

VISIT RELATIVES HERE

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Manners of Longview, Washington, is here to enjoy a visit with the relatives in this section of Nebraska. They motored through with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Burnette Fifer, also of Longview. They are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Manners in this city as well as relatives at Council Bluffs, Omaha and Eagle.

Mr. J. M. Manners was for many years a mail carrier out of Murray and later moved to Lincoln.

MANY ATTEND SERVICE

There were only two empty seats Sunday night at the First Christian church. Nine became members of the church by obedience in baptism. Three were children of the Bible school, the other six were adults.

SAFE FROM FLOOD

Miss Verna Leonard has received word from her uncle, F. E. White, in Los Angeles, California. Their many friends here will be glad to learn that they have sustained very little damage from the flood there.

VISIT COMMISSIONERS

A committee appointed by the Center precinct taxpayers meeting, was here Tuesday afternoon and held a session with the board of county commissioners relative to the collection of taxes. The group also had Sheriff Homer Sylvester at the meeting to discuss the tax situation.

DOINGS IN DISTRICT COURT

Foreclosure action, Pearl Sowards vs. George S. Willis, et al, filed in the office of the clerk of the district court.

ATTEND BAPTISM

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Woodbury of Nebraska City were in the city Sunday as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Ptak. They came up to attend the baptism of Dennis, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ptak, which took place Sunday at the St. John's church. Mrs. Woodbury was godmother of the babe and A. W. Clويد of this city godfather.

TO RETURN HOME

C. D. Palmer, who has been at the Clarkson hospital at Omaha for some time, is expected to be able to return home Wednesday. He is able to be up a part of the time but is compelled to use crutches and keep off his feet. It is hoped his recuperation will be improved at home and with the family.

VISIT AT BROWNVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Shoemaker and Mr. and Mrs. John Bridgewater, of Omaha, with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bridgewater of this city were at Brownville, Sunday. This is the old home of the Bridgewater family and they had the pleasure of meeting many of the old friends.

UNDERGOES OPERATION

From Tuesday's Daily—This morning at the St. Catherine's hospital at Omaha, Mrs. J. H. Carter, of that city, was operated on. Mrs. Carter is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Egenberger of this city and the many friends here trust that she may soon be on the highway to recovery.

VISITING AT LINCOLN

From Tuesday's Daily—Mrs. Melva Troyer, of Trans-Caucasus, Russia, who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. P. T. Heineman, went to Lincoln today where she will visit with friends and relatives.
