BUTTER AND EGGS GO UP

Thirty-Three Cents' Pound and Twenty-Five a Dozen Now.

WHAT CHANCE HAS A POOR LOVER

Young Man frets that His Salary is Gone Before it is Earned and Commission Men Blame the Farmers.

Cupid, much abused and victim of conspiracies and discriminations of all kinds, is about to bring suit against the American farmer under the Sherman anti-trust laws because provisions are more expensive than restaurant meals and interfere with the business of the gods.

When a young man carried two pounds of butter and a dozen eggs home to his mother Tuesday and paid for them with a $1 cashier's check he remarked: "No hope of getting married with the necessities of life destroying a salary before it is earned."

As change for the $1 check the young man received 2 cents in bright new pennies.

"It's no mistake," said the clerk. "Best butter at 23 cents and eggs are 25 cents per dozen. Come in next week and we will take the $1 check without giving you the pocket pieces—eggs are going higher as winter approaches."

At the same time the restaurants are cutting prices as though preparing for a bargain sale. Here are some of the reductions made by a fashionable downtown restaurant despite the fact that provisions are higher.

Old Price. New Price. Boneless pigfeet, 30 cts. 25 cts. Cold roast beef, 30 cts. 25 cts. Cold ox tongue, 30 cts. 25 cts. Cold corned beef, 30 cts. 25 cts. Prune shortcake, whip-cream, 25 cts. 25 cts. Lobster salad, 25 cts. 25 cts. Potato salad, 25 cts. 25 cts. Chicken sandwich, 25 cts. 25 cts. New England dinner, 35 cts. 20 cts.

Commission Men Helpless. But the commission men declare they are helpless in the face of the present situation and that produce prices are high because the farmers demand a big price for butter and eggs, while the creameries have bid so high for butter fat that the farmers have become educated to the fact their cows are about as valuable as the quarter sections which produce bumper corn crops.

The trust is composed of American farmers," said a wholesaler, when asked if the commission men had not formed a combination. "Crops have been so good during the last few years the farmers are independent. Here's what the farmer's wife says: 'The old man has his jeans full of long green and cashier's checks. He won't let under an old cow and longer the children are on to the fact that the Teddys come easy and they dislike milking and I can't bother with the cows and take care of the children. The girls have gone away to school and can't be depended on to climb through the haymows and gather up eggs; the boys are at school, learning to play football and would not clean a cow shed if it had marble floors.'"

"The hens control the egg market," said a baker's egg man. "When the weather does not go to please them they won't lay. It has not suited them recently."

CROOK BEATS HIS LANDLADY

Young Man Not Only Gets Free Room Rent, but Also Some Cash.

The police are looking for a man who gave his name as Wallace R. Hall. That is the name he gave to his landlady, Mrs. Eliza Wutraw, 629 South Nineteenth street, of whom he rented a roomer and who only out her room rent, but is out $20, which was the size of a bogus clearing house check she cashed for the young man. When he applied to her for a room she asked if he could give any references. He said he certainly could and called up, or pretended to call up the Young Men's Christian association and then called Mrs. Wutraw to the phone to ask questions of her heart's content. The information she received from the party at the other end of the wire was entirely satisfactory and she rented the fellow the room.

Later he ingratiated himself into her confidence she did not hesitate when he asked her to cash a check for him. As the check bore a stamp with the name of the Omaha Clearing House association printed on it she never dreamed of being notified and went for the young man, but he had decamped. In his room were found numerous blank checks like the one he passed on Mrs. Wutraw and a rubber stamp bearing the words, "Omaha Clearing House Association," was also found. He believed by the police the other checks issued by Hall will turn up and he is thought to be an old hand at the business. Several bogus telegrams written on receiving blanks were also found in his room.

NEW GOLD COINS NOT LIKED

Reform Design is Criticized by Bankers of Omaha.

OLD ONES EASY TO PICK UP Men Who Handle Stacks of Money Want the Milling, as it Affords Good Place for Grip.

Bankers of Omaha do not see the necessity of the new design for gold coins in making "engies" and "half-engies" in the future and declare the present design is beautiful in every detail and the milling is favored by those who handle the coins, as it makes them easy to pick up from the counters to count into "stacks."

"The American coins are the most beautiful of any coins made," said Luther Drake, president of the Merchants National bank. "I have compared them with the foreign coins and they are far more beautiful. This is particularly true of the gold coins of the United States. Our $10 and $20 gold coins are pieces of art in themselves and I see no reason for changing them."

None of the new coins have arrived in Omaha as yet, but they are furnishing material for comment among the bankers, who have been too busy handling the $5, $10 and $20 cashier's checks to pay much attention to the new gold coins made at the mint.

The coins are described as different from anything ever circulated in America. The design is by Augustus St. Gaudens, who has given the eagle and Indian head an entirely new individuality. Bankers are not objecting to the leaving off of the motto "In God We Trust." They have little or no sentiment on that subject, but they like the old head.

Indian Head Attractive. The side bearing the Indian's head on the new coins attracts attention at once, as the Indian wears a real war bonnet. Above the head are the thirteen stars, while beneath in plain relief are the words "E PLURIBUS UNUM."

The absence of the milling is the most noticeable change, as it makes the coin look like a medal. In place of it are small, sixteen pointed stars, which encircle the coin. There are forty-six of them—one for the new state of Oklahoma. Coin experts say that the stars will act as a safeguard against the coins being robbed of their gold. In "looting" a coin the robbers bore into the edge of the coin and take out the gold, filling the hole with other metal. The hole is then plugged with a little gold and the milling is easily replaced. The stars, it is said, cannot be given their original shape by the robbers and disfigurements will be detected at once. Bankers do not think this a sufficient reason for changing the style of coins, and are inclined to favor the old ones.

FEAST FOR QUADRENNIALS

Unique Banquet is Planned for Persons Born on February Twenty-Nine.

Were you born on February 29? If so, you are invited to attend one of the most unique social functions ever given in Omaha.

The Quadrennial club, composed entirely of persons who were born on the day that comes only once in four years is planning a reception and banquet to be held the last day of next February. No one will be admitted except those who enjoy the distinction of being born on February 29. The club was organized several years ago and its banquet in 1904 was a very pleasing function. At that time letters were received by W. W. Slaughter, who was instrumental in organizing it, from all over the country and clubs sprang up in nearly all the larger cities.

Judge Slaughter's attention was called to the fact that last year is coming by Editor Bradford of the Glenwood, Ia., Times, a few days ago. Steps were immediately taken to prepare for the celebration. Judge Bradford, Editor Bradford, F. W. Foster, an insurance man, and Horst H. Kruger, the secretary, at once organized themselves into a preliminary committee to work up the function.

It is the intention to have tables for each quadrennial period. Those who were born the first year will sit at a table by themselves and the eight-year-olds will form a table, and so on through all the years represented. It is the purpose to award prizes to the oldest 2er present, to those of the year having the largest representation and to the youngest 2er in the city, which will mean that any baby born next February will receive a present. Music will be furnished and addresses made by 2ers. The club is composed of all classes and conditions of men and women from Omaha and surrounding territory.

A meeting will be held within the next two weeks for the appointment of committees and for making preliminary plans. All those eligible to join are requested to send their names and addresses to the secretary, Henry H. Kruger, 312 Leavenworth street.

LAWYERS ERR IN FIGURES

Point Brought Out in Breen and Yelzer's Attack on Jury List Formation.

Members of the county board were on the witness stand in Judge Troup's court Tuesday morning to explain how they made up the jury list, which is the subject of attack by the attorneys for Charles Humphrey, Attorney Breen and Yelzer contend the entire jury list for the year 1907 is illegal because due proportion was not maintained between the various precincts in making it up. The commissioners said each of them submitted a list of names made up from his own precinct, and that these were changed in committee of the whole and in this way the proportion might have been disturbed.

In the examination of Commissioner Kennard it came out that Messrs. Breen and Yelzer had made a mistake in compiling their figures by including the Ninth ward in the First commissioner district instead of in the Fifth. Mr. Yelzer went on the witness stand and declared the change will still further throw the other districts out of proportion with the First, which he insisted had too many jurors.

Arguments on the motion to quash the jury panel occupied the greater part of the day.

CHAMPION HARD LUCK STORY

Mother Crippled with Rheumatism, Two Brothers Minus Legs, Excuse Man from Jury.

The champion hard luck story was told to Judge Troup Tuesday by a member of the jury, who wanted to be excused from service.

"You are not over sixty are you?" said the judge to a young man who applied for the excuse.

"No, I'm not," was the answer, "but I'm in over events and I'm all crippled up with rheumatism so I can hardly take care of myself, and my mother has one leg cut off above the knee and the other below the knee. If I come to town to serve on the jury who will be left to do the chores?" Judge Troup gave him the excuse.

ALUMET BAKING POWDER. Pure in the Can. Pure in the Baking. Do you know that baking powder undergoes a chemical reaction in the process of baking? Calumet is entirely different in the baking. One of the greatest authorities on chemistry in the country, found that "a loaf of bread made from a quart of flour, leavened with cream of tartar baking powder contained 45 grains more Rochelle Salts, than is contained in one Seditz Powder". Remember, this drug is not in the can. It is formed by the chemical reaction that takes place in the baking. That is why so many baking powders which produce impurities in the baking, can be advertised as "absolutely pure". It may be pure in the can, but it is not necessarily pure in the food. Calumet Baking Powder is absolutely free from every impurity. Food leavened with it contains no Tartaric Acid, Rochelle Salts, Alum, Lime or Ammonia—it is Chemically Correct. We will give $1000 to any one who finds any injurious substance in the food leavened with Calumet Baking Powder. Calumet is the only high grade baking powder sold at a moderate price. And it produces the greatest leavening power. It requires only half as much as other powders to obtain the same results. Complies with all Pure Food laws—State and National. If you want the purest, most economical, most dependable baking powder, insist on getting CALUMET A High Quality BAKING POWDER At a Moderate Price.
