

SOCIAL

From Thursday's Daily—

Honor Mrs. A. L. Huffer—

One of the most delightful winter parties was held at the home of Mrs. Howard Wiles with Mrs. Ed Spangler co-hostess, honoring Mrs. A. L. Huffer who is soon to make her home in Ohio.

Those present were Mrs. Myron Wiles, Mrs. Guy Wiles, Mrs. John Vallery, Mrs. Sherman Cole, Mrs. Newton Sullivan, Mrs. Chas. Barnard, Mrs. Arthur Wetenkamp, Mrs. Henry Hild, Miss Lois Mead, Mrs. Wm. Mullenix, Eaton, Ohio, Mrs. A. L. Huffer, Mrs. Howard Wiles and Mrs. Ed Spangler.

Much merriment was derived from games played throughout the evening.

The decorations were beautiful and appropriate to Washington's birthday.

Delicious refreshments, carrying out the same color scheme, were served.

Junior C. D. of A.—

The Junior Catholic Daughters met last night at the home of Miss Shirley Petersen. Games were played, in which Betty Shiffer won high and Catherine Strickland was low. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Miss Shirley Petersen and Miss Mary Alice Ault. The next business meeting will be held at the home of Renee Brown.

Neighborhood Club—

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lohnes entertained the Neighborhood Pinochle club last night. Four tables played pinochle and prizes were won among the ladies by Mrs. John Alwin, first, and Helen Smetana, second. John Alwin won the first prize for the men and Raymond Larson won second. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Entertains Class—

Monday evening at their homes at Myrard Mrs. Paul Dick and Mrs. Louise Robbins were hostesses at a valentine party, having as their guests the girls of the primary class of the United Brethren Sunday school.

The little folks gathered at the Dick home where they enjoyed playing many games and at an appointed hour they went next door to Mrs. Robbins' home where they partook of a delicious 6 o'clock dinner prepared by the hostesses. Favors were small heart shaped boxes of candy.

Those present were Barbara Dick, Erna Lee Dick, Mary Lou Fulton, Mildred Ann Meisinger, Bonnie Jean Meisinger, Marilyn Mae Beckman, Eloise Cole, Mary Margaret Cole, Deloris Smith, Margaret Smith, Marianne Wetenkamp and Mary Katherine Wetenkamp.

Presbyterian Circles Meet—

The circles of the Presbyterian church met yesterday as follows:

Circle No. 1 met with Mrs. C. E. Martin with Mrs. C. A. Marshall as assistant hostess. There were ten members and one guest present. The lesson was given by Mrs. Bertha Shopp. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Circle No. 2 met with Mrs. Wiley Sigler with Mrs. Walter Farris as associate hostess. Mrs. H. G. McClusky gave very fine devotionals to the missionaries. Mrs. McClusky also gave a very interesting talk on missionaries.

Mrs. L. O. Minor entertained Circle No. 3 with Mrs. T. H. Pollock as associate hostess. The program which showed the splendid progress Christianity made in Africa during the centennial year of Foreign Missions in the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Stephen Wiles gave the devotionals.

Circle No. 4 met with Mrs. Roy Knorr with Miss Helen Franke as associate hostess. There was a good attendance at the meeting. Plans were made for the dinner to be served next week to the orchestra which will give a concert at the high school.

Mrs. Robert Cappell entertained Circle No. 5 yesterday with Mrs. L. L. McCarty and Mrs. George Fornoff as associate hostesses. The missionary program on "Africa" was given by the leader, Mrs. Ralph Wehrlein.

Hold Circle Meeting—

Twenty-three ladies, members of Circle No. 1 of St. John's Parish Society, met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joe Libershal in the south part of the city.

The business meeting was conducted by the chairman, Mrs. Frank Mullen. The ladies decided to hold a card party in the near future.

Father Robert Salmon was present and gave a very interesting talk to the members.

The remainder of the afternoon was spent socially. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Libershal, Mrs. Bach and Miss Frances Tomiazeki.

Mrs. Emma Egenberger, Miss Helen Smetana and Mrs. Lorene Urish were guests of the circle.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. Bennett on March 16.

From Friday's Daily—

E. B. Club Meeting—

The E. B. club met last night with Mrs. Minnie Bullin, Margaret Scotten won first prize, Mrs. John Wolff won second and Mrs. Emma Egenberger won third.

D. D. Club Meets—

The D. D. club met at the home of Miss Jane Rebal at a 6:00 o'clock dinner party. Miss Alice Jane Crosshans assisted. The dinner carried out the Valentine theme. A prize for the most skillful was won by Mary Gayer. The door prize was won by Gloria Johnson.

St. John's Circles Meet—

Circle No. 2 of the St. John's Parish society met with Mrs. F. I. Rea, Mrs. G. J. Jaeger and Mrs.

E. A. Lorenz were assistant hostesses. There were nine members present. A business meeting was held.

Circle No. 3 met with Mrs. Charlie Ault with Mrs. Joseph Kelly, Miss Bergman and Mrs. Bierl as assistant hostesses. The business was discussed.

Honored on Birthday—

Yesterday afternoon a birthday party was given for Frances Lutz at her home in honor of her eleventh birthday. A group of her school friends were invited and they played games. A delicious lunch was served.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lutz entertained at a dinner. The guests were Mr. Lutz's father, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lutz, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gobelman.

Afternoon Bridge Club—

The Afternoon Bridge club met yesterday with Miss Verna Leonard. Mrs. F. L. Cummins won first prize and Miss Minnie Guthman won second.

Methodist Circles Meet—

The Dorcas circle of the Methodist church met yesterday at the church. A short business meeting was held. The meeting was turned over to Mrs. William Evers who had charge of the program. Miss Maymie Schweneker sang a solo, "When the Organ Played 'O Promise Me," accompanied by her mother. A group of fifth grade girls presented a play, under the direction of their teacher, Miss Dorothy Glock. The girls were dressed in clothes of the Martha Washington days. Their play showed how to dance the colonial days. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses Mrs. E. W. Thimman, Mrs. Roy Schweneker, Zella Traudt and Miss Grace Perry.

The Naomi circle met yesterday with Mrs. R. R. Walton. Seventeen members and three visitors, one, Mrs. Sylvester, becoming a member, were present. The devotionals were led by Mrs. Ray McMaken. The subject was "Prayer." Milo Price gave a very interesting talk on the life of Peter, the Bible character for study. A delightful lunch was served by Mrs. Walton.

The Naomi circle met yesterday with Mrs. Clement Woster, with a very good attendance. Mrs. Fred Bourck had charge of the meeting. Mrs. J. C. Walton gave the devotionals and a very interesting talk on "Love." The assistant hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Milo Price and Mrs. W. G. Kieck.

From Saturday's Daily—

Community Pinochle Club—

The Community Pinochle club met last night in the Bekins building. Six tables of pinochle were played. Mrs. John Woest won the first prize and Mrs. William Swanda won second prize.

Entertain at Dinner—

Last evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Young in the south part of the city was the scene of a very delightful dinner party. Mr. Young and W. E. Reynolds of Union, had conducted the Earl Meisinger sale Friday afternoon and when they returned in the evening they were joined by Mrs. Reynolds and Mrs. E. E. Leach, of Union, who had motored up to visit with Mrs. Young. They all enjoyed the very fine dinner very much.

Surprised on Birthday—

P. Y. McPetridge was given a very pleasant surprise on Friday evening at the home on South Ninth street, the occasion being in honor of his birthday anniversary. The event was arranged by Mrs. McPetridge and was a complete surprise to the guest of honor.

There were three tables of pinochle and in the playing Mrs. Fred Lugsch had high score for the ladies and Mrs. McPetridge the second honors. Ray Larson was high in the gentlemen and Fred Lugsch second.

Refreshments were served at an appropriate hour.

Joins West Coast Group—

Miss Emily Lorenz, daughter of

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Lorenz of this city, who is located on the west coast at Long Beach, has just been made a member of the Young Ladies Institute at Long Beach, a Catholic organization that has a large membership on the west coast.

The initiation of the young ladies into the organization was the occasion of a number of social events, including the initiation banquet at the Pacific Coast club and a rush tea and fashion show given in honor of the candidates at the Lakewood Country club.

LOCALS

From Friday's Daily—

Mrs. E. P. Stewart left today for the western part of Nebraska to attend the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Eastern Star, of which she is a member.

From Saturday's Daily—

Miss Frances Schmidt is spending the week-end in Omaha.

Searl S. Davis was in Omaha yesterday attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Smith of Bellwood, Nebraska were expected to arrive here today to visit their son, Attorney Walter H. Smith.

RED CLOUD PEOPLE WED

Friday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Methodist church occurred the marriage of Lloyd Weldon Wilcoxen and Miss Lillian May Lea, both of Red Cloud, Nebraska.

The marriage lines were read by Rev. J. C. Lowson in his usual manner.

The newlyweds departed at once after the ceremony for their home in the west.

LAND, FARM and RANCH BARGAINS

Hay for sale. See Archie Stull. f16-2tw

Young horses for sale. Clarence Schlanker, Elmwood, Nebr.

FOR SALE—Young, sound, gentle work horse. Ray Patton, Plattsmouth. 1tw

FOR SALE—One matched horse and mare. Weight 3,000 lbs. Leland Hogue, Murray, Nebr. f21-2tw

FOR SALE—1937 Red Clover seed. Pure seed 99%. Germination, 93%. Otto J. Meisinger, Plattsmouth. f17-2tw

TEAM FOR SALE—Team of sorrel geldings, 4 years old. P. G. Kreiner, 5 miles south of Davey, Nebr. f21-1sw

PUBLIC AUCTION

On account of the death of my wife, I am selling all my personal property at Public Auction on the John Leyda farm 3 1/2 miles west and 1 mile north of Murray; 7 miles north of Nelawika; 2 miles north and 7 miles east of Weeping Water—

Tuesday, March 1 beginning at 10:30 o'clock a. m., with lunch served on grounds by Ladies Aid.

Four Head of Mules
One black mule, 11 years old, wt. 1200 lbs.; one black mule, 10 years old, wt. 1250 lbs.; one black mule, 11 years old, wt. 1400 lbs.; one black mule, smooth mouth, wt. 1400 lbs.

Ten Head of Cattle
One red roan cow, milking; one roan cow, milking; one red cow, milking; one red cow, milking; one Jersey cow, milking; one 2-year-old roan heifer, to freshen soon; one 2-year old white heifer, to freshen soon; one 2-year old heifer, roan.

Farm Machinery
One McCormick-Deering 2-row cultivator, new; one wide tread John Deere lister; one Case 2-row machine; one McCormick hay rake; one Deering mower; one Case gang plow and 4-H hitch; one Meadow corn elevator; one 3-section harrow; one Badger cultivator; one New Departure walking cultivator; one wagon, complete; one low-wheel wagon; one wagon box; one hay rack; one McCormick binder; one John Deere disc; one pump engine and jack; two scoop boards; two sets 1 1/2-inch harness; six mule collars; two sets flynets; one DeLaval cream separator; one cooking kettle and many small items too numerous to mention.

Terms of Sale
All sums of $25.00 and under are cash. If terms are desired, you must see the Clerk before the purchase is made on sums over $25.00.

C. E. Hatcliff,
Owner.
REX YOUNG, Auctioneer
F. J. DOMINGO, Clerk

OUR PHOTO-FLASHES

Aero Boats for Ground Troops—Mytchett, Aldershot—Soldiers of the 1st Battalion of the South Staffordshire Regiment test collapsible rubber boats for speedy crossing of narrow streams.

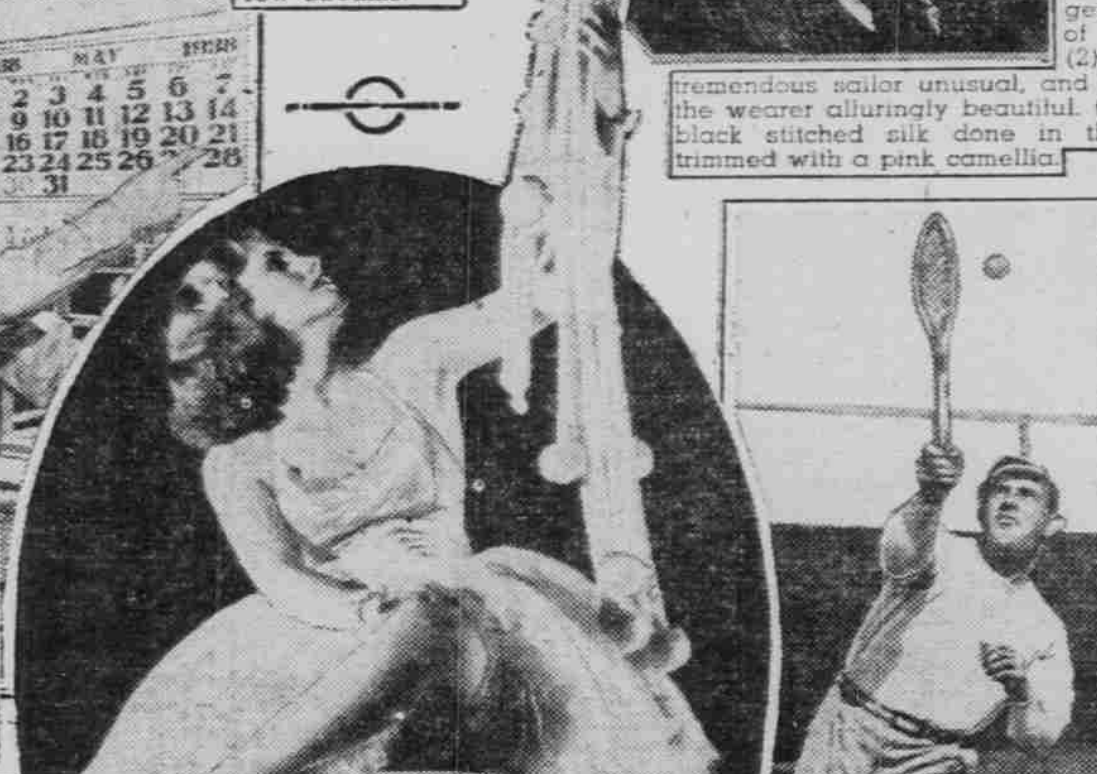

Fashions in Hats—(1) A pill box of silk-like straw to match the red velvet geraniums set on a circle of black patent leather. (2) Purple kid makes this tremendous sailor unusual, and the purple veil makes the wearer alluringly beautiful. (3) A diminutive hat of black stitched silk done in the 1880 manner, and trimmed with a pink camellia.

Boy Genius Beats Mozart's Record—New York City—Jimmy Colton, whose intelligence quota is rated only six points below that of Albert Einstein, claims the distinction of being the world's youngest composer. Mozart wrote his first musical composition at the age of four, whereas Jimmy directed his first musical composition on his third birthday.

6 Months to Live—Four in jail, Chicago, Ill.—Harry Turner, 49 years old, was told by doctors that an incurable disease would leave him but 6 months to live. On Feb. 1 he was sentenced to jail for stealing bonds from his sister. Here he shows Warden Frank Sain when his sentence expires.

A Thing of Beauty—Joan Fontaine, popular movie actress, is also a talented toe and ballet dancer, as she gracefully illustrates.

Flying Pup—Hamilton Field, Calif.—Teddy is just four months old, and flying with the Seventh Bombardment Group has already accumulated 102 hours of flying time.

The Farmer Takes a Wife—Unionville, Conn.—John Lorencik, 22-year-old farmer, and his bride-to-be, Henrietta Pieper, 70, pose for their picture. He says young girls stay out too late.

Still Serving 'em—Johnny Allen, Cleveland Indian mound artist and former Yankee, swats the soft ball at St. Petersburg, Fla., before leaving for training camp.

To Review the Progress being made in the solution of dealer and distribution problems, members of the 1938 Dealer Advisory Council, U. S. Tire Dealers Mutual Corp., held a three-day meeting in Detroit. Left to right are: H. N. Hawkes, general sales manager, R. E. Sheehan, Detroit; J. E. Wright, Little Rock, Arkansas; W. D. Mardick, Joplin, Mo.; F. H. McKenna, New York, N. Y.; C. L. Dorman, San Diego, Calif.; Jack Bunn, Dallas, Texas; A. H. Gould, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Victor M. Shaw, Charlotte, N. C.; J. W. Brewer, Salt Lake City, Utah; Lloyd Guiter, Tacoma, Wash.; and L. D. Tompkins, vice president.

Better Babies' Better Babies—Twenty-five years ago these young mothers, then infants, received awards from the newly established Better Babies Bureau of the Woman's Home Companion. Checking up after a quarter century, the magazine's editors find that these former better babies are among many who now have better babies of their own. Left to right they are, Mrs. Richard Meisinger of Racine, Wis.; Mrs. Albert Hest of Duluth, Minn.; and Mrs. Florence Reed of Ozone Park, N. Y. The editors cite these as living examples of improvements brought about by food and drug and similar legislation, as well as improved health knowledge.

Lesson in Batting Form—Joe Stripp (right), St. Louis Cardinal infielder, uses a mirror to show two students how to detect flaws in batting form.

Spirit of Mardi Gras—Venice, Calif.—Depicting the spirit of Mardi Gras in flowers, Mitti Uehlein (center), Jean Myras (right) and Mary Hutchinson, grace the float which represents the popular beach city.