CLASS OF 1907 REUNION

The class of 1907 which will be honor guests at the Bethany-Plattsmouth basketball game on Thursday night, plan a reunion of the members who are able to attend and it is hoped that as many as possible of the members will be present.

The class roll of that year reveals how many have gone from the local community. The members of the class at graduation comprised the following: Paul Clelland Morgan, Alice Brinkman, Nellie Brinkman, Crete Briggs, Elizabeth Clair Mockenhaupt, Kathryn Windham, Helen Margaret Spies, Emma E. Bauer, Florence F. White, Blanch A. Robertson, Clara L. Teipel, Elmer A. Root, Clyde Brooks, Christine M. Soenichsen, Mable M. Leesley, Fred Jess, Robert Kirk Bates, Florence Ann McElroy, Gladys Sullivan, Agatha Jones, Emma Stanfield Jones, Elizabeth Falter, Edwin A. Fricke, Beulah Miner, M. Pattie Metzger, Berniece Barker, Charles M. Mapes, Daisy Thomas, Charles H. Kirschenblatt, Sophia M. Sattler, Ernest L. Horn, Martha Pearl Barker.

Three of the class, Fred Jess, Kirk Bates and M. Pattie Metzger have passed away.

UNION MAN DIES

John William Sheard, 79, and a resident of Cass county for the past fifty-two years, died Sunday at his home in Union. Mr. Sheard was a native of Leeds, England, and has spent practically his lifetime in the United States.

He has been ill for the past two years. Mr. Sheard is survived by the widow, Mrs. Jane Sheard, three sons, Ed of Modale, Iowa, John, of Plattsmouth and Charles of Nebraska City; three daughters, Emma Gillespie, Nebraska City, Laura Polis of Nehawka, Florence Walters, Thurman, Iowa; seventeen grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

Plattsmouth friends have received word from Garold Holcomb, now at the U. S. Veterans' hospital at Hines, Illinois, that he is feeling much better. Mr. Holcomb is at the hospital to take treatment for a heart ailment and already feels very much improved but must spend some time there undergoing treatment.

IN VERY SERIOUS CONDITION

Mrs. John Sutton, of Omaha, formerly Miss Bertha Kaufmann, of this city, is very seriously ill at her home in Omaha and little hope is held for her recovery. Mrs. Sutton has been in poor health for some time and her condition has not been encouraging to the members of the family circle.

ATTENDS CONVENTION

W. A. Swatek, of the firm of Bestor & Swatek, was at Omaha Tuesday where he attended the meeting of the Nebraska State Hardware Dealers association. There was a very large number of the dealers from all parts of the state in attendance and fine programs given. While at the meeting Mr. Swatek met Fred W. Ebinger, of Plainview, former resident here and one of the prominent figures of the association. Mr. Ebinger is to visit here before he returns home.

ASKS FOR PROBATE

The first filing of an estate for the month of January in the county court was filed Monday afternoon, January 31. This was a petition for the probate of the estate of Jesse Domingo, of Weeping Water, who died several weeks ago.

ASKS TO DISCONTINUE AGENT

LINCOLN, Feb. 1 (UP)—An application by the Burlington railroad for permission to substitute a custodian for an agent at Rohrs in Nemaha county was on file with the railway commission today. The railroad said traffic has declined to the point where an agent's services no longer are needed.
