WON GAVEL BELL TROPHY

Advice received from the Department headquarters of the American Legion Auxiliary is to the effect that Plattsmouth unit has again won the Neil Krause gavel bell trophy for the second consecutive year. This trophy is awarded each year for the greatest month's increase in membership, computed on a percentage basis. Last year June was the designated month, this year May.

The bell was previously won by Geneva in 1935 and York in 1936. A unit must win it three times before claiming it as permanent property, although it remains with the unit the year following which it is won, having been here since the last state convention and will be returned here after the Fremont convention, when it has been appropriately engraved.

Plattsmouth unit's membership is now 88—62 adults and 26 Junior Auxiliary members.
Last year's membership was 63—55 adults and 19 Juniors.
Mrs. Raymond Larson is membership chairman of the local unit.

LEGION TEAM WINS

The Plattsmouth American Legion Junior baseball team Sunday afternoon defeated the Nebraska City team by the score of 8 to 1 in a battle in which the locals led all the way. Joe Noble pitched six innings and Phillips three for the locals and both looked good in the box and had the Ozeans in the hole most of the time.

The locals were coached by Jimmie Jones as acting manager of the team. The players taking part in the game were Martin, Shiffer, Chovance, Parriott, Phillips, Larson, Hill, White, Persinger, York, Jones, Albee, Gradoville, Smith, Noble.

On Tuesday afternoon the locals will play another game with Papillon and be ready for the season opening on Thursday, when Hickman, last year's champs are here for an official game.

While Charles Hatfield was assisting in the making of hay, and had hold of the trip rope to loose the hay fork, got tangled up in the rope which threw him to the ground, fracturing four of his ribs. This happened late last week.

Ships Cattle to Chicago.

Glen Boedeker has just completed the finishing of two car loads of very fine cattle which have been fed by Frank Cottingham and were sure a very fine lot of well finished cattle. They were loaded by the Murray Transfer company at Plattsmouth and shipped via the Burlington to Chicago. Mr. Boedeker accompanied the shipment.

One of the haulers of stone from the quarry to the railroad station for loading for shipment, had trouble with his lights and brought his truck into town over the week-end, driving the truck in Saturday night, leaving it stand, as the lights were out and he desired to have them fixed before tackling the rock hauling again. The car stood in the street until late Sunday when it was brought to the garage for repairs. Testing the lights, the mechanic turned them on, but they did not light, so he raised the hood and thrusting his hand down to the neighborhood of the light wires, found some kind of an animal, and on investigation found it was a woodchuck, which had eaten off the light wires. It was estimated that the animal weighed about six pounds. This is a new phase in the auto repairing game.

New Slant on Auto Mechanics.

There are many of the farmers about Murray who have been growing peas for the canning factory at Plattsmouth and the weather has been good for the growing of this vegetable. ### A LINE OF LOGIC THAT'S HARD TO UNDERSTAND

One of the strange—and amusing, or should we say "tragic" things connected with the newspaper business is the viewpoint of many people on the value of advertising.

First, let us say, there are those to whom "advertising" as such seems worthless, but as "publicity" given gratuitously to further this or that, is invaluable—providing it doesn't cost anything.

Drives for every conceivable object their sponsors admit are dependant for success wholly on the power of the printed word. Billboards, printed pamphlets, etc., will not suffice. Only newspaper publicity will get the desired result.

Why not, then, apply this logic to business enterprise, where "publicity" or "advertising" will do the same thing—bring new customers to the doors of merchants, increase the volume of sales of advertised articles to a point where the extra profit thus realized not alone pays the cost of the advertising, but leaves an increased net sum in the pockets of the advertiser?

There is an old saying that "sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander." If Journal publicity is indispensable to the success of drives for funds, of community activity, is it not just as indispensable to the success of your business, Mr. Merchant and Business Man?

Advertising (paid publicity) is the life-blood of the newspaper business. Without it, papers cannot survive, and sooner or later pass out of existence. If we can so materially aid in boosting community spirit, it is plain, horse-sense logic we can put new life into business enterprises that realize the opportunities advertising offers.
