WHEAT GOES DOWN

CHICAGO, Oct. 19 (UP)—The price of wheat in Chicago swung sharply lower today on the Chicago board of trade when traders became nervous and dumped supplies of grain on the market as the stock market crashed to new low levels.

Wheat opened 1 1/4 to 3/8c lower and swung around that level during most of the day as successive attempts to climb out of the slump ended in new avalanches of selling. A new rally was begun as the market closed.

At the end of the day's trading, prices were 1 1/4 to 2 1/8c lower. December wheat was 97 1/2, off 1 1/4; May was 97 1/2, off 2 1/4; and July, 91 1/2, off 2 1/4.

Principal cause for the large amount of selling done today was the break in stocks but wet weather over portions of American grain belt and a disappointing market in Liverpool added to the despair of grain traders.

Corn prices were in lower ground during most of the session but this grain maintained a more steady undertone than wheat.

HOLD UP DEFUNCT BANK
 EDGAR, Neb., Oct. 20 (UP)—Two men who held up a defunct bank here had to be content with $10 which they took from W. P. Hiebenthal, assistant receiver, after Hiebenthal succeeded in convincing them the bank vaults contained no money. They looted the receiver in the vault before fleeing.

MISSOURI CORN HUSKERS
 TARKIO, Mo., Oct. 19—Opal Herron of Rock Port, Atchison county champion, became the first county title holder to qualify for the Missouri state corn husking contest to be held here on the T. B. Rankin farm next Monday. Herron won the right to compete for state-wide honors by out-shucking a field of fifteen contestants. Twenty-five other county champions in Missouri are expected to have their entry in by the last of this week. In addition, five junior champions will compete in a class for farm boys.

Layton Roberts of Chariton county, Missouri, expects to be in Atchison county this week to "warm up" on this year's crop of corn in defense of his 1936 title.

MILK STRIKE OVER
 INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 19 (UP)—Milk was delivered to Indianapolis homes, groceries and restaurants today for the first time since outbreak of labor troubles 12 days ago.

Police were ordered to protect all drivers and prevent violence.

Twenty-six dairies suspended deliveries Oct. 8, to avoid clashes resulting from labor difficulties at three dairies. All dairies ordered drivers to resume deliveries this morning, including in their order a proposal for a new wage scale.

Negotiations to settle the original disputes have been stalemated.

Bible School Lesson Study!

"Christian Renewal"
 John 10:7-16; Titus 3:1-11.

The title of this lesson suggests the study of life, the physical as well as the spiritual. Life is a mystery. No one knows what it is. "We only know that it comes from God. Who can adequately describe or define it? The deeper we delve into its mysteries, the deeper the mystery grows. The life of the body and the life of the soul or the spirit are so interwoven, so complex, so manifold that we never cease to marvel; so mystical that we are inexplicably mystified. How are the tissues and organs of the body rebuilt after a long sickness? What is the relationship of the body to the soul? What does the spirit do with the body, what do the tissues of the body do to the invisible, intangible spirit within? Who knows? Mystery grows upon mystery. The very heart of our human life is consciousness. I know that I am, even though I do not know what I am, I think, therefore I am. That is logical. I am a thinking self determining being, and in reality I cannot do not die. The body goes back to mother earth. But I live on. I must live on forever either in bliss or woe. That depends on my own choice."—Bishop S. P. Spreng.

Real life, the highest meaning of life, the life of God no one has unless he has Jesus Christ. The life that satisfies is the life Jesus came to give—the abundant life.

The question might well be asked by every man, in the quiet of an hour when he is alone with himself and with God: "What would I consider to be the richest, fullest possible life for myself, if I could have anything in the world I should wish to choose?" Then he might follow that question with another, to-wit: "Is my life today as rich, deep, full and satisfying as it can be?"

Jesus continually talked of life, and as the good shepherd he sees to it that his sheep can have it. He went into the jaws of death—and tasted death for all that those who believe on him should have eternal life. The life which is Christ's life—he is the vine, we are the branches. The life of the vine and the life of the branch are one. "All possibility of renewal of growth, of fruitfulness, depends upon the energy of the vine. Christian living is Christ living out his life in terms of our personality."—S. I. Scofield.

The abundant life of Christ is:

(a) physical; (b) intellectual; (c) spiritual. Jesus alone brings God into the life of man. Through Him alone are we the recipients of the Holy Spirit. This life is and must be renewed constantly; as soon as the branch is separated from the vine, it died—hence the repeated admonition of Jesus: "Abide in me!" If the Christ-life is very abundant in his children, then their conduct to others will be as Christ would have it.

With the prelude, we can now consider what the conduct should be. The Christians on the island of Crete are warned that as such they must be obedient to all civil law, as represented by the Roman government. "Good works" are the fruit of the Spirit—they do not save men—they are merely a sign, an outward manifestation that the spirit and the mind of Christ are ruling the life. Paul here alludes to the former old life of these Creteans; that they were once "foolish," that is, without understanding, without discernment, which is characteristic of every sinner. "Disobedient" both to the laws of God and man. Their life was spent in lusts and pleasures of many kinds; living in malice, hatred, envy one to the other. It is amazing to see in a concordance how many times the verb "hate" occurs in the Bible; in the revised version about 183 times. Are not hatred and envy the cause of nearly all the murders and most of the lies people tell about others, and ultimately, the cause of war itself?

But when God came into their life all these things changed—saved thru His mercy—washed by regeneration—made over—renewed by the Holy Spirit—and being justified by His grace we become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. (Here the whole plan of redemption is applied and reviewed.) That is what is meant to "be born again." This state can never be acquired by education, or by self-control, or by giving up this or that. The renewing by the Holy Spirit means the gradual restoration of the divine image, which is ever going forward in him who is born again. Being justified—declared just—free, righteous before the throne of God. A judicial act, before a just God. The Holy Spirit puts his seal upon the soul, which is now declared a child of God. (This state of being justified is little understood and less preached.) It is the glorious heritage given to every child of God. It makes also for good citizenship.

Co-Operative Credit Groups are Organized

Meeting at Lincoln Forms Organization of Bodies That Handle $30,000,000 Deposits.

LINCOLN, Oct. 20 (UP)—Managers of Community Co-operative Credit Association, controlling $30,000,000 of deposits, today completed organization of a Nebraska state association.

It will be known as the Nebraska Co-operative Credit Associations, and the directors are Louis Willie, Lincoln; G. C. Van Cleer, Chester; Leo Ryan, Kearney; L. E. Laffin, Crab Orchard; E. M. Elgin; Dr. A. T. Tuxley; Carroll; D. E. Magnuson, Chapman; A. E. Pailing, Byron, and Dr. J. M. McNally, Bellwood.

C. A. Sorenson, Lincoln attorney, explained the purposes of the organization.

"These associations," he said, "were not organized for the purpose of putting commercial banks out of business. They were set up by business men and farmers of the community as service organizations. A small town without banking facilities soon dries up and blows away."

They have been formed, he said, in 93 towns in which commercial banks failed from 1925 to 1933. Their demand deposits in 1936 totaled about $29,000,000 and their time deposits aggregated about $95,000. Total loans approximate $1,298,000, Sorenson said.

MATCH CAUSES MINE EXPLOSION
 MULGA, Ala., Oct. 18 (UP)—The cause of the explosion in the Mulga coal mine that killed 34 men was fixed tentatively today—a miner struck a match and set off accumulated mine gases.

Not one of the group of miners working in an isolated section of the huge mine survived to tell the story. Thirty-three were killed outright. The only man to get out alive—Ivan Cox—died yesterday of severe burns and the effects of black death. W. B. Hillhouse, Alabama mine inspector, made this report:

"I found a burnt match in the chamber where the explosion occurred. A flare safety lamp was open. That leads me to believe at this time that the shot-firer (the miners who set off dynamite in blasting coal veins) struck a match to light the lamp and ignited gas which had collected in the section because a ventilation door had been left open.

The investigation conducted by federal and state mine experts continues today. The mine owned by the Woodward Iron company will remain closed until it is completed, throwing 1,750 miners out of work.

TRUCKERS' LICENSES
 LINCOLN, Oct. 18 (UP)—Truckers who buy feed in other states and bring it into Nebraska to sell to farmers must have an itinerant merchant's license even though they are licensed by the interstate commerce commission, the Attorney General said today.

The opinion was written by Assistant Attorney General Bert L. Overcash in reply to an inquiry from a Shannon City, Iowa, trucker as to whether he needed a license if he bought oats in Iowa and sold the grain in this state.

PARROT RAISES CLAMOR FOR BREAKFAST COFFEE
 DUANESEBURG, N. Y. (UP)—A coffee-drinking parrot is the pet of Mrs. Frank Deo. Every morning the bird sips the beverage from a cup on the breakfast table.

The bird has not yet learned to say "polly wants her coffee," but she has no trouble conveying that information by a bombardment of creaks, screams and "awks."

SOCIAL CIRCLE CLUB
 The Lewiston Social Circle extension club met at the home of Mrs. Chas. Wolfe for their regular meeting on Oct. 12, with Mrs. Jenny Kilham as assistant hostess.

The meeting opened with roll call, then the minutes and the financial report of the last meeting were given. Final plans were completed for the jubilee Oct. 14. The business meeting closed with two songs, and the project leaders proceeded with the lesson.

Mrs. Will Cook and Miss Margaret Moore discussed "Personal Development" in all its phases. The main theme was personality. The factors of good grooming as a personality phase was taken up in the care of the skin, face, hands, hair, and teeth. The leaders prepared some of the recipes for hand lotion, cuticle remover, face creams, and deodorants. Then a practical demonstration on manicuring and applying cosmetics was given. As a suitable checkup on the members' own personality habits, a chart was checked by each member to indicate their own viewpoints on their personality habits.

It was voted to have all day meetings from now on. The next meeting date is November 8, with an all day meeting at the home of Mrs. Louis Burbee, Mrs. Will Cook assisting.
