From Thursday's Daily—
Entertains Visitors—
 The Tuesday evening club entertained on Tuesday evening in honor of Mrs. Lou Henry, of Los Angeles and Mrs. Emmett Mullen, of Galveston, Texas. The members had arranged a very delightful picnic party at the attractive Plamore park north of this city. The time was spent in swimming that proved most enjoyable after the heat, while the fine picnic supper also added to the pleasures of the day.

From Friday's Daily—
Present Fine Program—
 Mrs. J. E. Meisinger and Mrs. P. A. Meisinger entertained the St. Paul's Auxiliary yesterday at the church. A good number was in attendance. A duet was given by Shirley Seiver and John Jacobs and a reading by Wilma Swatek, which were very much enjoyed. Delicious refreshments were served.

Choir Has Picnic—
 The Methodist choir held a picnic last night at the L. S. Devoe home. There were thirty-five present, the members of the choir and their families. The group ate on the porch of the home at card tables. They played games and sang songs and all enjoyed the evening. The choir members were sorry Mr. Devoe had been called away and could not be with them.

K. B. Card Club—
 The K. B. card club met last night with Mrs. Frank Gobelman. Miss Laura Meisinger won first prize, Mrs. John Wolf won second and Mrs. Henry Schneider won the third prize. Mrs. E. A. Wurl was a guest of the club.

Methodist Federation Meets—
 The Methodist Federation met yesterday afternoon in the church. Mrs. E. W. Thimman led the devotionals. Mrs. J. C. Lawson gave the missionary lesson. A short business session was held. E. H. Weacott gave several piano solos and Mildred Hall sang a solo. The group then sang a number of songs, with Mr. Wescott accompanying them. Delicious refreshments were served. The Gleaner's circle, with Mrs. James Rishel as chairman, entertained the federation.

Surprised on Anniversary—
 A surprise party was given last night for Mr. and Mrs. Phil Lepert at their country home by a group of friends. The event was in honor of their silver wedding anniversary, the couple having been married twenty-five years.

A mock wedding contributed to the entertainment of the evening. After a delightful lunch was served, the evening was spent in playing cards and visiting. The lunch was brought by those participating in the surprise. The beautiful cake was baked by Mrs. Joseph Hafka.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hafka and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kvejel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Janca and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Zukowski and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Coburn, all of Omaha; Mrs. Marie Lepert, Mr. and Mrs. James Lepert and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Koubek and family of this city.

From Saturday's Daily—
Surprise Party—
 A surprise party was given Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Grover Cundall for Miss Shirley Mason. The evening was spent in playing cards and dancing. Those attending were Leonard Holabek, Alice Zatopek, Wilma Swatek, Margaret Anna Pittz, Mary Helen Dill, Bill Evers, Jackie Wetenkamp, Joe York, Edward Smith, Darlene Holabek, Catherine Grosshans, Raymond Smock, Shirley Mason, Ralph Mason, Grover Cundall and Grover Jr.

Shower for Mrs. Bishop—
 Miss Louise Rishel and Miss Mildred Engelkemier were hostesses last night at a towel shower given for Mrs. Charles Bishop, nee Helen Albert, at the home of Louise Rishel. The room was decorated with gold streamers and bouquets of cut flowers. A number of games were played and proved highly entertaining throughout the evening. Prizes were won by Miss Viva Palmer and Miss Alberta Timmas.

The announcement, "Mr. and Mrs. Bishop at home after July 11, 1812 Capitol Ave., Omaha," was given on the sail of a ship constructed of bananas, ice cream, nuts and cherries, served with cake and ade. They made very delightful and delicious refreshments. The gifts had been hidden, with clues as to where to find them. The bride, following the clues, found all the packages and opened them. She received many fine gifts from the group of friends there.
