FILES FOR CONGRESS

LINCOLN, May 5 (UP)—Dr. A. P. Fitzsimmons of Tecumseh, filed today as a candidate on the democratic ticket for congress from the first district.

In a statement accompanying his filing Dr. Fitzsimmons said he had few pledges to make and asserted he is in "full sympathy with the Roosevelt program and will follow his leadership."

Dr. Fitzsimmons, who tried unsuccessfully to resign last Monday as president of the Eastern Nebraska Public Power district said his rural electrification activities "will be of great value to the people of the district."

"The farmers' surplus products must be taken care of and a market made for them," he said. "The tractor is here to stay. Consequently we must make it consume the surplus corn. We now have rural electrification well started and with electricity on the farms it will be a help in condensing the raw materials and getting the corn products ready to go to the refinery to be made into feed for the tractors."

A petition filed by 25 residents of the district was included in the filing application.
