FOREIGN HELP FOR OMAHA

Business Men's Association Appeals to Powderly for Help.

BINDERS AND PRESSMEN WANTED

Secretary Montgomery Writes to Commissioner of Immigration Asking that Workmen Be Sent Here.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Omaha needs, according to a letter received today from Charles C. Montgomery, secretary of the Omaha Business Men's association, to T. V. Powderly, chief of the bureau of immigration and naturalization, workmen expert as bookbinders, rulers, paper cutters and finishers. It appears that profitable and steady employment may be obtained by such men as are trained in the book binding trade in Omaha and kindred branches of the book making business, where the Typographic shops, aided by the local Business Men's association, is fighting the unions. John Rosicky, president of the National Printing company of Omaha, has written to Mr. Powderly that he wants two or three Bohemian printers. He guarantees that they will have steady work the year around at $15 per week, fifty-four hours constituting a week's work. In addition to this offer of steady employment to at least two Bohemian printers Mr. Rosicky offers to furnish transportation from port of entry to Omaha. Mr. Rosicky is now paying $15 for forty-eight hours work.

Senator Burkett, accompanied by his secretary, George Tobey, arrived in Washington today fresh from the recent election in Nebraska. Senator Burkett was all smiles when questioned as to the republican victory and said that the ticket warranted the show of confidence given it by the voters of the prairie state. He was particularly happy over the vote in Douglas county, which he thought was a prime endorsement of the ticket which the republicans had put up. On the question as to who would succeed Elmer Stevenson Mr. Burkett was as dumb as the proverbial oyster. He indefinitely admitted that W. B. Rose, Ross Hammond and himself had been in conference at the Lindell hotel in Lincoln, but so far as an agreement having been reached as to the collectorship Mr. Burkett stoutly refused to give up any news.

"There is no change in the collectorship," is what he said, and he said it like a man who believed he was telling the truth.

When asked as to rumor that his secretary, Mr. Tobey, was about ready to quit politics for business, Senator Burkett said that Mr. Tobey had received a good offer from a Lincoln firm and that about Mr. Tobey would accept, although the matter is still subject of consideration. Mr. Burkett is the first of the Nebraska delegation to arrive for the coming session of congress, Senator Brown being expected shortly after Thanksgiving.

Minor Matters at Capital.

Beginning November 15, two additional letter carriers have been authorized for Council Bluffs and one for Beatrice, Neb. Paul P. Taylor of Ames, Ia., has been appointed veterinary inspector in connection with the Bureau of Animal Industry. Complete rural delivery service has been ordered established in Franklin county, Ia., effective December 1, 1907.

Postmasters appointed: Nebraska, Algora, Cheyenne county, John T. Rivett, vice Della Manderson, resigned. Iowa, Grimes, Polk county, Carl L. Black, vice D. T. Jeffreys, deceased. South Dakota, Little Bend, Sully county, Horace N. Knox, vice C. H. Luxley, resigned. Wyoming, Ervay, Natrona county, Edwin H. Crapon, vice L. M. Clayton, resigned.

is actually navigated, but the hearing should be asked any way. A bill is likely to be presented this winter providing for an appropriation to clear the Missouri river, but it is sure to come next winter. Congressman Ellis will tell Omahans the situation when he addresses the members of the Commercial club Monday evening, as he is not only a member of the rivers and harbors committee, but lives on the Missouri river.

Congressman Hede said it was highly important that a steamboat line of some kind operate on the river next summer, as Chairman Burton of the rivers and harbors committee has laid down the general rule that rivers which are navigated are to be first considered in making appropriations for river improvement.

Congressman Hede is thoroughly familiar with the Missouri river. He knows that the restless stream has the reputation of having a woman's caprice of going sideways, interfering in politics, rearranging geography and dabbling in real estate, but he has confidence in the stream still, and will do what he can to see that the river which tumbles, slides, meanders, sidesteps and plays leapfrog for 1,200 miles, stays in the United States and is opened to navigation, if government money will open it.

TALKS ON TEETH

It is generally conceded by the dental profession that the Alveolar teeth as supplied by our improved method (without plates or ordinary bridge work) are beautiful in appearance, the work is of the very best character, and as they can't match it they resort to inroads, such as "How long will they last?"

That is about all the fault they can find, and that is an imaginary one.

They are crossing bridges.

In the past four or five years we have treated approximately ten thousand cases in our offices—many of them desperate ones—a large portion of our work is of the "last resort" order.

Our business has grown until it now has assumed a volume which puts us first in the dental profession.

We ask any fair-minded person how long we could have stayed in the business if this work had been but a temporary makeshift? Nothing succeeds like success has been achieved because of sheer merit and not because of accident.

In each of our offices we have a special list in Orthodontia, irregularly crooked teeth. We can regulate (straighten) such teeth with less discomfort in one-half the time and one-half the price that the average orthodontia specialist would charge.

Pyorrhea (loose teeth) is a disease that has been given up by the dental profession as incurable, yet we guarantee to cure it. We can refer to many prominent physicians that we have permanently cured of pyorrhea of many years' standing. Certainly a man in this profession knows when he is cured. Here is a letter from one of our satisfied patients. Please read it:

Muscattine, Ia., March 4, 1907.
Dear Sir—I had for a great many years trouble with my teeth and spent a great deal of time and money on them, until the spring of 1904 found me in a despairing condition. I was attracted by your advertisement at that time and went to your office with a good deal of misgiving, as I had been told that while your work was very beautiful that it would not last.

However, I am happy to say that the work that you did for me at that time, three years ago, is just as firm and solid today as it was when it was put in, and has never given me any trouble, and is and always has been entirely satisfactory and I take pleasure in recommending your work to anyone in need of dental services of any kind.

When you did my work you guaranteed that it would be permanent, and I feel sure that it will last me as long as I live. The very nature and feeling of the work in my mouth assures me of this.

J. J. YORK.

Wallace St.

The Alveolar Method of supplying missing teeth without plates is a painless operation and does not call for any boring or cutting into the gums or any discomfort whatever.

All that we demand is that you have two or more teeth left in either jaw to work with. The work takes but a few days to complete.

Then you have a real set of teeth, almost as perfect as nature's, and which will last as long as you do. They are firm and solid in the mouth—look act and feel like your own teeth.

You should come to our office for a free examination of your teeth.

New teeth are worth any sacrifice of time and money.

But if you cannot come now, send for Dr. Murphy's book, "Alveolar Dentistry," which goes into details. We send it free. It is the most valuable work on the teeth ever written, and the reading of it brings us patients from all over this continent.

IMMIGRANTS PUT ON GUARD

Steps Will Be Taken in Louisiana to This End.

FOREIGNERS MAKING TROUBLE

Receive Their Countrymen for Private Gain and Are the Cause of Stories of Poisoning in the South.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 8.—Views disseminated that Austrian government has warned its people against immigration to the south, where poison is alleged to exist, have determined the Louisiana State board of immigration to take immediate action in New Orleans to protect immigrants. Secretary Knueffer of the board announced today that he will ask the city council to pass regulations stopping abuses which have sprung up within the past few months, during which New Orleans has been a considerable gateway for immigrants. Mr. Knueffer claims that trickery for profit and not real business interests are largely the cause for such warnings as that of the Austrian government. These foreigners, he asserts, get hold of the immigrants when they land in New Orleans, swindling them out of much money for private gain, and then they make them believe fabulous tales of plantation opportunities which result in bitter disappointment to the immigrant upon learning exactly what plantation work is.

Gambling Has Been Stopped.

LANDER, Wyo., Nov. 8.—(Special.)—For the first time in the history of Fremont county there is not a place in the county where open gambling is being carried on. The county commissioners at their meeting today passed a resolution authorizing the sheriff and county attorney to employ such additional assistants as may be necessary to procure evidence against the gamblers, to be presented to the grand jury to be called at the next term of court, which opens in December. The gamblers had anticipated the issuance of such an order and nearly all of them had already closed up. Those who were still running announced at once that they had no intention of further defying the law and at once closed up all forms of gambling, even to slot machines, in most instances. Opinions are somewhat divided as to whether or not public sentiment will keep gambling closed, but most of the leading gamblers are already seeking new fields for their operations.
