Clair Wolfe of the Weeping Water Republican was looking after business at both Murray and Plattsmouth Monday of this week.

Alfred Gansemer of Murray was a business visitor in Weeping Water Monday, having some matters to look after at the Farm Bureau office.

The City Market conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bender have been having some changes made in their store in order to obtain more room.

Speaking of the wheat crop E. M. Marshall, an authority on the growing of wheat, says he thinks the crop this year will equal or be a little in excess of that grown last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hillman departed this week for the east where they will visit for the coming month or more at the home of their sons who make their home at Rochester, N. Y.

Mrs. Sterling Amick was a visitor with her sister in Omaha for a short time last week-end and also stopped at Plattsmouth on her return to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Engelkemeler.

Mrs. Antone Jorgensen has been rather poorly of late and has been compelled to remain in her bed most of the time. Mr. Jorgensen who has not been employed, is caring for the wife and doing the housework.

Guy Buchanan and family of south of Nebraska and Virgil Sudduth of southeast of Murray were guests for the day last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Askew, Mesdames Buchanan and Sudduth are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Askew.

Mr. and Mrs. Lotis Newman of near Murdock were looking after business matters in Weeping Water on Tuesday of this week. Mr. Newman has not been in the best of health for some time past, but manages to get around and look after his business and work as much as his strength will allow.

Will Make Home in East.

A. W. W. Johnson who recently moved from here to Avoca, had made application for a position in Washington, D. C., being in the civil service work and was awarded the position sought and with the family will depart in a short time to take up his work in the nation's capital. The family of Mr. Johnson are to depart for the east this coming Sunday.

C. M. Oldham Dies at 72.

C. M. Oldham, father of Earl Oldham of Weeping Water, who made his home at Fairplay, Mo., was stricken with paralysis and the son and wife hastened to the bedside of the father who after a few days passed away. Mr. and Mrs. Oldham remained until after the funeral when they returned to their home here. As it was not possible to secure some one to conduct their business they were compelled to close the business until they returned.

Visiting With Relatives Here.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Simmons of Clovis, N. M., Mrs. Simmons being a sister of Mrs. Earl Oldham of Weeping Water, came here last week to visit Mr. and Mrs. Oldham. They stopped at Hydro, Okla., where the parents of the ladies, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Griffin, reside and picking them up went to a number of places in Missouri where they formerly resided. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin are 76 and 74 years old respectively. The men, Messrs. Earl Oldham, E. C. Griffin and O. G. Simmons were in Omaha Tuesday.

Visiting With Parents Here.

He has been employed at the Reddick Tower in Omaha.

Father Dies at Eugene, Oregon.

C. J. Elgaard received the sad news of the passing of his aged father a few days ago at Eugene, Oregon. Mr. Elgaard and wife were out there a short time ago and visited with the father, but did not go out to attend the funeral as the distance was great.

Former Resident Here.

H. W. Lehman and wife who have been making their home in Los Angeles for the past many years, arrived in Weeping Water last Saturday and are spending some time here, coming to visit Mr. Lehman's mother, widow of the late J. H. Lehman, who passed away some time ago. Mr. Lehman reports time very quiet in the west, much the same as here and reports from the east show business very quiet.

Entertained Foresome.

Mrs. I. L. Markland was hostess at her home Wednesday of this week and had as her guests the other members of the foresome, Mesdames S. Ray Smith, George Olive and Miss Anna Hart. They played contract bridge and enjoyed a very delightful luncheon as well.

Three Couples Wedded.

They are married and given in marriage, and so the world goes on. None of the parties were married here but most of them make or have made their home in Weeping Water. One couple was married at Nebraska City, they being Frank Nickles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Con Nickles of west of Weeping Water, while the bride, Miss Gloria Lawther is one of the very accomplished young women of Weeping Water. They slipped away last Friday, going to Nebraska City where they were united in marriage. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Nickles of Union, Mrs. Arthur Nickles is a sister of the bride, while Arthur is brother of Frank.

Mr. Harold Elmer Conley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Conley of Weeping Water who has been employed with the WPA, was married in Lincoln last Friday to Aawasta Head, one of the very fine young women of our neighboring city. The wedding was solemnized by the Rev. W. E. Goings, pastor of the Louisville Christian church and was attended by close friends. The newly-wedded couple will make their home in Weeping Water where Mr. Conley will be employed with the WPA and will for a short time be at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Conley.

At Omaha last Saturday was celebrated the wedding of Howard Chapman, son of Mrs. Fred Linville, formerly of Weeping Water, but of late residing in Omaha, who was united in marriage to Miss Ruth Case of 2224 Burt street. The wedding was celebrated at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The young couple goes immediately to their new furnished home, which they had provided before the wedding.

Strong Box Goes to Plattsmouth. Fred Gorder, sr., more than fifty years ago was engaged in business in Plattsmouth in the building where the Plattsmouth steam laundry is now located and where he did business for a number of years. With his demise the big iron safe went to the late Fred H. Gorder, who was mayor of Weeping Water for a number of years and also held the office of county commissioner for the third district. This safe was used by Mr. Fred H. Gorder in the course of his business and since his passing has been given to Wm. Gorder of Plattsmouth who will use the same in his business there. Thus the safe has served three generations of the Gorder family.

Brings Dog Here for Burial. Some time ago Will Troop gave a very fine water spaniel dog to Earl Smith, Jr., of Omaha, which the young lad has prized very much. As time went on the dog which had become a favorite of the family, became ill and was taken to a dog hospital in Omaha where after a time it grew worse and was taken back home where the young lad watched over it until it died.

The idea of taking his pet to the dump was very repugnant and the idea came to take it back to the troop farm to bury it. So last Friday during the night the parents and young Earl brought the dog to the Troop home where notwithstanding it was late at night Tommy Troop arose and going to a grove dug a grave and buried the dog.

SCOUTING HEADS ROTARY MEET. Scouting and the individual work of the Boy Scout was the high spot of the Rotary luncheon Tuesday at the Stewart cafe and furnished a very interesting theme for the members, many of whom have sons or relatives in the ranks of the Scouts.

E. H. Weecott was the leader and the recent camporee and the Scout program in general served as the basis for the talks.

Raymond J. Larson, scoutmaster, gave a short talk on the Scout program and of the recent camporee and its value to the individual boy that is a part of the Scout activities. It was very interesting and covered many of the things that a Scout must accomplish in his work to attain advancement.

Cary Marshall and James Mauzy, Jr., members of the local troop, were present as guests and gave most entertainingly their own reactions to Scouting and their work in the troop and it showed the very great interest that the movement had among the members of the organization.

OMAHA PARTIES WEDDED. From Tuesday's Daily.— This morning at the office of Judge A. H. Duxbury occurred the marriage of Mahlon William Ferguson and Margaret Lee Kennedy, both of Omaha. The marriage lines were read by Judge Duxbury and the ceremony witnessed by Katherine and Frank Ignaka, also of Omaha. The bridal party returned later to their home in the metropolis.

Bible School Lesson Study!

Sunday, June 26th By L. Neitzel, Murdock, Neb.

"Sharing Service with the Living Christ"

Mark 16:1-8; 14-16, 19, 20.

We would kindly ask the student if the "aim" set at the beginning of the year has been reached, namely: "To lead the student to appreciate how Jesus in his life and teachings emphasized service to all men; to help the student to devote his life to the task of building a new world in accordance with the ideals of our Lord." We conclude our study of Mark's Gospel, with the glorious resurrection of Jesus, turning the work he began over to his disciples, giving them the great commission, saying: "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel . . . I am with you always." Having followed Jesus in our last lesson to Golgotha and the burial, we will now rehearse the resurrection, the conclusion of the drama. The historical proof is surely convincing to every sincere, thinking student, but we must go farther and follow the command and go and tell, so men believe in the resurrection. We saw Joseph of Arimathea and Nicodemus, lay the body of Jesus in the tomb and closed it. The fearful Priests and Scribes were not satisfied to have Jesus killed, they would make sure that he should stay in the sepulchre, they obtained permission from Pilate to put the Roman seal on the tomb and sixteen soldiers (as a guard of honor for a king) as a guard. Now they believed Jesus would be prevented from rising the third day. Man proposed and God disposes. Some strange things happened on the morning of the third day. An earthquake that opened graves, an angel appeared in a white robe and rolled the stone away; the flight of the guard, their report to the priests—the hush money that was paid to them.

The busy women in the early morning hour, their experience, and then Jesus meets Mary Magdalene—the first who saw the risen Lord, the one whom Jesus sent forth as the first missionary.

When did the Lord leave the tomb? Who saw him leave the tomb? Five appearances are recorded on the first day and six later—enough witnesses to convince the world that Jesus lives. These appearances were necessary for his disciples to remove every doubt; we see later that nothing could shake their faith—they could testify to what they had "seen and heard."

So will Jesus remove from every person doubt and fear—if they will only trust Him. In verse 14 we see the sin of unbelief upbraided and rebuked. It is the one cause for which man will be sent to hell. Men are saved by Faith, not good deeds or holy living; they are the fruit of faith in God—a natural consequence.

The great command, later repeated, is given to the disciples to "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to the whole creation." They saw the Lord coming in the near future, and the whole world was to then the Roman Empire. But what a stupendous work! What a task! When they heard this, they were amazed, so Jesus, seeing their troubled faces, adds assuringly, "Lo, I am with you always." "When Jesus goes with me, I'll go anywhere." What about the result? We'll leave that with God. The order is to "Preach!" The whole counsel of God—the Gospel and the Law—life and death. Too many preachers confine their talk to the Gospel message, and forget the justice of God—his Holiness, Without Holiness, no man can see God. God sends no man to hell, it is unbelief and disobedience.

This Gospel is not complete. The apostles were told to wait, stay at Jerusalem, until they were endued with Power from on high. In due time Jesus made his promise good. What a change in these men! Gethsemane—the upper room; before and after Pentecost. "The Lord working with them," that was the secret of their success.

Note the growth of the Kingdom: (a) Jesus; (b) twelve disciples; (c) one hundred twenty; (d) 3,000; (e) by the end of the first century the estimate was 500,000. No other movement has had such phenomenal success. The reason? "The Lord working with them."

We believe that many a campaign (?) is planned by men without consulting the Holy Spirit; everything is considered from the human standpoint: Weather conditions, time (when not too busy) when can we have the evangelist, etc? Revivals are not planned, they are prayed down—not worked up. We do not hear men anymore cry out: "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?" Repentance is not any more required from the converts. Where there is no godly sorrow for sin, there can't be joy in the Holy Ghost, hence the "still born" children that seldom live. When Jesus works with the church, signs and wonders still follow.

At Omaha last Saturday was celebrated the wedding of Howard Chapman, son of Mrs. Fred Linville, formerly of Weeping Water, but of late residing in Omaha, who was united in marriage to Miss Ruth Case of 2224 Burt street. The wedding was celebrated at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The young couple goes immediately to their new furnished home, which they had provided before the wedding.

Richard Keckler Buys Cafe. Richard Keckler early this week made the purchase of the cafe and restaurant which has been conducted by Arthur Burthold and immediately took over the business and has been conducting it since.
