

Barbara Zitka Dies at Omaha Hospital Today

Death Comes as Result of Attack of Pneumonia and Other Complications.

Barbara Zitka, 19, youngest daughter of Mrs. Anna Zitka, died this morning at 2:30 at an Omaha hospital following an illness of some two weeks duration from pneumonia and other complications. In the past several days her case had been very critical and it was necessary the latter part of last week to give her a blood transfusion.

The departed was born and has spent her lifetime in this city where she possessed a wide circle of friends who will sincerely mourn her death and share with the bereaved family the sorrow that the parting has brought to them. She was educated in the Plattsmouth schools and since completing her school work has been employed at several of the local business houses.

There is surviving her death the mother, three brothers, Joseph, of Omaha, James and Ernest of this city, three sisters, Mrs. Mary Wysel and Mrs. Anna Remar of Omaha and Dorothy of this city. She is also survived by her grandmother, Mrs. James Jelinek and several aunts and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her father, Joseph Zitka and one brother, Francis.

The family was at her bedside when death came.

FUNERAL OF BARBARA ZITKA
The funeral services for Barbara Zitka will be held on Wednesday morning at 9:30 at the Holy Rosary Catholic church. Interment will be at the Catholic cemetery.

The sodality of the Holy Rosary church will meet at the Zitka home at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening to recite the rosary.

PLEASANT SURPRISE

On Thursday afternoon, at Taylor school, District No. 37, the mothers of the school children gathered at the school, the occasion being a surprise birthday party in honor of the teacher, Miss Martha Kaffenberger whose twenty-first birthday occurred on that day. The party was arranged by the children and their mothers and kept as a surprise to the teacher, who knew nothing of it until she was given the birthday greeting.

The afternoon was spent in visiting and entertainment by the school children.

A delicious luncheon of Jello and cake was served, the birthday cake being baked by Mrs. Elmer Tritsch.

Miss Kaffenberger received many beautiful remembrances which will long be cherished in her memory. Those present to enjoy the occasion besides the school children were Mrs. Walter Tritsch, Mrs. Elmer Tritsch, Marion Tritsch, Mrs. Joseph Bierl, Mrs. Fred Buechler, Edna Mae Buechler, Elizabeth Tschirren, Mrs. Lester Meisinger, Mrs. Ed Tritsch and Mrs. Wallace Warner.

TELEGRAM TO McNEAL EXPRESSES REGRETS

From Saturday's Daily—
On his arrival here this afternoon, Santa Claus dispatched the following telegram:

McNEAL, WATSON, MO. ARRIVED SAFELY. CONTINUING NORTHWARD. SORRY COULDN'T VISIT WATSON AS PLANNED. SANTA CLAUS.

"I hate to disappoint my old friend McNeal and the kiddies at Watson," Santa said, "but it just couldn't be helped. I'll be sure to call on them when I come back this way Christmas eve, and bring the 'nog.'"

CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Miss Charlotte Beck had a birthday last Sunday. In honoring that day she gave a very fine roast duck dinner at her residence near Murray. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. John N. Beck, Murray; Mr. and Mrs. John Hesser and daughters Freda and Lillian of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beck, Plattsmouth; Mr. Emil Siemonit, Nehawka, and the guest of honor, Miss Charlotte Beck.

RETURN FROM OUTING

Tom Kriskey, Don McCarroll and Robert Slavicek have returned home from a very pleasant outing in the south. They made the trip by auto and which took them through many of the beauty spots of the south on the ten day outing. They visited many of the main cities of Florida on the trip.

HERE FROM MURDOCK

From Thursday's Daily—
Judge H. R. Schmidt and wife and their son, Louis Schmidt, were here from Murdock today to look after some matters at the court house. This is the first time in a long period that Judge Schmidt has been here and he greatly enjoyed meeting the many old friends.

MUCH DISAPPOINTMENT AT WATSON, MISSOURI

From Thursday's Daily—
M. A. McNeal, of Watson, Mo., called the Journal this afternoon by long distance telephone to advise us the landing field there was in good condition for Santa to land on his swing back northward Saturday as originally planned, and was much disappointed to learn of the accident to Santa's plane yesterday. "We have been making preparations to entertain him ever since the first announcement that he would stop here," said 'Mac,' and the kids will be plenty disappointed.

McNeal is an old time business man of northwest Missouri and has always done his full share in providing Christmas pleasure for the youngsters of Watson and vicinity and it was for this reason Santa was particularly anxious to stop there—as he surely would have if the accident hadn't occurred.

Santa is reported resting easy today and hopes to leave the hospital by Friday night, arriving here on time Saturday.

CLUB AIDS GOOD CAUSE

Mrs. Tony Klimm, president of the Lewiston Social Circle club, was in the city Friday afternoon bringing with her a fine donation of clothing that had been secured from the club members for the needy.

This very active club was organized in 1926 through the efforts of Mrs. Klimm with the assistance of a number of the ladies residing in the territory south of this city. It has proven one of the most active organizations in the eastern section of the county and has aided greatly in many of the community activities.

The ladies have voted to make an annual event of the clothing donation and will see that each year the needy receive aid from them.

LIKE SOUTHWEST FINE

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Allen have received letters from their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Embury, stating that they arrived safely of their new home at Phoenix, Arizona, and are now getting settled. Mrs. Embury who is a sufferer from asthma, is already feeling improved in the high and dry climate of the southwest.

ATTENDS CONVENTION

County Treasurer John E. Turner was at Omaha Wednesday where he attended the meeting of the Nebraska Association of County Commissioners and Clerks. He reported a very spirited meeting and with the new budget law as the chief object of discussion. He was very much impressed by the address of Emil Placek of Wahoo.

ATTEND COURT

From Saturday's Daily—
Edward and Henry Obernalte and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McBride of near Wabash, were in the city today to look after some matters at the court house in a hearing in the Obernalte estate.

VETERAN TRAVELING MAN

C. E. Copeland, one of the veteran traveling men of the middle west, was in the city Wednesday to visit with old friends for a short time. Mr. Copeland represents the Froelich Co., of Milwaukee, dealers in leaf tobacco and his line of activity is calling on members of the cigarmaking trade in this part of the west. While here he visited John Bajack, now the sole survivor of the cigarmaking trade that once numbered over one hundred persons here, John still manufacturing "Acorns" and "P. & B." cigars.

Mr. Copeland has been traveling for the tobacco house for more than forty years and in conversation related when he first came here to sell tobacco that the Pepperberry factory was operating with a large force and later a number of smaller factories were established and which employed a large group of workers and at excellent wages. He finds that these independent individually owned plants are fast disappearing in all sections of the country.

HAS NEW POSITION

Merritt Patton of this city, who has been located on the west coast for the past two years, is now engaged as an inspector in the quartermaster department of the United States army, located at Sacramento, California, where there is an extensive project being carried on.

Merritt witnessed the recent floods that swept down the Sacramento valley and did considerable damage to several places but did not affect Sacramento which is well protected.

He states that Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ely are about the only Nebraskans that he sees now in his new work altho there are several in that section of the state on river projects.

POSTOFFICE A BUSY PLACE

The local postoffice is showing the effects of the near approach of the Christmas season in the rush of business in handling the Christmas packages both incoming and outgoing.

The parcel post mail is very heavy and to assist in the rush until after the Christmas season, Willard Brink has been assigned as an extra clerk in the mail room.

The carrier force will also have additional help as Vern Hendricks and Amos Hughson are the substitute carriers and will supplement the regular carriers, Leslie Niel and James Holy.

BUSY CUTTING WOOD

There is a very large force engaged in cutting wood from the Graves land near Rock Bluffs which has been leased by the county and from which wood is cut and distributed to those who do the cutting.

The workers are hauled to and from the woodlot by truck and are getting out as early in the morning as possible to start operations.

There is a large amount of timber on the Graves place and which should produce a great deal of wood for the winter season for those who do the cutting.

PREPARING FOR CHRISTMAS

The Recreation Center is a very busy place these days as the workers there, both employes and volunteer are busy on the preparation of the donated toys that have been received in the past weeks for the distribution at the Christmas season.

These toys are being worked over by John Chancellor and assistants and the painting is being handled by Peter Gradoville and Clyde Jackson with the assistance of a number of volunteer workers.

The toys will be made ready for distribution at the Christmas season under the direction of the American Legion Auxiliary to the children of the city who may be in need of remembrances of the holiday season.
