TRAFFIC COURT SNARES MANY

County Judge A. H. Duxbury was busily engaged Monday afternoon and this morning in hearing complaints filed by the members of the state highway patrol against offenders of various road rule regulations. Floyd Wellen, of Unadilla, was in court on a complaint charging failure to stop at a stop sign and received a fine of $10 and costs. Leonard Adams, trucker, was in court on a charge of overloaded truck and drew a fine of $10 and costs on two counts for the offense.

Alfred Petring of Nebraska City was among the visitors charged with failing to bring his car to a full stop at a stop sign. He received $10 and costs.

Donald Faulhaber was another charged with failing to bring his car to a full stop before entering a main highway and also received a fine of $10 and costs for the offense.

Major W. G. Utterback of Nebraska City appeared on a charge of reckless driving as preferred by the highway patrol and for which he received a $10 fine and costs.

Complaint was filed against E. E. Meyers, of Louisville, for not having a license and the defendant to appear later.

W. H. Zabel was charged with not stopping at a stop sign and his hearing was set for May 2nd.

Arthur Cooper was charged with not having a license to operate a motor vehicle and will appear here in court on Saturday, April 30th to tell the court.
