NEW PHYSICIAN HERE
 Dr. R. H. Kohtz, M.D., with Mrs. Kohtz and their two children, are now located at their home in the Herold apartments and Dr. Kohtz is planning on having his professional offices in the Soennichsen building ready for caring for his patients by Saturday.

Dr. Kohtz is a graduate of the University of Nebraska college of medicine and has been in active practice for the past two years after his internship.

He has practiced in Montana and Wyoming and had six months of army duty.

CERESCO VISITORS HERE
 From Monday's Daily—
 A large group representing the Masonic lodge and the Eastern Star of Ceresco were here yesterday visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. C. Lawson.

LOCALS

ATTEND FUNERAL OF RELATIVE
 Sheriff and Mrs. Homer Sylvester and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wolheiser of Louisville, were called to Cherokee, Iowa, by the death of Wayne Libolt, a second cousin. The young man was killed in an auto accident near Cherokee Sunday.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL
 Mrs. Milo Farney who recently underwent an appendectomy at an Omaha hospital, has so far recovered that she was able to return home Sunday afternoon. She is feeling very much improved and showing a nice recovery.

RECEIVES COURT MANDATE
 From Tuesday's Daily—
 Clerk of the District Court C. E. Ledgway today received the mandate of the state supreme court in the case of J. C. Wheeler vs. the Dietz Hill Development Co. The court affirmed the case in favor of the plaintiff, who in the district court recovered judgment for $1,200 with interest and costs.

INJURED ARM IMPROVED
 Gene Richardson, Mills county man, who was injured Saturday night when struck by a car while walking along highway No. 75 north of this city, is now gradually recovering from the effects of the injury. It was thought at first that his arm had been broken, but X-ray examinations failed to reveal any fractures and he is now back home.
