ATTEND CHURCH SUPPER

From Tuesday's Daily—
In spite of the rainy weather, a good crowd attended the family supper at the Methodist church last night. There was group singing led by Mrs. E. H. Wescott, a talk by Rev. V. C. Wright, and a talk by the district superintendent, Rev. M. E. Gilbert, who installed the officers of the church.

WINS TRIP AS AWARD

Charles Tunnell of the Parley Furniture Co., has been notified that he was a winner of a free trip and a week's outing at Muskegan, Michigan, given as an award by the Norge Co., to their salesman. Mr. Tunnell has made a nice record in his sales here and was accordingly awarded the prize.

HAS FINGER INJURED

Word has been received that Homer Wilcox, who has been working in a factory in Portland, Oregon, has had his finger seriously injured, forcing him to discontinue his work for a while. While he is off work, he may return to Plattsmouth for a visit with his parents and friends.

HERE FROM MICHIGAN

August Libershal, former Plattsmouth resident, who is now one of the prominent business men of Marquette, Michigan, arrived in the city Monday for a visit here with his mother and other of the relatives and friends.

Mr. Libershal came this far west with a friend driving through to Seattle, Washington, and he will visit here until the return of the friend from the west and then return to the east with him.

HOLD HOMECOMING

The Lewiston Social Circle held the first annual "Homecoming" at the Lewiston Community Center on October 14, at two o'clock. A short introductory program began the afternoon's entertainment. Various games made the event a pleasurable one. At a late hour, a jubilee luncheon of pancakes, sausage and coffee was served to some fifty members and guests.

The Riverview club and the former members of the Lewiston Social Circle were the guests of honor.
