From Monday's Daily—

Entertains at Dinner—

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Reed on North 8th street had as their Sunday dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Perry Minniear, Walter Minniear, Frances and Helen Mary.

Honored on Birthdays—

Sunday the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Alwin was the scene of a very charmingly arranged birthday dinner, honoring the anniversary of Miss Hazel Burley of Omaha, niece of Mrs. Alwin and George W. Perry of this city.

The delicious dinner was featured by the two very fine birthday cakes prepared for the guests of honor.

The guests were Mrs. Maude Bunch, Miss Hazel Burley, Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Rihn, Union; Mrs. George Alwin, Council Bluffs, Wilma Pickard, Bernard Rhodes, Glenwood, George Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Alwin.

Honor Miss Gass—

Sunday Mrs. J. M. Roberts entertained in honor of the birthday anniversary of Miss Olive Gass. The center of attraction at the table was the large birthday cake with its many glowing red candles.

Miss Gass received a birthday shower of gifts from friends present. These guests were Mrs. Bertha Shopp, Miss Olive Jones, Miss Margaret Hodgert, Miss Margaret Mapes, Mrs. G. L. Farley, Miss Alice Eaton of Omaha and Miss Gass.

From Tuesday's Daily—

Entertains Neighbors—

Mrs. Fred Lugsch entertained a group of neighbors at a pinocle party last night honoring her sister, Hulda Spahn. Mrs. A. H. Duxbury won the prize.

Enjoy Sleighing Party—

Miss Eleanor Minor was hostess Monday evening to a bob sled party.

some ten of the school friends joining in the jolly event, a reminder of the old fashioned winter outings. The party enjoyed an extensive ride and then returned to the Minor home where they enjoyed games as well as a delicious oyster supper.

Entertains at Washington Party—

Last evening Miss Shirley Petersen entertained a number of school friends at a Washington party at her home on Park Hill. The Petersen home was arranged in the patriotic decorations appropriate to the occasion, the Washington theme being carried out in the favors, tallies and the refreshments.

The young people enjoyed "Flea" as one of the diversions of the evening and in which Shirley Mason won first prize for the girls and Jacqueline Wetenkamp the second, while for the boys Edward Smith was first and Allan Persinger, second.

The remainder of the evening was spent in games and dancing until an appropriate hour when a very delicious luncheon was served.

In serving Mrs. Petersen was assisted by her daughter, Shirley, Shirley Mason and Helen Dill.

Given Birthday Surprise—

Another very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Klimm on the occasion of his birthday anniversary February 15. The event was arranged by the neighbors and friends who came with many beautiful gifts as well as well laden baskets that provided a fine luncheon later.

Bingo and other games served to pass the time delightfully for all and in bingo Mrs. Loy Scott proved the most skillful.

Music and songs added to make it a real evening of pleasure to all of the jolly group.

Mrs. Klimm also was remembered in the gifts as her anniversary was on February 16th and the friends included her anniversary in the surprise.

Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. John Hobscheidt, Mr. and Mrs. Art Hanson and Roland, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sporer, Mary and Martens, Mr. and Mrs. S. Y. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Scott and family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Halth, Mr. and Mrs. E. Snodgrass and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Splitt, Margaret Hobscheidt, Margaret Moore, Ruth French, Mrs. Hannah Hanson, Bert Warthen, George, Frank and Henry Hobscheidt, Dale Hanson.

From Wednesday's Daily—

Needlecraft Club—

Mrs. Arnold Lillie entertained the sewing club last night. The members chose "The Needlecraft Club" as the name of their club. Mrs. Mark and Mary Jane, Mrs. Clyde Graves, Miss Wilma Pickard, Mrs. Lester Thingan, Miss Anna Kluke, Mrs. Arthur Kopp and Miss Esther Oltjeburns. Delicious refreshments, carrying out the theme of George Washington's birthday, were served.

Have Bobsled Party—

The Tuesday Evening club was entertained last night by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Tritsch at a sleighing party. After a jolly time sleighing the members went in and were served delicious refreshments by the hostess.

Birthday Party—

A birthday party was held at the home of Miss Helen Mason in honor of Noel Eugene Gull of Louisville. The evening was spent in playing various games. At an appropriate hour luncheon was served by the hostess. Many nice gifts were received.

Those present were Eugent Knutson, Hazel Payton, Iruis Gertis, Mildred Payton, George Imman, Barbara Stander, and the guest of honor Noel Gull, George Allen and Clyde Allen. Some of the young people were absent on account of weather conditions.

At a late hour the young people departed, wishing Noel many more happy birthdays. There was a beautiful birthday cake baked by the hostess' sister.

Surprised on Birthday—

A very pleasant surprise party was held last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Babbitt, honoring Mrs. Babbitt on her birthday yesterday. The party was arranged by a group of friends who came with many lovely gifts and well-laden baskets for the lunch served later. The group spent the evening playing pinocle, with Ellen Kaffenberger winning high and Shirley Seiver, low; and for the men, Elmer Tritsch, high and Mr. Babbitt, low.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Don Sevier and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nolting, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Tritsch and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Rummel and Richard, Mrs. Margaret Kaffenberger and Ellen.

MYNARD U. B. CHURCH

Paul L. Dick, pastor

A two-weeks series of evangelistic meetings began last Sunday evening, and will close at the morning service March 6. Thus far the pastor has worked unassisted, but for the remainder of the series, Rev. Norman B. Calloway, pastor of the Methodist church in Louisville, will be the speaker. There is a good lively song service and a worthwhile message each evening. If you stay away, you are missing something!

The Ladies' Aid will hold an all-day meeting at the church on March 3. Comfort-tying and church-cleaning are on the program. A covered-dish luncheon will be served at noon.

SURPRISE FRIEND

Last Saturday evening, March 19, the members of the ladies aid society of the Eight Mile Grove Evangelical church, gave Mrs. August Engelkemeier a most delightful surprise on the occasion of her seventy-fourth birthday anniversary. The ladies were joined by the children of Mrs. Engelkemeier and their families in making it a most delightful occasion. The evening was spent in visiting and playing pinocle at which a great deal of pleasure was derived. At an appropriate hour a dainty luncheon was served that aided in the completion of a most pleasant event for all of the group.

EIGHT MILE GROVE LUTHERAN CHURCH

TELLS OF PIONEER MINISTER

The Saturday morning Journal carried a story from Coalinga, Calif., about remarriage of Willis W. Pressey, 81, and Mrs. Flora T. Pressey, 78. They are to be remarried at Coalinga by their son, M. B. Pressey, after having been divorced thirty-four years ago. Members of the D. A. R. who are gathering vital statistics in Nebraska counties, have recently been going over the old files of The Journal, beginning with 1867. In the same issue of Oct. 12, 1879, they found an item reporting the marriage on Oct. 12, 1879, by Rev. A. L. Folden of Lincoln of Willis W. Pressey of New Jersey and Miss Flora Henry of Oak Creek precinct. The above item from the State Journal is of special interest to residents of Cass county, due to the fact that Rev. A. L. Folden above mentioned was one of the pioneer Methodist ministers of this county and for many years was pastor of the Methodist church at Union, where he died December 12, 1911, at the age of 87 years. He was a native of Virginia and came to Nebraska in 1854. He was the grandfather of Mrs. Vernon T. Arn of this city.

FUNERAL OF ART COPENHAVER

The funeral of Arthur Copenhaver will be held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Sattler funeral home in this city. Rev. W. A. Taylor will conduct the services. Interment will be at the East Union cemetery.
