

RETURN WANTED MAN

Sunday afternoon Sheriff Homer Sylvester and Deputy Sheriff Cass Sylvester returned home from their trip to Childress, Texas, bringing with them Earl Freeman, who is to face forgery charges in this county. The officers left here Friday morning and were on the road the greater part of the time in driving the 1,700 miles to and from the Texas town. Childress is located southeast of Amarillo, Texas, the largest town in that section, and by making the trip by auto the officers were able to save a great deal of mile than had the trip been made by train. They report that wheat in Oklahoma and southern Kansas is exceptionally fine and on their trip they found generous rains all of the way and which was cheering the residents of the west Texas country where much drouth has caused the dreaded dust storms. Freeman came very willingly back to Nebraska to face trial for the passing of the fraudulent $250 check here in Plattsmouth that was endorsed by the Home Dairy and cashed. This check was one of many that were scattered over the central west and down into Texas. Freeman had in his possession printed checks bearing his picture and which were made to represent him as the representative of several of the large corporations of the country.
