They were immediately sepaated and nothing more was thought of it. They did not meet again until Sunday evening about 8 o'clock. Ellington had apparently brooded over the trouble all day and made up his mind to kill Wilson, for he was lying in wait for him at the National hotel when Wilson went to his supper. The last seen of Wilson alive was when he passed two children by the Christian church. In a few moments a gun was fired and when Landlord Spence stepped out of the hotel door to see what the trouble was Ellington stepped up to him with the gun in his hand and said he had killed Wilson. Wilson was lying on the til recently minister of the Methodist sidewalk between the tree and the hotel door with a bullet hole in the side and back of his head. He lived for thirty minules. Rrom all indications it was a prethe hotel and when Wilson passed by he was shot without warning.

Section 2 provides that within thirty days after the passage and approval of the Sibley act all express companies shall The with thecommission a schedule of rates, charged within this state which were in force on the first day of January,

The state contends that the act went into effect July 5 and the express companies allege the act became effective August 5. The state filed its injunctionsuit prior to August 5 and if the law was not then in force the suit of the state will therefore be of no effect and a new will have to be instituted. On the other hand the express companies files schedule of rates in force January 1, as required both by the Sibley act and the commission act. The state supreme court has not yet issued a temporary restraining order and it is thought Mr. Thompson will ask that this be done at the present session of the court Union Pacific Report.
