Entertain Chess Club— Mrs. Merritt Kerr entertained the Chess club Thursday evening. D. S. Sumner proved most skillful at the game.

Extension Club— Mrs. Joseph McMaken entertained the extension club last evening at a covered dish dinner. After the excellent dinner, a business meeting was held. Cards furnished the entertainment for the evening.

Entertains at Shower— On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Mike Kaffenberger assisted by Mrs. J. L. Stamp gave a shower in honor of Mrs. James Wurga at the home of Mrs. Kaffenberger.

In spite of the icy roads and the cold weather quite a number of the ladies were present to enjoy the afternoon.

Mrs. Wurga received a large number of beautiful and useful gifts which she will cherish.

In a very clever contest of jumbled words Mrs. George Mumm received first prize and Mrs. Ruel Sack second prize.

The dining table was very attractive in pink and white, and in the menu these colors were carried out also.

The ladies served a delicious two-course luncheon.

From Friday's Daily— E. A. Fricke, cashier of the Farmers & Merchants bank of Ashland, was in the city today to attend to some matters at the court house and visiting with his family and old time friends for a few hours.

From Saturday's Daily— F. I. Rea went to Falls City yesterday on business and then went on to Reserve, Kansas to visit his son Robert, who is working on his uncle's farm there.

LEAVES FOR THE EAST

From Thursday's Daily— W. R. Young, prominent western auctioneer, will leave tonight for a business trip to the east which will take him into the extreme north (rn and eastern section of the United States.

He will leave Omaha on the Burlington Zephyr.

Mr. Young goes to Montreal, Canada, where he will enjoy the many places of interest in this most continental of the North American cities, where the French atmosphere is still in evidence. From there he goes to Ellenberg Depot, New York, to conduct the sale of stock and equipment on the Sheldon farm, owned by the deceased father of Mrs. E. C. Giles of this city and George C. Sheldon, of Nehawka.

The Sheldon farm is located in the extreme northern portion of New York and not far from the Vermont line, from which state the Sheldon and Pollard families first came. The farm has been in the family for several generations and is well stocked.

TROY DAVIS ELECTED

The voters at Weeping Water Tuesday selected as their mayor for the next two years, Troy L. Davis, who has served in that capacity a great many terms, but who was defeated by O. C. Hinds, the present mayor two years ago. Mr. Davis was the candidate of the Business Temperance party while Mr. Hinds was the candidate for re-election on the Citizens ticket in the race Tuesday.

John Cole and C. V. Wallick, candidates of the Citizens party were re-elected to the city council in the first and second wards.

Roy Haslam, Business Temperance, was elected treasurer, H. C. Wilkinson, Citizens, as clerk and Chris Rasmussen, Business Temperance for police judge.

Attorney C. E. Teft and Dr. A. O. Specht were unopposed as members of the board of education.

HERE WITH OLD FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Garold Holcomb, of Kankakee, Illinois, arrived in the city Thursday to enjoy a visit here with the old time friends and neighbors, the Holcomb family having made their home here for several years and where Mr. Holcomb was in charge of the local pumping station of the Plattsmouth Water corporation.

They left home on last Friday and made a short stay at Marion, Iowa, at the home of the mother of Mrs. Holcomb and a short stay at Charles City, Iowa, with relatives.

They are guests here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Seiver and family as well as with other of the old friends in the city.

MARRIED AT UNION

The marriage of Miss Claretta Gertrude Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Eaton, to Mr. Ernest Fred Dickman, of Nebraska City, took place on Friday afternoon at Union. The marriage lines were read by the Rev. W. A. Taylor and the ceremony witnessed by the parents of the bride.

BORN IN CALIFORNIA

The announcement has been received here by friends of the birth of a fine nine pound son to Mr. and Mrs. Karl Thomas, of Los Angeles, Wednesday. Mr. Thomas is a former resident here, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas, and Mrs. Thomas was formerly Miss Norma Barratt of Nebraska City.

CHARGE FORTIFICATION MENACE

LONDON, April 8 (UP)—A charge that fortifications of both sides of the Straits of Gibraltar, in Spanish national territory, had been intensified recently was made in the house of lords last night by Lord Faringdon, a labor peer. He charged further that the Spanish nationalists themselves did not share the British government's confidence that Italy had no intention of seeking political, economic or territorial advantages in Spain.

Faringdon asserted that he received his information from most reliable and most authoritative sources. He said that guns of German origin had been placed in Spain and Morocco so as to menace Gibraltar.

Lord Strathcona and Mount Butler, responding in behalf of the government, promised an investigation if Faringdon gave sufficient information.

NOT TO BAN MAGAZINE

OMAHA, April 8 (UP)—Mayor Dan Butler announced the city welfare board, after viewing picture of the "Birth of a Baby" to be carried in Life magazine, had decided not to interfere with sale of the magazine here. Butler said when a motion picture of the same nature arrives the board decided it would demand a preview and if it approves, it will insist that the picture be shown without any other attraction and that attendance be limited to adults.

"STATE FARMERS" MEET

NORTH PLATTE, Neb., April 8 (UP)—Twenty-five Nebraska farm boys today received promotion to the rank of "state farmer" in the 10th annual convention of the Nebraska Association of Future Farmers of America.

They will receive their state farmers keys at the annual banquet tonight. Recipients of degrees include Claude Marshall and Daniel Atkinson of Pawnee City.

PUPILS 60 PCT. HANDICAPPED

ST. LOUIS (UP)—Sixty per cent of the children examined this year by the board of education were found to have physical defects, according to Superintendent H. J. Gerling. Defects included adenoids, diseased tonsils, defects of vision and hearing, spinal deformities, decayed teeth, malnutrition and heart disease.

MRS. THRALL IMPROVING

From Saturday's Daily— Mrs. E. L. Creamer and Mrs. Ruth Koukal visited in Omaha yesterday with their mother, Mrs. Ed Thrall, a patient at St. Joseph hospital. Mrs. Thrall expects to return home today. She is recovering from a fractured arm, received last Sunday in an automobile accident.

HOLD SERVICES HERE

Wednesday a group of some sixteen members of the Daughters of the King, Episcopal church organization, were in the city together with Rt. Rev. Ernest Vincent Shaylor, Episcopal bishop of Nebraska.

The visiting party of ladies received the Holy Eucharist at the St. Luke's church, Bishop Shaylor being the celebrant, with Father McMillin of Lincoln and Father Watkins, of Fremont also assisting.

Following the celebration of the Eucharist the party were entertained at a Lenten luncheon at the home of Misses Mia and Barbara Gering, followed by the business session of the Daughters.

LOUISVILLE ELECTION

The voters at Louisville Tuesday selected their members of the village board and in which two of the present members were retired. C. A. Gauer and Dr. E. H. Wortman being replaced by John G. Schoeman and John D. McGrew. Charles Knutson, a present member of the board was retained.

F. H. Brunson and David Sjogren were re-elected as members of the board of education for the ensuing term.

FRENCH CABINET RESIGNS

PARIS, April 8 (UP)—Premier Leon Blum's leftist government resigned today, balked by the senate in its demand for extraordinary powers to bring about financial recovery.

The resignation was announced by Louis-Oscar Forsgard, minister of propaganda. It will be handed to President Lebrun by the entire cabinet before dinner.

The resignation came at a bitter session of the senate, during which the acrimony of the debate indicated that the complicated political situation might get even worse with fading chances for a cabinet of national union to save the country.

As the senate deliberated, 1,500 police and mobile guards surrounded the building against those who threatened turbulence in the streets.

BLUE ROOM TRULY BLUE

NEW YORK, April 8 (UP)—Dave's blue room served food and nothing else to its famous patrons today.

One of the blue room's drinks was served, inadvertently, to a policeman at 5 a. m., which was "after hours." The liquor license was revoked, a $500 bond forfeited, and a 10-day penalty invoked on the premises. After that time Dave Kleckner, proprietor, may apply for a new license.

The blue room is one of the best known of Broadway resorts.

SELLS DICKENS WORKS

NEW YORK, April 8 (UP)—Ten copies of Charles Dickens' works, which the author used in public readings and marked profusely with revisions and comments in his own handwriting, brought $29,875 at the auction of the library of the late Cortlandt F. Bishop. They were small volumes that Dickens prepared especially for his public readings.
