Celebrate Golden Wedding.

Here is a little squib published in the Plattsmouth Journal in the year 1878, relative to the marriage of W. A. Lewis and Miss Bertie Troop: "Will Lewis, a rustling young farmer of Sciota, Ohio, and Miss Bertie Troop of this place were married at Plattsmouth last Thursday.

The Journal at that time was published by C. W. Sherman, long since passed away. Judge Russell, then county judge, officiated at the wedding. Now 50 years to the day, April 19th, this couple celebrated their anniversary at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lewis near Laurel, where they have made their home for the past twenty years. Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Cisney and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Peck departed for Laurel Monday to be present at the wedding.

Easter at Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Troop were guests last Sunday at the home of their son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Troop at Syracuse, where they all enjoyed the day very nicely. The party was also made the merrier by the presence of Master Donald and Miss Genevieve Rutledge who were spending the day with their mother, Mrs. Robert Troop.

Hold Easter Services Here. The Masonic lodge of Nehawka held their regular Easter services at the Methodist church where the discourse was given by the Rev. Linker, pastor of the Weeping Water and Nehawka Methodist churches, on last Sunday morning. A large crowd was present.

Again on Tuesday evening was held the Masonic roundup when the ladies of the Eastern Star entertained the members of the Masonic lodge No. 214. At this meeting a most enjoyable evening was had and one of the very pleasing features was the magnificent banquet which was held.

Married in 1884 at Rock Bluffs. Here is another wedding copied from the issue of the Plattsmouth Journal in 1884: "From Rev. J. M. Eads, pastor of the United Brethren church of Liberty precinct, we learn that at four in the afternoon of yesterday he united in matrimony at the residence of the bride's parents three miles south of the Eight Mile Grove church, Mr. Don C. Rhoden and Miss Anna Troop, the worthy young couple will please accept the congratulations and best wishes."
