Mrs. Spader Dies Unaware Husband Dead

Former Plattsmouth Woman Critically Ill When Husband Died Tuesday—Burial Here.

Mrs. Catherine Shields Spader, 72, gravely ill for several months, died Thursday night at the family home, 4231 Emmet street, Omaha, unaware that her husband, Matthias Spader, 81, had passed away on Monday night.

Mrs. Spader has been ill for months and for several days had been in a coma with no hope of recovery. The funeral of Mr. Spader was to have been held this morning but has been postponed until Saturday morning at the Holy Name church and the bodies will be brought to this city for interment in the Catholic cemetery.

Mrs. Spader is survived by a daughter, Mrs. James H. Dannehy, two sons, John P. Shields of Omaha and William J. Shields of Los Angeles and a step-daughter, Mrs. J. R. Brooks, South Gate, California.

The family resided here some thirty years ago and many old time friends will regret to learn of the passing of the husband and wife in such a short space of time.

MOUNTAIN LION SEEMS TO SHOW UNDERSTANDING

CHALLENGE, Cal. (UP)—Mountain lions seemingly have an instinctive feeling of brotherly love for men who have real human qualities in them.

Claude Harvey, to visit his wife in the Yuba county hospital where she was recovering from a gunshot wound, was obliged to swim the ice cold Yuba river at Oregon Bar.

Emerging from the water, he hastily started up the hill toward the hospital, when he met a mountain lion. The animal approached, sniffed at his dripping clothes, purred contentedly, and went on his way—presumably rejoicing.

At least Harvey did.
