PHILCO RADIO PLACES AD CONTRACT WITH JOURNAL

The Philco Radio company has contracted with the Journal for a series of ads at frequent intervals during the next few months. Their product is sold in Plattsmouth by the Farley Furniture Store.

The opening ad calls attention to special prices on both battery model and 110 volt radios for use by those enjoying the conveniences of electricity in their homes.

For a long time Philco has been putting out farm radios that operate from battery power, and will continue to do so. Their battery operated sets are as efficient as the finest electrical models available to city residents and operate with a minimum of electricity.

The Farley Furniture Store is featuring a large stock of Philcos in the different models and have sold a large number of this popular make during the past few years.

They have just received one of the new 116XX 16-tube models that is about the last word in American and foreign reception radios and invite the public to come in and hear it.

TO HOLD AN ALL-DAY FIELD DEMONSTRATION

A. L. Carper of the Murray Hardware, John Deere dealer, was a brief visitor at the Journal office Wednesday, placing an order for an ad in this issue of the paper inviting the public to the all-day field demonstration of John Deere tractors and power farm machinery, which he is sponsoring.

The demonstration is to be held on Monday, April 25th, at the Clyde Fleshman farm four and a half miles west of Union on the O street highway. A free lunch will be served at noon. The complete John Deere line will be on display and in operation.

Farmers are invited not only to see the equipment, but to drive and operate it themselves for a practical demonstration of how easily farm work of all kinds can be done with power equipment.

5TH ANNUAL SPRING SHOW

Murray

Charles Sporer and wife were guests for Easter at the home of their friend, Karl Bethel, where all enjoyed the visit very much.

George Nickles and wife were in Plattsmouth and Omaha Monday afternoon of this week, looking after some matters of business for the day.

Oren Pollard and son Malcolm living West of Nehawka were in Murray last Monday looking after some business matters and meeting their many friends.

Charles Sporer and wife were in Omaha last Sunday visiting friends as well as looking after some business matters. They were accompanied by Wm. Sporer.

W. G. Boedeker recently had a windmill installed at the farm operated by Frank Cottingham who is with Mr. Boedeker feeding stock and have great need of much pure water. Dick Beverage who delivers for the Continental Oil company in this territory was in Murray Monday morning and painted the pumps at the Garage of Murray and trimmed them up very tastily.

Fred Drucker who does some gardening, has potatoes so far advanced that he was able to harrow them last Saturday afternoon and also was planting some more. These should make early potatoes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Seybolt following their attendance at the Christian church Bible school drove to Avoca where they enjoyed visiting for the day at the home of the brother of Mrs. Seybolt, Dr. J. W. Brendel and wife.

Departing for California.

Willard Allen departed Tuesday of this week for Lodi, California, where he will expect to make his home. He is a friend there whom he has faith will find employment for him when he gets there.

Sustains Fractured Arm.

The eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Dodeker while playing in a swing at their home on Monday of this week had the misfortune to fall from the swing and fracture his arm. The young lad was brought to Murray where the fracture was reduced by Dr. R. W. Tyson. While the suffering of the young man was excessive he very manfully stood the pain during the time the injury was being treated. It is hoped that he will soon be able to get about his work and play again.

Enjoyed Visit Near Nehawka.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sporer and the kiddies were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of the parents of Mrs. Sporer, Wm. Brandt and wife who make their home near Nehawka. They enjoyed a very pleasant visit and a delightful dinner.

Enjoy Sunrise Service.

The young people of Murray working through the Presbyterian church who had arranged to hold a sunrise service on top of King Hill Easter morning, were prevented from meeting at the designated place, because of the rain the last of the week.

as it caused the roads to be very muddy. However a good number of the young people gathered at the Presbyterian church where they enjoyed their early morning service and following which they enjoyed breakfast together at the church building. Very interesting services were also had at the Bible school and as well at the morning church services.

At the Christian Church.

On Easter morning at the Bible school hour there were gathered for Bible study some 9' of the students and officers of the Bible school. The lesson which was an Easter one and filled with most interesting studies of the life of the Christ, was most thoroughly enjoyed.

Gave Fine Special Number.

Miss Joan Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Major Isaac Hall at the Bible school of the Christian church Easter morning, gave a very fine special solo number. She was accompanied at the piano by her mother.

Mrs. Carroll Returns Home.

Mrs. C. E. Carroll who has been in Omaha for some weeks where she has been ill, at the home of her son, Ern Carroll, has been showing good improvement of late and was able to be brought home Easter morning, being accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ern Carroll, they staying for the day and over Monday.

To Visit at Weeping Water.

A party of the members of the Murray Christian church are to make a visit at Weeping Water on Friday of this week where they are to engage in the revival which is in progress there. The Murray visitors will furnish a special number in song by Miss Dorothy Yost.

Water Still Scarce in Murray.

With many of the residents of Murray depending on having water hauled for both laundry and culinary purposes, a great portion of the time, families who have been accustomed to do their laundry every Monday pass the second Monday and do the laundry each alternate week, as it takes but little more water for a two weeks' wash than for one.

Planted Corn Monday.

Monday of this week Eneyr Heebner was planting both sweet corn and pop corn on Monday and expects, while it is early that the planting will be followed by an excellent crop and slightly earlier than later planted corn.

ATTEND ODD FELLOW MEET

From Tuesday's Daily— Fred Mumm, George Hall and Rev. J. W. Taenzler accompanied D. S. Sumner last evening to Nehawka where they attended a banquet given by the Odd Fellow lodge of that district. After the banquet they witnessed the initiatory degree given for a new candidate of the Nehawka lodge at the Odd Fellows hall there. There were about 100 men, members of the Odd Fellow lodge, present. All of them enjoyed a very interesting evening.

GOLDEN ROD STUDY CLUB

The Golden Rod Study club met Thursday, April 14 at the home of Mrs. Chester Wiles, with Mrs. Glenn Wiles and Mrs. Ted Wiles as associate hostesses. The song of the month for each month of the year was reviewed.

The lesson was on gardens. Mrs. L. O. Minor, who has recently returned from a trip to the south, gave a lovely description of the gardens of the south and the beautiful homes she and her husband visited. A plant exchange was held.

Death of Mrs. Blair Porter Monday Night

One of the Well Known Residents of Union Passes Away After an Illness From Pneumonia.

Mrs. Blair Porter, 65, of Union, died Monday night as the result of bronchial pneumonia from which she has been suffering for several days and from which she passed away at 10:30 last night.

Mrs. Porter was a resident of Union and vicinity for the past thirty years and where her friends were many among the associates of the past years.

In her girlhood days Mrs. Porter resided in the vicinity of Murray but since her marriage she has largely made her home in the south portion of Cass county.

She is survived by the husband, one son, Clyde Porter, both of Union, two sisters, Mrs. John T. Porter of this city and Mrs. Amanda Crabtree of Rathdrum, Idaho.

SUPPORTS WORK OF THE WOMAN'S FIELD ARMY

"In this fight against cancer we must all do what we can, and all we can," declares Rev. Mr. Edgar DeWitt Jones, president of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, in a statement made public here today by Mrs. Fred Lugsch, chairman of the Woman's Field Army.

The full appeal by Dr. Jones follows:

"In this fight against cancer we must all do what we can, and all we can. While the scientists are working in their laboratories, field workers must go among the people enlisting them in this campaign to eradicate this scourge to society—cancer. I plead for the support of the Women's Field Army, working under the auspices of the American Society for the Control of Cancer. Welcome those field workers warmly, support them steadfastly, make a contribution to this cause which concerns all humanity."

Twenty-three Protestant church denominations with a membership of more than twenty millions are affiliated with the Federal Council.

Young People Wed at Papillion on Easter Day

Ella Hyde Frazier and Mr. George Thun of This City Wedded Sunday Afternoon.

In a very quiet ceremony at Papillion Easter afternoon at 3:30 occurred the marriage of Ella Hyde Frazier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Hyde of this city and Mr. George Thun, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Thun of South Bend. The wedding was at the parsonage of the Lutheran church.

The young people were accompanied to Papillion by Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan, close friends, who witnessed the marriage.

Later the bridal party was entertained at a very delightfully arranged wedding dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vossler at Ashland, going from there to South Bend and Springfield for a short visit with the parents and brother of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Thun are starting housekeeping at once, they having their home in the south part of the city awaiting their coming and where they will be at home to their friends in the future.

Both are among the well known and popular young people of the community and will receive the well wishes of the many friends for many years of success and happiness.
