MRS. VANCE LANE GIVEN SUPPER

Mrs. J. E. Shaffer Celebrates Birthday with Elaborate Dinner Wednesday Evening for Members of Owl Club.

Metropolitan club gave its Thanksgiving party Wednesday evening, and with Mr. I. Kaufman as chairman of the entertainment committee, assisted by Mrs. Nathan Mantel, Miss Zerlina Dryfoos, Miss Florence Hiller, Miss Evelyn Bergman, Mr. Julius Rosenfeld of Council Bluffs, and Mr. Lou Hiller, the members were given a real treat in the presentation of a play entitled, "The Old Maids' Convention," followed by an informal dance. The play, which pictured "spinster" in a very ludicrous light, called forth enthusiastic applause and afforded much merriment. The cast included Mrs. Henry Hiller, as president of the Old Maids' Matrimony club; Miss Lena Bahfeld, secretary, and Mrs. Harry May, treasurer. The old maids were Mrs. I. Kaufman, Mrs. H. J. Abrahams, Mrs. Harry Abrahams, Mrs. Herman Cohn, Mrs. S. Aronstein, Mrs. Leopold Heller, Mrs. Nathan Mantel, Mrs. Albert Dryfoos, Mrs. Julius Dryfoos and Mrs. Charlotte Kirschbraun. Mr. Henry Rosenfield was the professor, and assisting were Miss Laura Goetz, Miss Myrtle Moses, Miss Lucille Callach, Miss Florence Hiller, Miss Zerlina Dryfoos, Miss Sadie Kirschbraun, Miss Helen Fifth and Miss Blanche Grotke. No decorations at the hall were attempted, and it was quite unnecessary considering the elaborate adornment of the old maids. They were ornamented with the most bewitching flower combinations, quantities of curls clinging to their "youthful" faces, and their beauty further enhanced by the fashionable mantillas. Following the play supper was served in the banquet hall. The remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing. About fifty-eight couples were present.

For Mrs. Vance Lane. Complimentary to Mrs. Vance Lane. Mrs. H. J. Penfold gave a handsomely appointed dinner Wednesday evening in honor of her birthday. The table was brightened by a low mound of red roses. The plate cards were especially attractive, being in book form and having two leaves. On one was the name of Mrs. Lane, the hostess' name and the date and on the other were the names of the twelve guests present including Mrs. Vance Lane, Mrs. Richard, Mrs. C. R. Horton, Mrs. Frank Morlarity, Mrs. L. C. Gray of Chicago, Mrs. Ben Berk of New York, Mrs. O. D. Klipping, Mrs. John R. Manchester, Mrs. L. H. Korty, Mrs. E. E. Bryson, Mrs. J. B. It was surrounded by the remains of fruit. From the center chandelier to the four corners of the table were streamers of pumpkin-colored ribbon. The plate cards were hand-painted and were tinted in yellow. For cards, the guests were seated at small tables, the members of the club being in one room and the guests in another. Two sets of prizes were awarded. Mr. and Mrs. William J. McCann won the first prizes of the club members, Mrs. Max Burkenroad second and consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Alex Jetes and Mrs. Bauermeister. PARENTS

When you stop to think about it, you, of course, realize the grave danger that menaces your children when they play in the streets on which there are street car tracks, but do you think about it often enough? And do you caution your children about it often enough? Are you sure that YOUR children are not daily exposing themselves to the danger of being struck by a car—in fact, jeopardizing their lives. Remember that when children are playing, their minds are engrossed with their play and they are utterly unheeded of approaching cars and frequently dart directly in front of them.
