

Death of Mrs. Anna Fullagar Friday Night

Well Known Resident of Nebraska Masonic Home and Member of St. Luke's Church.

The death of Mrs. Anna B. Fullagar, 82, occurred suddenly Friday evening at the Nebraska Masonic Home where she has resided since 1927. Mrs. Fullagar had been apparently in her usual health and in the afternoon had attended the funeral of Mrs. Minnie, returning to the Home and was stricken with a heart attack from which she died a few hours later.

She was born in Frankfort, Indiana, June 10, 1855, and came west in her early womanhood and lived for a great many years in Lincoln. Mrs. Fullagar was a member of Lincoln chapter 148 of the Eastern Star and also of Charity lodge No. 2 Rebekahs of Lincoln, of which she was a past noble grand.

With Mr. Fullagar she was admitted to the Home January 6, 1927, and on July 20, 1933 Mr. Fullagar passed away.

They were admitted through East Lincoln lodge No. 210, A. F. & A. M. She is survived by a niece, Mrs. W. W. Jones, as well as a brother-in-law, W. G. Fullagar, both of Lincoln.

The funeral will be held on Monday afternoon at 2:30 from the Horton funeral home. Father George Tyner, of St. Luke's Episcopal church of which the deceased was a member, will conduct the service.

Burial will be at the Masonic plot in Oak Hill cemetery.

MAY PLACE CAST TODAY

From Saturday's Daily—
The reports from the Methodist hospital at Omaha today were to the effect that it thought that the broken pelvis of Charles Howard might be placed in a cast today if his condition permitted. The patient suffered a great deal Friday afternoon but last night when members of the family were at the hospital he seemed a little easier and it was hoped could be treated today.

HERE FROM SEDALIA

Henry Brinkman, of Sedalia, Missouri, arrived this morning for a visit with his mother, Mrs. Frank Brinkman, who has been in very delicate health for several months. He is also visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Janda, parents of Mrs. Brinkman.

Entertain at Bridge—
The Bridge club met last night with Mrs. Tom Walling. First prize was won by Laura Meisinger, second by Mrs. Frank Gobelman, and the consolation prize by Miss Amelia Martens. Delicious refreshments were served.

Thursday Club Meets—
The Thursday afternoon bridge club met yesterday at the home of Mrs. Frank Rebal. In the playing Mrs. John L. Hadraba received the high score and Mrs. Cyril Kalina the consolation. Refreshments were served at an appropriate hour.

Miss Burke Entertains—
Miss Christie Burkel entertained a group of her friends at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Val Burkel. The guests were Mrs. W. C. Tippens, Lena Henrich, Mrs. H. F. Goos, Mrs. John Schuetz and Mrs. L. B. Egenberger. The ladies all brought their sewing with them and had a fine time sewing and visiting.

W. F. M. S. Has Large Meeting—
The Methodist Women's Foreign Missionary society met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ray McMaken. Mrs. P. L. Barkus had charge of the devotionals. Miss Mayme Schwenneker sang a solo. The Chinese relief fund was discussed at the business session. Plans were made for a friendship and visitation week with Mrs. J. C. Lawson as chairman, in connection with the church program. Plans were announced for the Founders Day program at the next meeting with Mrs. L. S. Devoe. Mrs. Barkus gave a report on the Ann Versary work being done. Two members of the society have pledged themselves as members of this order of Seven Love Gifts, in which they give a penny a day for three years, to be used in the Ann Versary work. Plans were made for the World Day of Prayer on March 4 which will be held in the Methodist churches this year. The Methodist Missionary society will be hostess to society members of other churches. The report on the Standard Bearers was given. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. R. R. Walton who gave the lesson from "Mecca and Beyond" on How Christianity is Reaching the Mohammedans in India. She introduced Mrs. Lawson who gave a very interesting review of the talk in Lincoln of Rev. Hall, of Presbyterian missionary work in India, especially interested in agricultural work that is being done, showing how it was an opening wedge and had done much to help spread the Christian gospel. She showed what it means to a person who had received home training in missionary interest. A few items were given from the "Missionary Friend." Delicious refreshments, served by the hostess assisted by her daughters Anna Mary and Rachel, closed the meeting. There was a fine attendance of the members and five visitors also attended.

Guest at Davis Home—
Miss H. Alice Howell, of the department of speech of the University of Nebraska, who is a judge in the district declamatory contest, was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Searl S. Davis today. Miss Howell is an old university friend of Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

CARS CRASH IN FOG

OMAHA, Feb. 12 (UP)—Five persons were injured, four seriously when two automobiles collided in the fog this morning one mile north of Fort Calhoun, 15 miles north of Omaha.

The collision involved cars containing J. W. Cooper, 35 and Bert Carroll, 26, river workers in Blair and Mrs. Frank Wingate, her son, Richard, 17, and Mrs. Algot Bjornberg, all of Omaha.

Surgeons at Immanuel hospital here said the condition of the two women was serious. Doctors at the Blair hospital where Cooper and Carroll were taken said both were "in bad shape."

Both machines were badly wrecked in the collision. Visibility had been cut to a few hundred feet by the dense fog.

RETURN WANTED BOYS

KEARNEY, Neb., Feb. 12 (UP)—Two boys who escaped from the industrial school here have been recaptured, Superintendent Gettman announced today.

Parents of Charles Bradwell, 17, of Bladen returned him to the institution. The boy had hitch-hiked to the west coast and back. Bladen escaped December 2.

Lawrence O'Neill who made his third successful dash for liberty on October 28 has been recaptured in Omaha. Superintendent Gettman will bring him here today.

PLACES WREATH ON STATUE

LINCOLN, Feb. 12 (UP)—Governor Cochran placed a floral wreath at the base of the statue of Abraham Lincoln on the capitol grounds today in a ceremony sponsored by Lincoln Boy Scouts.

The wreath was presented by Mayor Oren S. Copeland to the governor who accepted it on behalf of the people of Nebraska. Cochran told the 400 boys who witnessed the ceremony that Lincoln's outstanding characteristic was his humanity, his sympathetic feeling toward all classes of people."

Fog Proves a Menace to Auto Travel

Menace of Wet and Fog Keep Traveling Public Well at Their Homes During Night.

With fog hanging over the highways of eastern Nebraska Friday night and today, travel was very light by truck or car and only those who found it necessary to be out on the highways was to be found. Bus service was crippled by the heavy fog and the busses in here were all late as the drivers were compelled to go very slowly in the heavy fog mantle.

Cars that convoyed the Plattsmouth basketball team and fans to Ashland Friday night were compelled to proceed very slowly all of the way, taking the route from here to Fort Crook and west through Papillion to Gretna where they drove on into Ashland over No. 6. The visibility was very poor all of the way.

Trucking business, very heavy as a rule on highway No. 75 through this city was very light today and drivers reported the greatest difficulty in driving with the fog and wet and slick paving in many places.
