll have to do."

"What's that?"
"You'll have to get me another lot of sheep. That first bunch has done lit out on you."
