In 1784 Morgan Rice, the then lord of the manor of Tooting, deeded the ground on which the house stands to the parish that time there was no other house in the immediate vicinity. It must have been built some time after 1754, And Defoe died in 1731-more than fifty years before they had begun to think of erecting the house which legend associates with his immortal work. Yet its present occupants show visitors the room in which the world-famous story was written! When Tooting Hall is destroyed doubtless some other old house will be boomed as the place where Robinson Crusoe was written, and will prove equally attractive to credulous American

Houses Are Razed - Wireless Telegraph Stations Torn Down.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2-Reports of del Cabo, in lower California, on October 14, caused by a cloudburst, were confirmed by Captain Paulson and passengers on the steamer Curacoa, which arrived here from Mazatlan yesterday. Sixteen persons and said to have been drowned by the tor rential downpour and more than fifts houses washed away. The rain was preceded by a hurricane, which blew with great fury for upwards of twelve hours. Small craft in the harbor were sunk and a number of large vessels badly damaged. As the deluge struck the town the people were caught up and those in the main patis. Several were carried out to sea. Some what escaped the flood were killed by being

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.-On Christmas eve 1898 John McNulty, a man in moderate ircumstances, while returning to his home alded a beggar who stopped him on the street and applied for alms. The man in-sisted on getting his benefactor's name and ddress, saying that some day, perhaps, e might be able to show his appreciation. McNuity thought no more of the matter until last night, when upon returning from his work, he opened a letter which had ome for him and found enclosed a thousand-dollar bill and a brief letter, which
