NOTES ON OMAHA SOCIETY

Busy-Bodies Are Turning Sweet Morsel of Engagement Gossip.

COUNTRY CLUB ABOUT DESERTED

Saturday Night Dinner and Dance No. Longer Heavy Attraction, but Sunday Night Still Brings

Out Dinner Parties.

Society has but one thought in its head this week and is talking upon that one subject—the Horse Show. Horse Show colors and Horse Show talk enter materially into practically everything planned for the week, but aside from a few dinners, lunchtion of the weadings, there is very little scheduled for the week. Gonnip.

The busybodies are turning a choice morsel of gossip just now concerning a member of the family of a certain local packer and a young woman, the daughter of one of Omaha's most prominent and wealthy families. The young people are engaged, 4,800 according to the gossips. She is not yet through school, but will not return to her studies in the east this fall. School days have been passed for him for a year or so, and his devoted attention to the daughter of his parents close friends, coupled with 3,500 her determination to remain at home, has
