Miss Tina Barrett went to Peru last Friday to attend the normal the coming year. Orvis Perry went to University Place yesterday, where he will attend school the coming year. The telephone company held a meeting last Thursday evening and voted an assessment of $1.50 upon each share. C. A. Riggs came up from Talmage to clerk for L. F. Langhorst, during Mr. Langhorst's trip to Kansas City. Henry Dickman and Chas. Haesaker and families left Wednesday for their future home at Missouri Valley, Ia. B. I. Clements finished harvesting his broom corn Saturday. Now he'd like to have some one come along and offer him $150 a ton for it. Lou and Julius Langhorst are enjoying a visit from their brother, William and family, of Ohio. Mr. Langhorst is desirous of locating in this county. Will Roseno has purchased the Lottman eighty, two miles north of town, and will get possession March 1. Consideration $4,000. This is a splendid piece of land. When Miss Della Deford reached her home last Saturday evening, she was greatly surprised to find the house filled with about thirty of her young friends, all glad to welcome her home once more. The evening was spent with games and plays, and everyone thoroughly enjoyed the occasion. Refreshments of cake, bananas and ice cream were served. WEEPING WATER. E. F. Sayles has sold out his pump shop to Chas. Chandler. Bessie Torrence and Blanche Sawyer will attend the academy this year. Harry Reed and little son, Robert, left Tuesday morning for Blackhawk, Colorado. E. H. Jeffers arrived last Thursday for a short visit with his grand-parents, Elder and Mrs. Root. Miss Flora Wokett left Saturday for Oberlin. She was accompanied as far as Omaha by Miss Creta. Walter Kressen is rusticing on the farm since his health will not permit him to continue his studies. We hope he may soon be able to be in school again. The academy opened Tuesday morning. At the chapel exercises about thirty-five students were present, besides a number of visitors. Prospects seem bright for this year, and a good attendance is looked for. A telegram came for Geo. Suter Tuesday morning stating that his wife was dying at the home of her parents in western Iowa. For some reason the telegram was not delivered until nearly evening so that Mr. Suter's departure was delayed until Friday morning. The Sophomore class of the high school held their first class meeting of the year, September 6. Officers for the first semester were chosen as follows: President, Blanch Barry; vice president, Daisy Heskett; secretary, Ethel Sawyer, and sergeant-at-arms, Ray Pool. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution. AVOCA. School opened last Monday with a good attendance. We understand that Mrs. Nelson expects to soon remove to Johnson, Nebraska. Haldeman came down from Plattsmouth, Wednesday morning to look after some legal business. William Eikenbary departed on Tuesday for Akron, Colorado, and will spend about two weeks in looking over that part of the country. Mr. and Mrs. Thede Erans are the happy parents of a bright new daughter which arrived at their home Sunday evening, September 2. R. O. Shobe, who is doing duty for the government as stone inspector at Cedar Creek, was visiting his Union friends last Saturday and Sunday. D. M. Jones and Wm. Turner came down from Plattsmouth, Monday morning, and commenced the mason work on the new bank building. Thomas King and George Poissel, jr. are "clerking" for them. Mrs. S. T. Eddy of Nehawka was visiting her parents in this village this week. M. Reese is the new night operator who came Monday to relieve H. C. Panzeran. A. H. Chidester and family moved Monday into the Gruber house a mile west of town. Ed. Stanton and family, and Mrs. Elvira Austin are residents of this village again, having removed back from Atchison, last week. Uncle Henry Vanhorn came in from Plattsmouth, Wednesday to visit his brother, Joseph, and meet his old friends at the reunion. NEHAWKA. Charley Keltner is building a new barn. Dr. Gilmore was on our streets Monday. Mrs. Banning went to Nebraska City last Saturday. Stella Banning came home from Murray Saturday. Jim Miller is building quite an addition to his house. Bennet Chriswiser was shaking hands with his Nehawka frienks Monday. Miss Lulu Davis visited the family of S. A. Davis in Plattsmouth last week. Miss Irena Armstrong visited over Sunday with her parents at Weeping Water. Mrs. M. H. Pollard and Mrs. E. E. Baldwin attended the state fair last Wednesday. Marvin Cramer of Chicago is here on a visit to the family of Wm. Balfour. Henry Heebauer fired up his engine and started out threshing the first of last week. Mrs. L. M. Jung has been quite sick, but we are glad to announce, is improving. Fred Mellinger is spending a few days in Murray before going to Cotner university. Mr. Van Court is hiring all the teams he can get to strip a big lot of rock for winter quarrying. Blair Porter went to Omaha Wednesday to visit his brother. Owen Critchfield accompanied him. WABASH. The M. E. Mite society met with Mrs. Murlin on Wednesday for dinner. We are informed that George Frisbee has bought the George Shirley property. Frank Hulfish, who has been quite sick for the past ten days, is around again. H. Murlin has rebuilt his shed that was blown down by the late storm. A cyclone couldn't move it now. Mrs. B. F. Allen, who has been rusticing in the Colorado hills for the past four weeks, returned home this week. John Copple is having a serious time with his throat. We're afraid that Missouri trip will get away with some of them yet. Mr. Langhorst, brother of Lou Langhorst of Elmwood was in town Wednesday looking up a location for a general merchandise store. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ritchey left for Waverly, Kan., Monday night. We understand they will make a trip through Missouri before their return. MURDOCK. George Mills is enjoying a visit from his brother. The Murdock elevators look better with a coat of fresh paint. The Murdock band social and concert attracted a large crowd Saturday night. Master Ora Jones of Stratton is intending to attend the Murdock schools the present year. James Carey of Greenwood fitted his team with a set of Tool's best buggy harness Tuesday. John Rohrdenz and wife left last Tuesday morning for Havelock, for a visit with their daughter. The Misses Whipple of Ashland assumed their duties as teachers in the Murdock school Monday morning. LOUISVILLE. The new telephone exchange is a hummer.

Drake visited over Sunday with her parents at Ashland. Mrs. T. Ewing of Plattsmouth visited a few days last week in Louisville. Rev. and Mrs. Calvert will leave Tuesday for Nebraska City to attend the annual conference. A large number of Louisville people attended the state fair at Lincoln last week. Miss Katie Peterson left Monday for Peru where she will attend the normal school and prepare herself for a teacher. Miss Willie Berger left Thursday for Friend, where she will again resume her duties as teacher in the high school at that place. Dr. Hasseneier will quit the practice of medicine for a month or two, owing to poor health, and will go to the mountains. Died—Hattie E., wife of Charles E. Barger, of Carthage, Ill., at the home of her mother, Mrs. David Line, west of Louisville, Tuesday, Sept. 4, at 10 o'clock p. m., of pelvic lymphangitis, aged thirty-two years, seven months and eight days. She leaves a husband and two small children, one a babe of two weeks, and the other a bright little boy but two years of age. The body was embalmed, and Thursday the bereaved husband with his two motherless babes started with the body for their home at Carthage, where it will be interred. He was accompanied by the mother and sister of the deceased. A large number of friends assembled at the house and accompanied the party to the train. EAGLE. Sam'l McClintoc arrived from Colorado Tuesday night. Miss Hazel Dovey is the guest of Eagle relatives. Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Laughlin, last week, a girl. Mrs. L. D. McConnel and children of Lincoln are the guests of John of John Adams and family. Mrs. Kate Robinson, daughter of Mr. McDonald, is expected on a visit from Denver. Mr. Ladin, the young man who was accidentally shot last week, is greatly improved, and Dr. Thomas, who is attending him, says he is out of danger. The Eagle schools opened last Monday morning with a good attendance and the following corps of teachers: J. W. Gamble, principal; Grace Blodgett, grammar; Minnie Horsh, primary. With such a good teaching force our schools will certainly have a very successful year. The democrats and populists held their primaries in Venner's grain office Saturday evening and nominated a precinct ticket and elected delegates to the county convention at Louisville. Henry Snokes, Jr., was nominated for assessor. We did not learn the names of the delegates. BUFFALO BILL. Bill board and newspaper advertising announce the coming of Buffalo Bill and his big congregation of rough riders. They show in Omaha September 10th and at Nebraska City on the 13th. The great feature this season will be the reproduction, on as elaborate scale as the time and area will allow, of the famous charge up San Juan Hill. In this scene five hundred men will be used, and among them will be actual participants in the real charge. A number of Roosevelt's Rough Riders, Regular United States Cavalrymen, Volunteers and Cuban Insurgents will be prominent in this mimic representation of the charge that added another brilliant page to American history. The scenery has been painted from photographs especially taken, and the topography of the country has been closely adhered to. LEGAL NOTICES. Sheriff's Sale. Do You Transpire? All right—The man who transpires has a right to take off his coat—but don't let your chin drop—the campaign not half over yet. WESCOTT'S tailored clothing for the current season is smashing the world's records. It's better than ever before, and better than any other—that's all there is to it. But you must see to it that there are no clothing transactions transpiring in your "Transvaal" without your having at least a chance to "transmit." In other words, don't get in a trance. Lift up your banner and march on to Wescott & Son's On the Corner. In this age a well dressed man denotes prosperity . . . A prosperous man means a successful man. Let us dress you up—you'll look prosperous. FALL GOODS JUST RECEIVED. Hudecek & McElroy, TAILORS, ROCKWOOD BLOCK - PLATTSMOUTH. Bank of Cass County. PLATTSMOUTH, NEBRASKA.
