NEW YORK STOCKS AND BONDS

Dull Trading is Accompanied by Show of Considerable Strength.

BANK FORECAST IS FAVORABLE

Market Ignores High Rate for Call Money and Gains Are Generally Well Maintained to a Firm Closing.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—The dull trading on the Stock exchange today was accompanied by considerable strength, which was displayed in a steady and irregular manner.

Professional traders did much of the business and buying to cover shorts by a retracing bear interest was an important factor in the activity.

There was an assurance that the bank statement for tomorrow's bank statement of the position of the clearing house institutions.

The usual preliminary forecasts of the week's currency movement indicated some improvement of position, but it was an intimation of the concealed changes that the assumption of radical betterment was based.

It was reported that there had been returns made during the week of some of the advances to trust companies that were besieged during the panic period.

Notable effect not only on the cash, it was said on the loans of the banks, but also on the money market.

As both kinds of advances to trust companies have been extended to the trust companies, it was expected that the period of the known movements of money indicate that the tide of the cash movement is toward the money market.

The local banks have benefited also from the increase of gold reserves during the week.

The promised net result is a substantial gain in cash by the banks and a corresponding increase in the neighborhood of $2,000,000.

Liquidation in the stock market during the week has assumed a proportion of the legal requirements. The issuance during the week of the call of the New York State Banking department for reports of condition of state banks and trust companies as of December 19 is expected to be followed by greater freedom on the part of those institutions in extending credits.

The extension of the suspension of the judicial decision in support of the company's contentions against the 30-cent tax on the movement in the stock market is expected to have some restraining influence on the activity of the trust companies in this respect.

The stock market during the week did not show any greater ease, the call loan in fact touched the highest level of the week.

The continued ebb of funds in the money market during the week was engaged abroad and discounts advanced in London.

An advance in the price of copper in London and here was a feature of the day and made the copper industrial stocks of interest.

Consolidated Gas and its affiliated companies, the Brooklyn Union Gas, based on the judicial decision in support of the company's contentions against the 30-cent tax on the movement in the stock market is expected to have some restraining influence on the activity of the trust companies in this respect.
