POLLARD CALLS BERG TO TAW

Congressman from First District speaks at McCook.

McCOOK, Neb., Oct. 22.—(Special.)—In his speech here yesterday Congressman E. M. Pollard, among other things, took G. W. Berg to account for what he termed glaring misrepresentations of the Nebraska railway commission.

I would not make any reference to the speech of Mr. Berg were it not for the fact that he is a leader of the fusion forces in the state, having been the nominee of his party for governor three years ago.

Unfortunately for Mr. Berg, the Nebraska division of the federal court has construed both the constitutional amendment and the act of the legislature, defining the powers of the railway commission.

It is less than a year since the constitutional amendment was adopted. Less than ten months since the commissioners took their oath of office, and less than six months since the new act became a law.

Mickey, declared in a statement today that the old soldiers and the public generally should understand that the recent resolution fixing terms of admission to the soldiers' homes is more favorable to the old soldiers than any action ever before taken by state officers.

Branding of Liquor Packages.

James Nevel of Albion, president of the State Liquor Dealers' association, and a saloonkeeper of Lincoln, called on Food Commissioner Johnson today to discuss the matter of branding packages of liquor. Johnson has ruled that when liquor is poured out of a large bottle and delivered to a consumer in a small bottle, the small bottle must be labeled. The law relating to the branding of packages is not being enforced, so Mr. Johnson says, though he has not yet set penalties which prosecutions will begin. Occasionally a county attorney sends in word that he is beginning prosecutions against some merchant or creamery. This is followed by a lengthy essay from Johnson about the merits of the pure food law, which he requests all newspapers to publish. Mr. Johnson believes if he can educate the people of Nebraska to conform to its laws without having to prosecute any of them, the best interests of the state will be conserved and no one will be injured.

Democrats in a Box.

Democrats in Lincoln were running around today to get someone to run by petition for county assessor against Dwight Miller, the republican candidate, a son of the present assessor. The democrats knew it would be a hopeless case to nominate a democrat against Mr. Miller, so they are trying to get someone to run by petition and then get the petition thrown out. The republican candidate has been working in every way a chip off the old block. He has learned his lesson well and for that reason some of the shirkers would prefer that someone other than a Miller get the job. The present assessor has made an enviable record, going after the mercantile firms as well as finding hidden treasures, and because of his record as well as the popularity of the son, Dwight Miller easily won the nomination.

School Bonds Enjoined.

Auditor Searle has been enjoined by the district court of Lincoln from entering school bonds to the amount of $50 for school district No. 27 of that county. The history of the bonds was reviewed some days ago and was according to statute. The auditor, however, received information that the school house where the election was held was not only in violation of the law, but also in violation of the registration of the bonds was held up. Then came news of the injunction. Shortly thereafter fourteen men came along to vote against the bond issue and couldn't do so because the election was over. The vote was taken on the 15th and the registration of the bonds was held up. Then came news of the injunction.

Tired, Irritable, Nervous

A nervous, irritable mother, often on the verge of hysterics, is unfit to care for children; it ruins a child's disposition and reacts upon herself. She is a source of misery to every one who comes under her influence, and unhappy and miserable herself. She cannot help it, as her condition is due to shattered nerves caused by some feminine derangement, with backache, headache, and all kinds of pain, and she is on the verge of nervous prostration. Proof is monumental that nothing is better to regulate a woman's health than

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Thousands and thousands of women testify to this fact.

Mrs. Nellie Makham, of 151 Morgan St., Buffalo, N.Y., writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I was a wreck from nervous prostration. I suffered so I did not care what became of me, and my family despaired of my recovery. Physicians failed to help me. I was urged to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I want to tell you that it has entirely cured me. I think it is the finest medicine on earth, and I am recommending it to all my friends and acquaintances."

Mrs. Geo. A. James, a life-long resident of Fredonia, N.Y., writes: "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I was in a terribly run down condition and had nervous prostration caused by female trouble, in fact I had not been well since my children were born. This condition worked on my nerves, and I was irritable and miserable. I had tried many remedies without getting much help, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me back to health and strength. It has also carried me safely through the Change of Life. I cannot too strongly recommend your medicine."

MRS. PINKHAM'S INVITATION TO WOMEN.

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to communicate promptly with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. She will hold your letter in strict confidence as indicated by the fact that every private letter received by her during the last twenty years, and more, she now has in the Company's laboratory under lock and key, and no testimonial has ever been published without special written permission. Her advice is free and always helpful.

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND, a woman's remedy for woman's ills, made from Native Roots and Herbs, complies with all conditions of the new Pure Food and Drug Law, and is so guaranteed.
