

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express to our many friends and neighbors our most sincere appreciation of all of the acts of kindness and words of sympathy offered us in the hour of our bereavement at the death of our husband, father and grandfather. Especially do we wish to thank all those taking part in the funeral services and for the beautiful flowers.—Mrs. P. F. Goos and Family.

HEAR OF RELATIVE'S DEATH

The message was received here Sunday of the death of Mrs. Mary Owings, a pioneer resident of the Murray community, which occurred Saturday at her home in Oak Grove, Missouri. Mrs. Owings was in her eighties and has made her home in Missouri for many years. She was a sister of the late William and Robert Nickles of near Murray and aunt of Miss Etta, Lee Nickles and Mrs. Fannie Crosser of this city and George E. Nickles of Murray.

FUNERAL OF AGED MAN

The funeral services of Peter Preston Curtis, former resident of the vicinity of Union, was held Tuesday at the Streight funeral home on Oak street. Rev. Paul Dick, of the United Brethren church at Mynarn, conducted the services.
The interment was at Oak Hill cemetery.

GIVES FINE TALK

The audience at the Laymen's Forum of the First Methodist church, had a very fine treat afforded them Sunday night when Colonel Stanley L. James, U.S.A., was the guest speaker. Col. James gave many very interesting stories of the army life and his experiences in the line of service that were very much enjoyed. He also read the farewell address of General George Washington to the continental army.

RESUMES DUTIES

From Monday's Daily—
Officer David Pickrell, who has been off duty for several weeks due to illness, last night took up his work as a member of the night force. Officer Pickrell is feeling very well now and hopes to be able to carry on his work as usual.
