

TENDERED SURPRISE

Tuesday marked the birthday anniversary of A. W. Clodt, well known gas and oil dealer and last evening he was given a very pleasant reminder of the fact that his natal day had arrived. A group of friends and neighbors came in and tendered him a very pleasant surprise and a fine evening was enjoyed, cards and visiting serving to pass the time. At the close of the evening a much appreciated lunch was served. Those to take part in the event were Theodore Ptak, Dr. F. R. Molak, Kenneth Schmitt, E. H. Bernhardt, Frank Godwin, J. P. Wurga and Robert Fitch.

HEAR TRAFFIC CASE

From Wednesday's Daily—
This morning in the court of Judge C. L. Graves, a hearing was had in a complaint charging Charles Land, of Union, with reckless driving. This case follows one last week in which Mr. Land was the complaining witness against Joy Miller for reckless driving, in which Miller was fined $10 and costs.

In the case today Miller was the complaining witness and the court after hearing the evidence assessed a fine of $10 and costs against Land which was paid.

RETURN FROM COLORADO

From Wednesday's Daily—
Mayor George Lushinsky returned last evening from Colorado Springs where he has been at the bedside of his brother, William Lushinsky, whose condition has been very critical. The brother suffered a stroke several days ago and is now bedfast. Mrs. Martha Roemer of Lincoln, a sister, accompanied Mayor Lushinsky to Colorado Springs.

RETURN TO CHICAGO

From Tuesday's Daily—
Mr. and Mrs. Mason Wescott, son Donald, and daughter, Ann, with Mrs. P. A. Mortesen, mother of Mrs. Wescott and Miss Janet Wollberg returned this morning to their home in Chicago. They have been visiting here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wescott.

MYNARD ENDEAVORERS WILL PRESENT PLAY

Next Sunday evening, June 19, the Christian Endeavor group of the Mynard United Brethren church will present the sermon-drama, "Nason, the Blind Disciple" at the regular hour of meeting, eight o'clock.

The service will be held in the basement auditorium, and the public is cordially invited. A free will offering will be taken, in order to assist in financing the group who will attend the summer camp conference at York next week.

Morning services will be held at the regular hour next Sunday. Attendance and interest are holding up well as the hot weather approaches. PAUL L. DICK, pastor.

ATTEND FUNERAL SERVICES

From Wednesday's Daily—
Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Ryan were at Omaha today where they attended the funeral services for Thomas Francis Finnigan, 74, uncle of Mrs. Ryan, who passed away on Monday.

The funeral services were held at 9 o'clock this morning at the St. Cecilia's cathedral and the interment at the St. Mary's cemetery.

Mr. Finnigan is survived by his widow, Hannah M., three sons, Raymond, Leo and Cornelius, two daughters, Grace and Mary Finnigan, nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

HERE FROM DENVER

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Svoboda, Jr., and children of Denver are in the city to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Svoboda, Mr. and Mrs. John Jirousek and their sisters and brothers. They made the trip by auto and expect to stop at Lawrence, Nebr., on their way home at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Janda, a sister of Mrs. Svoboda. Mrs. Svoboda was formerly Miss Alba Jirousek.

SECURE MARRIAGE LICENSE

From Wednesday's Daily—
Marriage license was issued today by Judge A. H. Duxbury to Harold Edward Conley, of Weeping Water and Austa Heard of Louisville. The young people were both under age and were accompanied by their fathers, George W. Conley and James Heard to give their consent.

RETURNS FROM PERU

Mrs. A. H. Graves, who has been spending the past two weeks at Peru, visiting at the homes of her sons, Edward and George, has returned home to this city.

WILL SPEAK HERE SUNDAY

William Ritchie, prominent Omaha attorney and past state commander of the American Legion, will be a guest in the city Sunday and speaker at the morning services at the Methodist church.

Mr. Ritchie spent some time in the orient and particularly China, just prior to the outbreak of the warfare between Japan and China and had a very fine opportunity of seeing the country. He will talk on the matter of missions of the various churches that have been laboring in the China field for years and where a large section of the population has been won to the Christian faith.

Mr. Ritchie is a prominent leader in the Episcopal church at Omaha and while abroad took particular care to study the work of the mission field of his church and others.

The general public is invited to be in attendance at the morning service and enjoy the fine discussion of the mission work.

FINED ON TRAFFIC CHARGE

From Wednesday's Daily—
This morning in county court a traffic charge was filed by Patrolman Marvin Wiley, against Mrs. Murna Biegen, of Nebraska City. The charge was that of reckless driving, it being alleged that the defendant had passed two cars on a hill in violation of the state law. After hearing the evidence as presented, Judge A. H. Duxbury assessed a fine of $10 and costs for the offense. This is the first conviction of a woman traffic law violator in the local court.

TO VISIT IN OLD HOME

From Monday's Daily—
John Wooster and son, Henry, of Rollance, South Dakota, arrived in the city today for a visit at the home of Mr. Wooster's brother, Joseph Wooster and family. They have been visiting at Omaha with William Kriskey, Jr., and family, the former a nephew. The Wooster family formerly made their home in Plattsmouth, but have for a great many years been located in Dakota.

VISIT AT ASHLAND

From Wednesday's Daily—
William A. Robertson, past grand master of the A. F. & A. M., accompanied by Rev. J. C. Lowson, pastor of the First Methodist church, was at Ashland last evening. They attended the meeting of the Ashland Masonic lodge and both were speakers on the program that followed the regular work.

WILL VISIT AT LINCOLN

From Wednesday's Daily—
This afternoon Mrs. Blanch Potter, who has been visiting here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Clark, departed for Lincoln to resume her duties there at the U. S. Veterans' hospital. She was accompanied by her son, Billy, who will spend the rest of the week at Lincoln.

VISITING OLD FRIENDS

Garland McCleary of Chicago and Maynard McCleary of Davenport, Iowa, were here Saturday and Sunday to visit among the old time school friends and associates. They have been enjoying a vacation trip west and to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eaper McCleary at Arcadia, Nebraska. Garland graduated here in 1931 and Maynard in the class of 1934.

HOLD CHILDREN'S DAY SERVICE

The Sunday school classes of the Latter Day Saints church presented a fine program during the Sunday school hour yesterday morning. Immediately following the program the members of the church left in cars for the Coolman grove, one-half mile north of Murray where they held a picnic dinner. The games and contests held during the afternoon were under the supervision of Mrs. C. I. Chandler. About 70 members attended.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

The second half of the 1937 personal taxes will be delinquent July 1, 1938, and will draw interest at 7% per annum from that date. The law requires that the County Treasurer issue distress warrants against all unpaid personal taxes in July.

JOHN E. TURNER,
16-20 Cass County Treasurer.

HAS UNUSUAL BLOOMING PLANT

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Meisinger has in bloom a flower that is unusual at this time of the year, this being a Christmas plant that has burst out in bloom. The plant is attracting much attention as it is unusual to bloom at this season of the year.
