TEACHERS ARE ENROLLING

Large Attendance Anticipated at Meetings Commencing Tonight.

PROGRAM EXCEPTIONALLY STRONG

Outsiders Will Be Permitted to Attend Meetings on Payment of the Same Fee as Exacted from Teachers.

Enrollment for the annual meeting of the Southwestern Iowa Teachers' association, which opens in this city tonight and lasts over Saturday morning, has already begun.

The teachers of Council Bluffs have all been enrolled in advance and Superintendent C. E. Blodgett of Atlantic, president of the association, has sent in the names of thirty teachers from Cass county to Prof. S. L. Thomas, chairman of the executive committee, for enrollment.

In answer to numerous inquiries, Mr. Thomas announces that all of the general meetings, which will be held in the auditorium of the high school, will be open to the public on payment of an admission fee of 25 cents. Outsiders, however, who desire to enroll for the entire meeting can do so by payment of a fee of 50 cents and they will be provided with a membership card such as is given the regular teachers, which will entitle them to attend all the meetings.

Many of the teachers from outside towns are expected to arrive in the city this morning, so as to be able to spend the day visiting the schools, which will be open for inspection. The high school caets have volunteered their services to escort the visitors to the different school buildings. The city schools will be closed Friday in order to allow the teachers to attend the general sessions and department conferences.

It is possible that owing to the recent death of relative Henry Sabin, the well known Iowa educator and former superintendent of public instruction, will not be able to attend, although he has written Mr. Thomas that he will if he possibly can arrange. In his letter Mr. Sabin says he considers the program arranged for the southwestern association the strongest of the four in the states. It had been hoped that Superintendent Cooley of Chicago would have honored the meeting with his presence, but he has written Mr. Thomas that previous engagements prevent him coming here.

This is the program for the opening session at 8 o'clock this evening: Music—Elks' quartet. Invocation—C. E. Blodgett, Atlantic. President's address—C. E. Blodgett, Atlantic. Address—Shakespeare's Women—Dr. William A. Quayle, Chicago.

other and fight at will, but rough and tumble tactics are barred. Prefost Winston and Lieutenant Young believe this will go away with hazing. Many friends of the college here condemn it.

The senior class of the college met tonight and protested against a continuance of the free-for-all fights participated in for the last two days by the freshmen and sophomores by the sanction of the president and commandant of the college and characterized the fights as brutal, and that in them some students take unfair advantages, striking down exhausted men or striking from behind.

They declare that the fights injure the college standing and reputation and should end at once.

It is certain that the last of these rushes has been seen at A. & M. college.

SIMS TO START AN INQUIRY. Tennessee Congressman Objects to Deposit of Government Cash in Banks.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—(Special Telegram.)—A resolution inquiring by what authority the Treasury Secretary, C. D. Tamm, went to the aid of the New York banks with the government's money and whether it is advisable that such a policy be pursued in the future will be introduced in the house of representatives by Representative Sims of Tennessee as soon as congress convenes.

Mr. Sims is one of the southern members who have had an unfavorable impression. He cannot see that there is any authority for lending banks the government's money in the manner followed by Mr. Cortelyou. He also expresses himself as disapproving of the banks being able to get this money and then lending it out at such an enormous interest rate as is now the rule in New York.

Another thing that the congressman suggests in this connection is the following question: "What will happen when all this money is withdrawn into the treasury? Will not some crisis be precipitated? Or are we to conclude that, in order to avoid a repetition of the crisis, this money is put out to the banks indefinitely?"

"And, if loans or deposits are indefinite, is such a line of action advisable and the legitimate one?"

"President Roosevelt has said that he will not accept another nomination, and the people of Idaho take him at his word," said Senator Heyburn of that state today, on going away from the White House.

"I may add that in my dealings with the president I have found him a man of his word, and it seems to me that those who seek to force another nomination upon him discredit him and do him no honor. He is held in the highest respect by the people of our state, but when the time comes to elect a republican nominee the delegates from Idaho will vote for some of the men now in the field who represent their principles."

Cabinet officers, after conferring with each other and the president at the cabinet meeting yesterday, decided to recommend that assistant secretaries be paid $6,000 a year each, instead of $4,500 as at present. The advance will be included by each cabinet officer in his annual estimate. The view is taken that the increased cost of living and heavy responsibilities devolving on assistant heads of departments warrant an increase.
