From Thursday's Daily—

B. D. Club Meets—

The B. D. club met Tuesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Horsak. Mrs. Elmer Lohnes won the first prize and Miss Mary Holy won second.

To Attend Wedding—

Mrs. E. T. Dutcher of Warrensburg, Missouri, will arrive this evening to be a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Minor. Mrs. Dutcher will attend the wedding of her nephew, Dr. Robert Ramsey Livingston at Omaha on Tuesday.

Given Birthday Surprise—

Last night at the W. N. Brink home there was a surprise party in honor of Agnes Brink's birthday and also in honor of Dorothy Brink and Jack Hess who are visiting here from New Albany, Indiana. Pinochle was played and the prize won by Bill Starkjohn. A fountain pen and pencil set was presented to Agnes Brink by the group. Lunch was served. The guests were Marie Nolting, Lois Giles, Ella Weiss, Bill Starkjohn, Dorothy Brink, Jack Hess, Gertrude Brink, Joe Sheer, Bill Brink, Leona Price, Jim Koehane, Margaret Bauer, and Agnes Brink.

N. O. Club Luncheon—

Mrs. Merritt Kerr was hostess to the annual Christmas luncheon of the N. O. Birthday club yesterday. The luncheon was served at 1:30. The table was spread with a hand-made lace table cloth and decorated with blue and silver bowls of Christmas candy and in the center a Christmas tree. The table was set for ten, the club members and one guest. The members are Mrs. Mattie Barkus, Jennie White, Nora Kaffenberger, Elizabeth Rishel, Grace Perry, Nellie Carlson, Florence Coleman, Hettie Larson and Mrs. Kerr. The guest was Mrs. Edna Evans of Lincoln. After the luncheon gifts were exchanged and the afternoon spent in playing games.

Entertain for Son—

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Robertson entertained last evening at a 6:30 dinner in honor of their son, James M. Robertson, II, who is home for the holiday season from the U. S. naval academy at Annapolis. The Christmas decorations were used throughout the rooms and served as the decorative feature of the table.

The evening was spent in bridge and dancing which made a very pleasant occasion for the young people.

The guests were school friends of the guest of honor in the Plattsmouth high school and comprised: Anna Margaret McCarty, Margaret Taylor, Lois Bestor, Rachel Robertson, Edwin Kalina, Herbert Minor, Stephen Davis, Robert Ray of Neligh.

Mr. Robertson will return January 1st to Annapolis to resume his duties.

Entertains Friends—

Last night Miss Eleanor Minor entertained a group of friends at a party at her home. They played card games and table croquet with a rotation of tables. In the latter part of the evening they danced. The house was decorated with Christmas decorations and a tree. Santa Claus with his reindeer was the table decorations.

From Friday's Daily—

Honors Oklahoma Visitor—

Dorothy Jean Turner entertained Thursday evening in honor of Roberta Beverage of Tulsa, Oklahoma, who is a house guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Emmerson J. Richey. Games occupied the time. The guests were Renee Brown, Betty Libershal, Helen Hiatt, Rosalyn Mark, Alice Rea, Margaret Rea and the guest of honor, Roberta Beverage.

Entertains at Chili Party—

Miss Anna Marie Rea entertained at a chili party on Thursday evening. Cards and dancing served to make the evening most delightful to the young people. The guests were Rosemary Clويد, Clea Koukal, Marjorie Wohlforth, Marjorie Fitch, Floyd McCarty, Joe Hendrix, Donald Warga, Venice Kelley.

Entertain for Lincoln Friend—

Misses Mia and Barbara Gering entertained two tables of bridge at a charmingly appointed tea on Tuesday, honoring Mrs. Maude Fricke, of Lincoln, a holiday guest in this city. Miss Minnie Guthmann won the high score while Mrs. Maude Fricke was awarded the guest prize.

Enjoys Bridge—

Mrs. Frank L. Cummins was hostess Wednesday afternoon to her bridge club. Three tables played. The guests of the club were Misses Mia and Barbara Gering and Mrs. Maude Fricke of Lincoln.

Miss Olive Jones has left on her vacation and Miss Leonard has returned from Lincoln to resume her work at the library.

Entertain at Stag Dinner—

Last evening Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Minor entertained at a six o'clock dinner at their home for Herbert Minor and his guest Robert Rea, of Neligh who is a fraternity brother at the University of Nebraska. Christmas decorations were used in the home. The guests were James Robertson, Stephen Davis, Ed Hadraba, Ed Kalina and Dick Hatt. Afterward they played cards and ping pong in the game room.

From Saturday's Daily—

Lincoln Guests Here—

Superintendent and Mrs. L. S. Devoe have as their guests for the New Year holiday, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Holland and family of Lincoln, Mr. Holland being a brother of Mrs. Devoe. Miss Dorothy Holland has been here at the Devoe home while Marjorie Devoe has been spending the week at the Holland home.

Given Surprise—

Thursday evening there was a surprise party given at his home at 1728 Oak street in honor of Joseph Novotny who celebrated his seventy-third birthday on Thursday. There was a covered dish dinner. The immediate members of the family, daughters, son and grandchildren, were present.

Mr. Novatney is one of the old residents of the community and has made his home in this community and reared his family, being numbered among the most highly esteemed citizens of Plattsmouth.

He spent many years in the service of the Burlington railroad but in recent years has retired from active service.

Entertains at Luncheon—

Miss Dora Fricke entertained a forenoon at a luncheon yesterday in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Maude Fricke of Lincoln. The guests were Miss Verna Leonard, Mrs. John Donelan, Mrs. Fricke and Miss Dora Fricke.
