TO SERVE AS INSTRUCTOR

George R. Lushinsky is now a member of the staff of the Platts-mouth Recreation Center.

Mr. Lushinsky's work will border mostly on children's activities, games, sports, etc. for children between the ages of 9 and 14 years.

Children are asked to come to the Garfield park Thursday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Lushinsky is a graduate of the Platts-mouth high school, graduating in 1933. He took an active part in music and athletics, receiving letters in football and track.

DRAWS DOWN FINE

From Monday's Daily—This morning in police court before Judge C. L. Graves, Garland Armstrong and Carl Clapper were arraigned on a complaint charging them with intoxication. The men had been arrested Saturday night by Officers Pickrell and Johnson. They were given a fine of $5 and costs which was settled and they sent on their way.

ATTENDING RETREAT

From Tuesday's Daily—Father Robert Salmon, pastor of the St. John's church, started his retreat last evening at Atchison, Kansas. He will return to Platts-mouth Friday evening. Attorney Walter Smith took him to Atchison yesterday afternoon. The religious retreat is for the priests of the St. Benedict order.

SHOWING IMPROVEMENT

Fred H. Rutherford, who has been slowly recovering from the effects of injuries received in an auto accident, is now recuperating at the home on the farm west of this city. The many friends are trusting that he may soon be able to resume his usual activities and fully recover from the effects of the injuries.

Masons Hold Memorial for W. C. Ramsey

Grand Lodge Holds Services This Morning for Former Platts-mouth Man.

From Wednesday's Daily—This morning at 9 o'clock at the session of the grand lodge of the A. F. & A. M. of Nebraska at Omaha, memorial services were held for the departed members of the grand lodge, Past Grand Master William Crites Ramsey being honored in the ceremonies.

Judge A. H. Duxbury, chairman of the committee on the fraternal dead, was in charge of the memorial and presented the resolutions and tribute to the departed Masonic leader.

The tribute of Judge Duxbury was one of beauty and expressed the appreciation by his associates of the opportunity of having known Mr. Ramsey and to have his life enrich their own.

Frank A. Cloldt of this city gave two songs during the memorial that brought beauty and impressiveness to the ceremony.

The numbers given by Mr. Cloldt were "Faith of Our Fathers" and "There Is No Death."

Bishop George A. Beecher of the Hastings diocese of the Episcopal church, grand chaplain, gave the invocation and benediction.
