

NEHAWKA

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Switzer was made happy last Sunday when the stork brought to this home a very fine little daughter which with the mother is getting along very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin A. McReynolds and Miss Lannie McReynolds made a trip to Iowa last Sunday, visiting McPaul where the tornado caused some damage recently and also loked over some of Iowa's farm lands, returning home in the evening after a very pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. Tommy Mason, Jr., has been visiting with her folks in Kansas City for some time and enjoying a good visit there. Last Sunday Thomas Mason, Jr., and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mason, Sr., and the little grandson took the car and drove to Plattsmouth where they crossed the river and drove to McPaul, Iowa to see the effects of the twister there last week, and then drove on to Shenandoah and back via Nebraska City and home.

Have Good Hog Sale.

Harry M. Knabe who some years ago carried a little Hampshire pig home with him in a gunny sack, and raised it, it being a sow, which was the first in his enterprising business career in the breeding and growing of this fine line of porkers, and with each succeeding year has advanced until he has a number of sales each year, held another Hampshire hog sale last Saturday at the sales pavilion at Nehawka when he disposed of 50 very fine brood sows. This sale sent pigs to many states, all giving the very best of satisfaction to the purchasers and leaving a neat sum in the pockets of Harry.

Attended Funeral of Aunt.

On last Saturday W. H. Kruger and his brother, Lyle Kruger received the notification of the very severe illness of their aunt, Mrs. Emma Snodgrass near Gretna. W. H. Kruger and wife and little daughter hastened to Gretna and apprised of the seriousness of the condition of the aunt by H. L. Kruger of Plattsmouth, and while they drove very rapidly were unable to reach Gretna before she had passed away. Mr. Kruger met his mother, Mrs. Clara Kruger of Kansas City at Gretna whom he had not seen for some time.

The funeral was held at Gretna Tuesday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Kruger and Lyle Kruger attended, while the coming of a little grandchild to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bucholds called the attention of Mrs. Lyle Kruger and she was unable to attend the funeral.

Visited at Elmwood.

Measrs. and Mesdames J. H. Steffens and Jesse Moritz of Nehawka with the auto of the former made a very pleasant visit in Elmwood last Sunday afternoon where they all visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Sumner. Mr. and Mrs. Sumner formerly were located in Nehawka where Mr. Sumner was agent of the Missouri Pacific. They are liking their home in Elmwood very well.

Celebrated 19th Birthday.

The Nehawka American Legion were holding a special meeting last week when they appropriately celebrated the passing of the 19th birthday anniversary of the establishing of the Nehawka American Legion post. An excellent time was had with the social hour and cats which were furnished by the Woman's Auxiliary, and at the festive board Walter J. Wunderlich was asked to preside as toastmaster, calling on whom he would and the many responses overfilled the evening as well as recalled many incident occurring overseas and in the earlier years of the Legion.

Back to Lumber Office.

Nearly two weeks ago Andrew F. Sturm was taken with the grippe which after some time developed into sinus infection and which has kept him home and most of the time in bed. After some two weeks he was able Monday of this week to again get down to the office. John O. Yeiser and family of Omaha were in Nehawka last week to visit the patient.

Plants His Potatoes.

Henry Wessell who always has planted and as well always grows a good patch of potatoes, was out to the farm last Friday seeing that the potato patch was rightly planted.

EAGLE NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hudson and Austin Trimble left Tuesday morning of this week for their farm located near Alliance where they will look after their interests during the spring and summer months. While en route, they planned to visit relatives at Fairmont and Aurora.

Mrs. D. F. Butt and Mrs. Dick Schwegman were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Wenzel on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. James McCartney left last Monday for Los Angeles, California, where she had been called due to the illness of relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Oberle of Lincoln visited at the home of Mr. Oberle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Oberle on Sunday.

A number of the ladies from the Eagle community were guests at a tea sponsored by the Alvo Methodist Aid at the Alvo church last Friday afternoon. They report having had a very fine time.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hudson and Mrs. Anna Earl were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deason in Lincoln last Wednesday.

Mrs. B. H. Root returned home last Thursday from Scottsbluff where she spent six weeks with her son, Merle Root and family.

Mrs. Houston Welton of Red Cloud visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Price and family the first of this week.

Mrs. Owen Runyan and son of Weeping Water called on Mrs. Sarah Kell and Dorothea Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Stoner and son from Leavenworth, Kansas, arrived Monday evening. They were called here on account of the illness of Mrs. Stoner's father, Mr. Jacob Umland.

Mr. Larsen and Mrs. Anderson of University Place called at the G. H. Palmer home last Sunday afternoon.

Clair Wolfe, who recently purchased the Weeping Water Republican, was in Eagle taking care of some business matters on Monday of this week.

Miss Dorothy Frohlich was a guest at the birthday party given for Etta-mae and Dwayne Blodgett at their home last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Alice Pentiman of Elmwood visited several days the latter part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Robertson and family.

Miss Melva Wall and Mr. Alton Haase of Bennet attended the banquet at the Cornhusker hotel in Lincoln on Tuesday evening which was given for the delegates who attended the convention for Cooperative Creameries, Inc. Miss Wall is employed in the Lincoln office.

Jacob Umland has been seriously ill for several days at his home. His condition is no better at the time of this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wall came from West Point Friday evening and visited until Sunday afternoon with relatives both in Eagle and Palmyra.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hoffmeister and daughter of Weeping Water and Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Earl and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Will Hudson and Mrs. Anna Earl last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Osenkop of Walton spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hursh.

Miss Elinor Longman is home recuperating from a recent operation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Paine left Sunday for Omaha where Mr. Paine will be employed temporarily in the office of the Tom Engle Lumber Co. He expected to be placed as manager of a yard owned by them soon. Mr. and Mrs. Paine have been here for more than two years and will be missed by their Eagle friends.

Music Contest. Nearly 700 music students from the schools in this section of Nebraska were in Eagle last Saturday to participate in the music contest.

The girls glee club received a rating of superior. The small groups and the solos were rated as excellent.

Tender Farewell. The Methodist Sunday school sponsored a farewell for Mr. and Mrs. Paine last Thursday evening at the home of the honored guests. A covered dish luncheon was served at seven o'clock followed by a nice program. There was a good attendance and all expressed regret that Mr. and Mrs. Paine were leaving the community.

HAPPY HOME PROJECT CLUB

The Happy Home project club held a party for the members and their families on Friday night, March 18, at the Ladies' Aid building at Cedar Creek. The evening was spent in playing cards. The high score in pinochle went to Mrs. Rudolph Meisinger and low score to B. M. Hubble. High score in pitch went to Mrs. Harry Meisinger and low to Mrs. Henry Albert. Prizes were given. Rummy and bunco were also played.

Refreshments were served consisting of sandwiches, pickles, potato salad, Jello, cake and coffee.

All members were present. The evening was enjoyed by all.

REGULAR ATLANTIC AIR SERVICE

WASHINGTON, March 21 (UP)—Department officials said today they expected regular trans-Atlantic air mail service to be started this summer or next spring at the latest.

The department has been advised that Pan-American Airways is ready to start flying mail between the United States and Great Britain and Ireland this summer. It was understood that Pan-American was waiting for the British Imperial Airways to prepare itself for a similar service.

Under an agreement between the two companies, their operations were to be started when both were completely prepared.

OTTAWA (UP)—Apparently the diet of Arthur Cordingley does not agree with him.

The 35-year-old Scotchman is recovering in hospital here from his 17th operation following his collapse on the street.

The Glasgow native, who performs as an acrobat under the cognomen of Jack Redcloud, has 119 stitches decorating his abdomen. He had previously collapsed in Halifax after a theatrical performance in which he ate glass chips, razor blades, light bulbs and carpet tacks.

Cordingley suffered a slight attack of indigestion.

BOYS APPEASE BIG BEAR BY YIELDING SCHOOL LUNCH

ASHLAND, Wis. (UP)—Robert Meyers has been mad ever since he and Donald Aansen met a big black bear in the woods near here.

The two 13-year-old rural school students were walking through the woods to school when the bear approached them. The boys decided to walk along briskly instead of showing fright and running.

The bear caught up with them and began sniffing at the sacks of lunch which they carried. They opened the sacks, tossed part of the food to the bear, and hastened on while bruin stayed behind to eat.

CHARGED WITH ARSON

FAIRBURY, Neb., March 22 (UP)—Amos Bonawitz, 77, pleaded not guilty and was released on $500 bond here Monday afternoon when arraigned before Justice of the Peace J. G. Hotchkiss on charges of arson.

Bonawitz' garage and automobile were destroyed in a fire Saturday night. The barn was damaged and apparently an attempt had been made to fire the house on his farm a mile north of Fairbury.

MICHIGAN TO BE READY FOR SMELT RUN IN APRIL

ESCANABA, Mich. (UP)—Early April heralds the coming of the annual smelt run in the ten great smelt streams here when millions of silvery fish travel up the streams to spawn.

During the height of a run, fish may be dipped up by the bushel. Dipping is done at night, since smelt move to spawning beds only after dusk. About 600 tons were harvested within a week in the region last year.

LETTER GOES 3,000 MILES IN WAKE OF WORLD CRUISE

FREMONT, O. (UP)—A letter mailed in Bellevue, O., 14 miles distant, to Dr. Sherman McKenney, of Fremont arrived here two months later after traveling 3,000 miles.

It bore postmarks of Hong Kong, China; Sydney, Australia; Auckland, New Zealand, and Los Angeles, Cal., apparently trailing Dr. and Mrs. McKenney, who were on a Pacific cruise.

ICE AGE OX RELIC FOUND

LONDON (UP)—A specimen of the horns of an aurochs, extinct wild ox, ancestor of all European domestic cattle, was exhibited at a meeting of the Thames Conservancy Board.

It was found during dredging operations below Buscot Lock near Farington, Berkshire.

SCHUYLER LODGES PROTEST

LINCOLN, March 21 (UP)—The Schuyler Chamber of Commerce filed a protest with the state railway commission today to the application of the Burlington railroad to substitute tri-weekly train service for daily service between Ashland and Schuyler.

GARBO LEAVES FOR SICILY

RAVELLO, Italy, March 21 (UP)—Greta Garbo and Leopold Stokowski left by automobile today for southern Italy. An attendant at the villa Cimbrone where they have been staying said they probably were en route to Sicily.

EAR BITING COSTS $2,000

BOSTON (UP)—One ear partly bitten off equaled $2,000 when Joseph Ryan was awarded that sum in a damage suit against his landlord, Nicholas Chagaris. The suit arose following an altercation over the payment of rent.

CAT FINDS WAY HOME AFTER 8-MONTHS' TRIP

MOLINE, Ill. (UP)—Gracie, a cat, is back at the home of Mrs. Lolita Henry here after eight months of wandering.

Last July Mrs. Henry started the cat on a journey to Joliet. She had promised to send it to a friend there and a neighbor agreed to take it along in his car.

But the cat didn't like the plan, and when the car neared Princeton it jumped out.

That was the last seen of it until the other day when, hearing mewing outside, one of the members of the Henry family opened the door and there was Gracie.

GLASS EATER RECOVERS FROM 17TH OPERATION

OTTAWA (UP)—Apparently the diet of Arthur Cordingley does not agree with him.

The 35-year-old Scotchman is recovering in hospital here from his 17th operation following his collapse on the street.

The Glasgow native, who performs as an acrobat under the cognomen of Jack Redcloud, has 119 stitches decorating his abdomen. He had previously collapsed in Halifax after a theatrical performance in which he ate glass chips, razor blades, light bulbs and carpet tacks.

Cordingley suffered a slight attack of indigestion.

JOE TINKER'S SON TRIES DANCING AT NIGHT CLUB

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—Joe Tinker, Jr., son of a member of baseball's immortal double-play trio, Tinkers to Evers to Chance, is trying to keep the family name in the spotlight by his dancing.

Appearing at a local nightclub, the 22-year-old youth said that his father, now an Orlando, Fla., realtor, approved of his dancing.

"Father isn't disappointed because I took up dancing," said young Tinker, "in fact, he approves."

GREAT LAKES FISHERMEN WILL TRY FOR BIG ONES

TOLEDO (UP)—Cash prizes will be awarded for photographs of the heaviest fish caught in the Great Lakes during 1938.

The grand prize—$50—will go to the fisherman who produces the picture of the heaviest fish. Four second prizes of $12.50 each will be awarded from the remainder of the total $100 in cash. The entries are to be mailed to Lloyd Ellingwood of Toledo, who is in charge of the contest.

FLAVORS HELD POWERFUL STIMULANTS TO EMOTION

AMHERST, Mass. (UP)—Flavors are powerful stimulants to deeper emotions and may entwine themselves into one's affections, according to Dr. L. B. Allen.

"Not only can they minister to the welfare of our bodies, but they also can make a powerful contribution to our spiritual well-being," he told the Massachusetts Counter-Preceptors' association conference here.

VANCOUVER ISLE CALLED PORT OF MISSING MEN

PORT ALBERNI, B. C. (UP)—This city on the west coast of Vancouver Island is fast becoming known among foreign-going seamen as the port of missing men.

Cargo ships generally stop here for two or three days before proceeding outbound. Many a sailor who overstays his shore leave in Vancouver barely manages to reach his ship before it heads for foreign shores.

TAKES OATH OF OFFICE

WASHINGTON, March 21 (UP)—Thurman Arnold, former Yale law professor was sworn in today as assistant attorney general in charge of the justice department anti-trust division.

GERMANY SENDS NOTE

GENEVA, Switzerland, March 21 (UP)—Germany sent a note to the League of Nations today announcing that Austria had ceased to exist as a sovereign state.

NERVOUS?

Do you feel so nervous that you want to scream? Are there times when you are cross and irritable—times when you scold those who are dearest to you?

If your nerves are on edge, try that world-famous LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. It will help Nature calm your quivering nerves and give you the strength and energy to face life with a smile.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and Go "Smiling Through" with this reliable, time-tested medicine made especially for women from wholesome herbs and roots. More than a million grateful women have written in reporting benefit from Pinkham's Compound. Why not give it a chance to help YOU?

FIGURE READS BOTH WAYS

THE DALLES, Ore. (UP)—City Recorder J. H. Steers was amazed when he looked over his trial balance for January. The result: $377,337.73. The figure of "73" and "37" reads the same from either end.

For Chest Colds

Distressing cold in chest or throat, never safe to neglect, generally eases up when soothing, warming Musterole is applied.

Better than a mustard plaster, Musterole gets action because it's NOT just a salve. It's a "counter-irritant"—stimulating, penetrating, and helpful in drawing out local congestion and pain.

Used by millions for 50 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. All druggists. In three strengths: Regular Strength, Children's (mild), and Extra Strong. Approved by Good Housekeeping.

FAITHFUL FEW CLUB

Activities of "The Faithful Few" club, during the past year:

The October meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Ed Lutz, and the time was enjoyably spent at quilting. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

The November meeting was at the home of Mrs. Matthew Sulser, who had planned a number of contests and games for the enjoyment of the guests. During the afternoon, Mrs. Sulser was showered with many pretty handkerchiefs, which was indeed a great surprise to her. It was then she realized it was a birthday party. Refreshments culminated this pleasant occasion, that was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Ray Patton entertained the Faithful Few club at her home, in December at a Christmas party, at which time she had contests and games. Gifts were also exchanged by the members. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

At the home of Mrs. Harry Nielsen, on Thursday afternoon, the Faithful Few met for a social afternoon. While the ladies were busily engaged making tea towels and listening to the radio program, they were greatly pleased to hear a song dedicated to the "Faithful Few" club at Plattsmouth. Mrs. Nielsen had requested the dedication previously for this occasion. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Jessie Smith.

The February meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Leonard Davy. The time was spent in sewing on a quilt, and in social conversation. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon's meeting.

The March meeting was on St. Patrick's day at the home of Mrs. C. L. Wiles, when an enjoyable afternoon was spent in visiting and a contest in which each displayed their talent in art. Plans for next year's meetings were discussed, and it was decided to retain the same officers, and the next meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. John Zatopek. Refreshments were in keeping with St. Patrick's day.

NAME CONCILIATION ATTORNEYS

LINCOLN, March 23 (UP)—Federal Judge T. C. Munger has named 12 attorneys as conciliation commissioners to act on requests for firmatory stays under the federal bankruptcy act.

The commissioners include W. L. Dwyer, Plattsmouth; Robert S. Finn, Tecumseh; Allen Wilson, Lincoln; Marshall Pitzer, Nebraska City; Kenneth S. Wherry, Pawnee City and J. H. Witte and J. E. Leyda of Falls City.

Rejoicing Over Arrival. Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ludwick were pleased when on last Sunday they arrived at their home a brand new baby boy, this making the second son. The mother and little one are doing very nicely. The young man was named Wallace A. Ludwick.

Mrs. Jourgeesen Sick at Omaha. Mrs. Anton Jourgeesen has been visiting for some time at Omaha with her daughter, Mrs. Dowler. While there she was taken ill and is at the home of her daughter now. Mr. Jourgeesen who was in the hospital there was showing such good improvement that he was allowed to return to his home in Weeping Water. He is getting along very nicely, but has to return to Omaha to report to the hospital. He went to Omaha Wednesday to report to the hospital and visit the wife.

Visiting Relatives Here. Miss Donna Conard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Conard who make their home at Ogallala has been here visiting for the past two weeks at the home of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crozier where all are enjoying a very pleasant visit.

Has Clean Up Day. Ralph Keckler who owns the filling station on Main street which he

Weeping Water

Luke Wiles of Plattsmouth was a visitor in Weeping Water on Tuesday of this week and was consulting the farm bureau regarding the new farm conservation act.

John McKay and son, Merle from west of town were in town last Tuesday securing some seed potatoes for planting, they expecting to plant them on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Freeman were host and hostess last Sunday when they entertained the members of the family. There were there for the occasion Mr. and Mrs. Dayle Tigner of Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Freeman and kiddies from Avoca and Charles Freeman at home.

Entertained for Birthday Dinner. Homan Stock was passing his birthday anniversary on last Sunday and in his honor the wife entertained for the day and a dinner in honor of the passing of the natal day of the husband and he and his guests Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bickford and Eldon Miner. A very enjoyable day and an excellent dinner was had.

Government Quarry Begins Work. In Monday of this week the government quarry which has been closed down for all winter was opened with a small force at the beginning, about a dozen working to get things under way, which is expected to be increased later. The people here who have been out of employment and the business men as well had with pleasure the return of the men to work.

Visited at Union Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Bickford and Mrs. Mary Johnson were in Union last Sunday, guests at the home of Mrs. C. F. Morton for the day and were celebrating a birthday at the Morton home where a very fine visit was had and an excellent dinner served.

Bible School Meeting. At the parlors of the Congregational church in Weeping Water last Sunday afternoon and evening was held a convention of the Bible school workers of the schools of the county. A very fine meeting was held with a worthwhile program which had been prepared and during the evening session Sunday all were privileged to listen to a discourse of the Sino-Japanese war, the same being delivered by the Rev. Paul R. Reynolds of Chicago.

Entertained the Ladies. Mrs. Andrew Olson entertained the Friendly Ladies Wednesday of this week. They enjoyed contract bridge and all had a good time. Delightful refreshments were provided by the genial hostess.

Weeping Water Perking Up. With the new store room which is under construction for Elmer Michelsen, which is now nearing completion and another building to start in a short time, and the many buildings now under process of substantial repairs and numerous paint jobs in process and just completed, marks Weeping Water as a very progressive place to live and with the spring weather really here the town shows much real progress.

CONTINUE TRUCK HEARINGS

LINCOLN, March 23 (UP)—The state railway commission today continued to April 11 the hearing on livestock trucking rates.

Phone news items to No. 6.

purchased several years ago from Fred Bursch, and has continued to operate since, has made it a practice to paint the place both inside and out every spring, and this spring is no exception. The cleanup campaign has included the home on the south side as well as the service station. Messrs. Smith, Bobbitt and Hene-gar have worked on the painting and cleaning up of the properties.

All of the materials were purchased from Weeping Water merchants.

Twister Does Some Damage. On last Monday night or rather Tuesday morning, for it was after midnight when the wind brought up the rain storm, it also developed a small cyclone or twister which wrecked the barn of Charles Flaishman southeast of town and as well moved the garage of E. G. Stickle and another building adjacent thereto. South of Avoca another barn was damaged and at the home of Otto Horachild a windmill tower was twisted out of shape and badly damaged.

Departing for California. Robert Garrison is departing the latter part of this week for Los Angeles where he expects to make his home. He is provided by a railroad pass in case he does not succeed in finding employment. Robert has a brother, Kenneth Garrison who is now making his home in Los Angeles who will do what he can to secure employment for Robert.

Visited in Weeping Water. W. P. Stizman, formerly making his home in Weeping Water and who formerly was employed by the Weeping Water Republican, and Charles Gerbeling of Elmwood who has been spending the winter in Plattsmouth with his son Floyd and family were visiting in Weeping Water Tuesday of this week.

Visited in Custer County. On last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wiseman and Miss Helen Norton were guests for over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Sturm near Broken Bow, where all enjoyed a very pleasant visit. Mrs. Sturm is a sister of Mrs. Wiseman and Miss Helen Norton making the three sisters visiting together. Mr. Wiseman reports that there was over an inch of rain up that way and everything was looking fine.

Entertained the Ladies. Mrs. Andrew Olson entertained the Friendly Ladies Wednesday of this week. They enjoyed contract bridge and all had a good time. Delightful refreshments were provided by the genial hostess.

Weeping Water Perking Up. With the new store room which is under construction for Elmer Michelsen, which is now nearing completion and another building to start in a short time, and the many buildings now under process of substantial repairs and numerous paint jobs in process and just completed, marks Weeping Water as a very progressive place to live and with the spring weather really here the town shows much real progress.

CONTINUE TRUCK HEARINGS

LINCOLN, March 23 (UP)—The state railway commission today continued to April 11 the hearing on livestock trucking rates.

Phone news items to No. 6.

Visited in Weeping Water. W. P. Stizman, formerly making his home in Weeping Water and who formerly was employed by the Weeping Water Republican, and Charles Gerbeling of Elmwood who has been spending the winter in Plattsmouth with his son Floyd and family were visiting in Weeping Water Tuesday of this week.

Visited in Custer County. On last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wiseman and Miss Helen Norton were guests for over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Sturm near Broken Bow, where all enjoyed a very pleasant visit. Mrs. Sturm is a sister of Mrs. Wiseman and Miss Helen Norton making the three sisters visiting together. Mr. Wiseman reports that there was over an inch of rain up that way and everything was looking fine.

Entertained the Ladies. Mrs. Andrew Olson entertained the Friendly Ladies Wednesday of this week. They enjoyed contract bridge and all had a good time. Delightful refreshments were provided by the genial hostess.

Weeping Water Perking Up. With the new store room which is under construction for Elmer Michelsen, which is now nearing completion and another building to start in a short time, and the many buildings now under process of substantial repairs and numerous paint jobs in process and just completed, marks Weeping Water as a very progressive place to live and with the spring weather really here the town shows much real progress.

CONTINUE TRUCK HEARINGS

LINCOLN, March 23 (UP)—The state railway commission today continued to April 11 the hearing on livestock trucking rates.

Phone news items to No. 6.

Visited in Weeping Water. W. P. Stizman, formerly making his home in Weeping Water and who formerly was employed by the Weeping Water Republican, and Charles Gerbeling of Elmwood who has been spending the winter in Plattsmouth with his son Floyd and family were visiting in Weeping Water Tuesday of this week.

Visited in Custer County. On last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wiseman and Miss Helen Norton were guests for over the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Sturm near Broken Bow, where all enjoyed a very pleasant visit. Mrs. Sturm is a sister of Mrs. Wiseman and Miss Helen Norton making the three sisters visiting together. Mr. Wiseman reports that there was over an inch of rain up that way and everything was looking fine.

Entertained the Ladies. Mrs. Andrew Olson entertained the Friendly Ladies Wednesday of this week. They enjoyed contract bridge and all had a good time. Delightful refreshments were provided by the genial hostess.

Weeping Water Perking Up. With the new store room which is under construction for Elmer Michelsen, which is now nearing completion and another building to start in a short time, and the many buildings now under process of substantial repairs and numerous paint jobs in process and just completed, marks Weeping Water as a very progressive place to live and with the spring weather really here the town shows much real progress.

CONTINUE TRUCK HEARINGS

LINCOLN, March 23 (UP)—The state railway commission today continued to April 11 the hearing on livestock trucking rates.

Phone news items to No. 6.

Visited in Weeping Water. W. P. Stizman, formerly making his home in Weeping