STARTS NEW CASE HAS HAND INJURED

From Wednesday's Daily—
 With the completion of the Winston case in the district court this morning, Judge W. W. Wilson at once ordered the impaneeling of another jury to try the case of the State of Nebraska vs. Robert W. Harris, an action for non-payment of alimony. The jury was completed at noon and the taking of testimony started after the noon recess.

ASSISTS IN FISH FRY

The members of the Louisville fire department Tuesday evening enjoyed a very pleasant meeting and fish fry at the city hall in our neighboring city.

Henry Donat of this city was called to the Platte river city to cook the fish for the firemen as his fish frying is known over this section of the state.

TO HOLD EXAMINATIONS

The normal training examinations will be held here and at Louisville Saturday, at the office of County Superintendent Miss Alpha C. Peterson and at the Louisville high school. Those taking the teachers examinations will be the students in the normal training departments of the high school.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

From Tuesday's Daily—
 C. D. Palmer was taken to Omaha this morning where he will enter the Clarkson hospital for a very serious operation. Mr. Palmer suffered a spine injury some years ago and which has become such that an operation will be necessary.
