

Weeping Water

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Cole are spending Thanksgiving at the home of their daughter, Mrs. F. A. Hacker in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shields were in Omaha Monday attending to business matters and visiting at the home of Louis Reese.

Mrs. Herman Hillman was called to Lincoln last Monday to look after some business matters and to visit with friends.

Miss Agnes Roush was enjoying a visit Thursday (today) at the home of a sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lake at Lincoln.

Mr. Ole Olson has added to his transportation equipment one of the very latest models of Buick automobile, known as the Buick Special.

Henry Snell and family were enjoying a visit to the country and a very fine dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Anderson on Thanksgiving day.

Ralph Binger who is making his home in Lincoln was a visitor at home in Weeping Water last Sunday, guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Binger, returning to Lincoln in the evening.

Spencer Marshall and son, Nissley, were in Plattsmouth last Friday looking after business matters for the day and also visiting friends. Mrs. Marshall was looking after the affairs as the store while the men folks were away.

Mrs. Sherman of Louisville where she was for a time employed with the Carl Christensen variety store, with the increasing business at the Weeping Water variety store was asked to come here and assist in the work at the store.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Binger were in Lincoln last Monday evening where they went to visit at the Bryan Memorial hospital with the father of Mrs. Binger, Mr. D. S. Letton who is recovering from a second operation on his eyes. They report him doing very nicely and it is expected he will be able to return to his home within a short time.

Funeral of Herman C. Ross. Herman C. Ross of near Union who has been ill for some time and has been at the hospital in Omaha, passed away there last Monday at 3 o'clock, and was brought to Weeping Water by Richmond Hobson of the Hobson funeral home where the remains lay in state until Wednesday afternoon when the funeral was held, conducted by Rev. W. A. Taylor of Union with interment at the cemetery near Otoe.

Entertaining for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Homan are acting as host and hostess to a number of relatives and friends at their home in Weeping Water to a real old-fashioned Thanksgiving day dinner. Those present for the occasion are their daughter, Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Rector, Byron Baker and family and Sanford Homan and family, the latter two of Weeping Water. This completed the family circle and made a most delightful gathering, with a nicely roasted turkey to grace the center of the dinner table.

Met with Mrs. George Olson.

The Friendly Ladies of Weeping Water were meeting on Wednesday of this week at the home of Mrs. George Olson where they enjoyed a very fine time with their bridge games and luncheon.

Visited at the Farm.

Miss Anna Hart and Miss Mildred Hart were guests at the farm home which is conducted by Raymond Albert and Ruth Hart, this putting the five members of the family together for a pleasant visit and a delightful six o'clock supper as well.

Will Spend Winter in East.

Mrs. Nellie Ambler departed last Tuesday for Illinois where she will visit at the home of a sister for the winter, returning in the spring. The sisters have not seen each other for some time and sure will be pleased to be able to spend the winter together.

Will Spend Thanksgiving Here.

Professor John Weatherhog superintendent of schools at Plainview, Nebraska, where he has been for a number of years, accompanied by his wife and son arrived in Weeping Water this morning, coming to visit for the remainder of the week with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McCartney. They are dining for the Thanksgiving day here and enjoying a very fine visit as well.

Are Entertaining for Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keckler are host and hostess today at their home in Weeping Water for Thanksgiving dinner, having as their guests for the occasion their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler of Weeping Water Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Greene and son James of Elmwood and Max Campbell and wife of Lincoln.

Entertaining for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Shields are entertaining today at their home for Thanksgiving, having with them Mr. W. L. Hobson. Mrs. Hobson is visiting her parents in California, where she will be for a week or so, Mr. Hobson is a guest for the day at the home of his friends.

Spirited Football Game.

The two high school football teams from Union came to Weeping Water last Monday and played the two teams of the Weeping Water high school, both games being very spirited, Weeping Water winning both games. The score of the first team game was Weeping Water 24, Union 14. The score of the second game was Weeping Water 11, Union 6.

To Work on Water Reservoir.

The contractor for the building and enlarging of the reservoir holding the water supply of the city of Weeping Water, is expecting soon to start work on the contract and continue until it is completed. This is good news for the water users of the city as it has been a pretty discouraging proposition in the getting an abundant supply of good water and it is hoped when the reservoir is completed there will be an ample supply of water of the best quality.

Wrecks His Automobile.

Mark Hohlman while out driving had his car struck by a truck driven by some of the CCC boys with the result that the auto of Mr. Hohlman was badly damaged, so much so that it had to be almost entirely rebuilt in order to be used.

NOTICE OF HEARING

Estate No. 3305 of John L. Snaveley and Hannah L. Snaveley, each deceased, in the County Court of Cass County, Nebraska.
The State of Nebraska: To all persons interested in said estates, creditors and heirs take notice, that Edith Kitzel Bergstrand has filed her petition alleging that John L. Snaveley, a resident and inhabitant of Cass county, Nebraska, died intestate on or about the 11th day of December, 1922, seized of the following described real estate, to-wit:
A parcel of land described as follows: Commencing at a point 16 rods east of the NW corner of the NE 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of Section 2, Township 10, North, Range 9 East of the 6th P. M., thence south 20 rods, thence east 3 rods, thence north 20 rods, thence west 8 rods to the place of beginning—leaving as his sole and only heirs at law the following named persons, to-wit:
Hannah L. Snaveley, his wife; Charles H. Snaveley, Lee M. Snaveley and Edith Kitzel, now Edith Kitzel Bergstrand, his children, and Maurice Snaveley, Marie Snaveley, Milton Snaveley, and Hazel Snaveley, grandchildren, and children of a deceased son.
Said petition also alleges that Hannah L. Snaveley, a resident and inhabitant of Cass county, Nebraska, died intestate on or about the 13th day of March, 1929, seized of an undivided one-third interest in and to the real estate described above, and leaving as her sole and only heirs at law the following named persons, to-wit:
Charles H. Snaveley, Lee M. Snaveley and Edith Kitzel, now Edith Kitzel Bergstrand, her children, and Maurice Snaveley, Marie Snaveley, Milton Snaveley, and Hazel Snaveley, grandchildren, and children of a deceased son.
Said petition further alleges that the interest of the petitioner is that of an heir and also a subsequent purchaser of a part of said real estate; that no application for administration has been made and the estates of said decedents have not been administered in the State of Nebraska; and prays for a determination of the time of the death of said John L. Snaveley and Hannah L. "Christian Fruitfulness"

John 15:1-16. In this allegory we are taught the deepest meaning of the vital union with Christ. This is one of the last teachings of Jesus, after the instituting of the Last Supper and before his passion in Gethsemane. The disciples were in a very receptive mood for such teaching. A branch had just been removed from the vine (Judias Iscariot). This must have made a deep impression on the eleven. This metaphor must have been suggested by the "fruit of the vine," which had just been consecrated in the Holy Supper (Matt. 26:30) and the allegory was intended to illustrate the main idea underlying that holy rite, namely, union with Christ. It sets forth Christ as the soul source of spiritual life, and of Christian sanctity. The vine here referred to is the grape vine, which was extensively cultivated in Palestine. "The vine is the symbol of Israel, not in their national, but in their church capacity." (Ederheim). See Psalm 80:8; Isa. 5:1; Jer. 2:21; Hosea 10:1. It was also a symbol of the Messiah (Delitsch). Accordingly Christ here affirms (a) that he is the true Messiah; (b) that His church is the true Israel of God, and His followers the true Israelites. I Cor. 10:18; Gal. 6:15; I Pet. 2:9; Rev. 2:9; 3:9. (c) that He is the one fountain of spiritual life, supplying all needful grace to believers. The figure of the vine and branches corresponds to that of the body and members; it shows the mysterious, but real and vital union which subs
