

Great Stocks from the Darlington Co. Brooklyn N. Y.

THIS $3,000,000 CONCERN FAILED A WEEK BEFORE ITS PROPOSED OPENING

Brandeis Bought the Choicest Lots, Big Sacrifice

There never was a sale of a department store stock that occasioned as much comment as this. The Darlington Store failed before its opening on account of inability to secure its pledged capital. With more than a million dollars worth of goods in the hands of the makers, the store went into bankruptcy.

A member of the Brandeis firm immediately started for the east. He paid cash for enormous quantities of merchandise that was made for the Darlington concern. The sacrifice was something astounding and we will sell these goods away below cost to produce.
