BOND PURCHASERS DELAY

Failure to Send the Cash Puts County in the Hole on Ditch Payment.

HARRISON COUNTY MAY HELP OUT

Company Requested to Forward Cash or Return Bonds, in Which Event They Will Be Turned Over to Contractors

At the joint meeting yesterday of the supervisors of Harrison and Pottawattamie counties for 1908, including business men of the Security Savings Bank and Trust company of Toledo, O., to remit the cash for the drainage district bonds which it purchased, had so embarrassed Pottawattamie county that it had been unable to take up the warrants issued for its share of the drainage district bonds. The failure of the Toledo concern to send the cash, it was stated was due to the recent financial flurry throughout the country. The warrants outstanding against Pottawattamie county amount to $50,000 while the proceeds of the bonds received by Harrison county, it was suggested that Harrison county, which has a surplus in its ditch fund, transfer $50,000 to Pottawattamie county and this will be done provided such a transaction can be effected legally. At the same time County Auditor Cheyne was instructed to advise the Toledo concern to furnish the cash at once or return the bonds. The contractors are obliged under their contracts to accept these bonds in lieu of cash. The joint board decided to extend the Allen creek ditch into Allen creek a distance of about three quarters of a mile.

MISCREANT SARES YOUNG WOMEN

Several Accused on Street and St. Mary's Home is Visited.

The police are searching for an unidentified man who attacked four girls Thursday night and who is also believed to be the same person who offered gross insults to the women of St. Mary's Home for Young Women on Harmony street. The first complaint came to the police from A. Boone of 1235 Canning street, who reported that a man had accosted his 15-year-old daughter on East Broadway, near Franklin street, on Wednesday afternoon shortly after 6 o'clock. The fellow stepped from behind a tree and, seizing the young girl by the arm, made improper proposals. The fellow then, it is said, attempted an assault, but Miss Logan, while walking home, company with her sister, succeeded in freeing herself from the man's hold, made her escape by running.

Water Works Extension Completed.

The waterworks company has completed the extensions to Twenty-eighth street and Second avenue, ordered by the city council for the better protection of Keys Bros' carriage factory. It is also put in the pipes for the sprinkler system which, it is understood, Keys Bros. will install in the spring. The waterworks company's agreement with the city provided that the extension should be completed by January 1.

Mob Ducks Albin Man.

CRESTON, Ia., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—H. C. Wilson, an Albin man, was taken from his home Thursday night in his nightclothes by twenty-five masked Albin men and marched to a pond, where he was ducked, because he refused to have his wife released from the insane asylum, claiming that he kept her incarcerated to get her out of the way. At the edge of the pond he was asked if he would do all in his power to secure her release and he said no. After one icy plunge, however, he changed his mind and said he would, and he was then taken back home and the wife was discharged. It is claimed by Albin citizens that although Mrs. Wilson has been twice in St. Pleasant asylum she now shows no signs of insanity. The authorities at Albin have heard no complaint from Wilson in regard to the midnight call. Neither has any official investigation been taken as yet.

He asks $30,000 for the death of Hatman, who was employed as furnace fireman at the roundhouse. Hatman was killed April 27 of this year by being thrown from a locomotive which he had assisted in coaling and was crushed under its wheels. It is alleged that Hatman was taken from his regular work and ordered by Mathews to assist in coaling a locomotive, something which was outside his regular duties and to which he was unaccustomed.

Committee Overrid It.

Mrs. Baird, secretary of the Iowa Humane society, claims that the Greater Des Moines committee has overdone the work of advertising for laborers. The committee recently entered upon a campaign of advertising through the country newspapers for workmen, claiming that wages were low in Des Moines and wages good. Mrs. Baird claims that every day some of these workmen, unable to get employment, are appealing to her for assistance to keep their families from starving.

Episcopallians Are Coming.

High officials from most of the western states in the Episcopal church will be in Des Moines the middle of next month. The occasion is the annual convention of the missionary department of the Sixth district of the church. This comprises the states of Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota, Wyoming and Montana.

Roads Must Give Service.

State Railroad Commissioner N. S. Ketchum has notified the Rock Island railroad and the Minneapolis & St. Louis that they must at once change the system of things between this city and Gowrie on the Minneapolis & St. Louis and between Gowrie and Sibley on the Rock Island. The two roads have an agreement wherein the Rock Island uses the Minneapolis & St. Louis tracks to Gowrie and the Minneapolis & St. Louis uses the Rock Island tracks to Sibley. But neither road will allow the other to do this on the other's line. The result is that patrons on these lines are cut out of through transportation, that persons living between Gowrie and Sibley cannot buy tickets to points between Gowrie and Des Moines and those between Gowrie and Des Moines cannot buy tickets to Des Moines between Gowrie and Sibley without changing cars.

Another Murder Trial.

The trial of E. J. Howard for the murder of Mrs. Martha Piracy began in the district court today. Howard is a young boy, a trooper with the Second United States cavalry, stationed here. He shot at Mrs. Piracy's sister, with whom he was in love, and who had killed him, and accidentally shot Mrs. Piracy and killed her.

Photographer Has Money.

G. W. Lawson, a photographer, is badly wanted in Des Moines by 400 irate customers. He came to Des Moines but a short time ago and sent out an army of canvassers who sold coupons for 50 cents which gave the purchaser a chance to get the photograph cheap. Lawson, however, kept the sittings made and the customers were then required to deposit $2.50 for the photographs. It is claimed that at least 400 people, if not more, took advantage of the cheap offer. None of them secured their photographs and today Lawson is hoping to be arrested.

Hopeless As Announced.

Senator Frank M. Hopkins of Guthrie county today made the announcement of his candidacy for the position of state auditor through the Guthrie, published at Guthrie Center. Senator Hopkins is now serving as state senator. He was formerly clerk of the board of directors of Guthrie county and has been for many years interested in the banks at Guthrie Center and other cities in that locality of the state.

Old Supervisors Meet.

George Conson, assistant attorney general, has rendered an opinion to Supervisor Cook of Crawford county that the old board of supervisors will hold the meeting on January 2. Conson holds that the new board of supervisors does not go into office until January 6. The law requires the board to hold its annual meeting the second secular day of January, which will be January 2, hence the old board must hold that meeting.

New Bank for State Center.

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—A new bank for State Center, the First Savings bank with a capital stock of $100,000, has been organized, and its articles of incorporation were filed with the state today. BOONE, Ia., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Invitations were issued today for the dedication of the Frank Champlin Memorial Masonic temple, Friday, December 27, at which time Hon. A. B. Cummins, governor of Iowa, will deliver the principal address. Governor Cummins sent his acceptance some time ago and the address is assured. The temple is practically completed, and is one of the most beautiful of its kind in the state. The late Frank Champlin, president of the City bank, made provisions in his will for the erection of this temple and it was named in his memory. It stands at Story and Sixth streets and is modern throughout and adds wonderfully to that part of the city. The work is to be done under the auspices of the grand lodge, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, followed by a banquet and toast program. Many noted speakers from all over the state will be in attendance and will respond to toasts at the banquet.

Davenport Men Not Pleased.

DAVENPORT, Ia., Dec. 21.—(Special.)—Davenport and its vicinity toward the rest of the state of Iowa figured in interesting addresses at the annual banquet of city officials here last evening. Mayor Becker, as toastmaster, shot a shot at the Des Moines plan of government, referring to city commissions as based on "Ladies' Home Journal" theories. City Attorney George W. Root came in to the defense of Davenport. If the people of the state knew us as well as we know each other," said Mr. Root, "no more shafts of criticism would be hurled at Davenport, nor would our social customs or entertainment practices be interfered with."

Mr. Root went on to say that from the time the Mayflower landed until now, no American community had found that it could get a government better than the people were themselves. The best city government, he said, is that founded on the best sentiment of the people.

CONDITION OF OMAHA TRADE

Temporary Lull Characterizes Wholesale Sales Circles.

GOOD NEWS TO DRY GOODS MEN

Manufacturers Announce that Prices on Gingham Will Not Be Changed, as Spring Sales Are in Excess of Orders Placed Early.

Even the Christmas demand for goods of special reasonable character has fallen off the last week until there was some complaint in the wholesaling district during the week, but the quiet is taken as only temporary. Many salesmen are coming in for the holidays and not many orders have been placed since the first week of the month.

Wholesalers have received fair mail orders for spot goods on which prompt shipments are wanted. Some dealers have arrived with the first parcels of the new goods and goods to fill out complete lines. All country dealers, and holiday trade as a Western railroad that has already surveyed a line from O'Neill to Omaha, which has brought them back to the market again.

NEBRASKA FROM DAY TO DAY

Quiet and Curious Features of Life in a Rapidly Growing State.

He Had the Habit—It's sort of funny what habit will do. There is a business man not a thousand miles from Columbus who has so gotten into the habit of saying "Throw off a little" that he does it unconsciously. This gentleman is a dealer in coal and the other day a farmer drove on his scales for the first time in a long while before getting a load of that very necessary fuel. It was the tare weight he wanted. He had not gotten his coal yet, but still the dealer sprung his habitual words, "Throw off a little." The farmer replied, "You darn fool, there is nothing on it to throw off. When the coal man woke up the farmer had a good deal of his rival across the street for his coal—Columbus Tribune.

New Line of Gingham.

A new line of gingham has been brought out by a eastern house, which will be offered at a price of 10c per yard. The price of the A. F. C. line has been fixed at 12c, and the new line is offered at 10c. The new line is equal in every way to the old line, but the yards are a trifle coarser. The new line is made to the highest standard ever reached by the manufacturers of this country and in contrast with the goods of the old line, they stand out better than many of the so-called mercantile goods of the old line. It has also been developed and will appear in the lines for the new season.

Completion of the new line of gingham is the effect that their spring sales will be better than those of the old line. A member of the firm of M. E. Smith & Co. said when this announcement was received that the new line of gingham will be a success, as the spring orders are not decreasing nor being cancelled, when such a house sends out so important a line.

Drugs and Chemicals Quiet.

Inactivity is the general feature of the drug and chemical trade. The price of vanilla was announced in the past, but the slight fluctuations seldom reach the attention of the public. Vanilla is all of a brassy color, with black keys and faucets and cute little troughs, to catch the notes we suppose, as they come trickling down. It's a "peach," some of the boys say, and it's a "peach" to some one else. There is some question as to whether or not it will require a license to play this sort of a piano, but if no one "peaches" there will probably be no kink made at all. Mr. Gillett need not expect the job of tuning this "piano" for it requires a fair amount of treatment to put it in tune that he learned at the high school. In fact this is such a precious instrument that we would advise Mayor Haller to have his most trusted officer to see that no harm comes to it or to any who play upon it.—Blair Pilot.

Thanksgiving Stock Selling.

But on goods especially reasonable there was expected considerable slackness this week. That it was not so happened, up to yesterday, was not pleasant. Probably it is due to the fact that the goods were not generally taken, especially nuts, raisins, etc., and as they were late in arriving, it is likely that the goods will be sold over from Thanksgiving to supply their needs against Christmas. It is not too late yet, however, to get in a few orders for goods of town trade to be placed in their orders for shipment, and thus far it has not been felt. It may be lower, owing to the heavy forward during the balance of the week.

With standard grade oats hard to secure because of the heavy crop in the West, the situation looked gloomy last week. The market for standard grade oats has improved some. Mills are filling orders in better shape and the old Yankee oats were traded at 4c cents less per barrel. A spread of 20 cents is being made between barrels and bushels. Cornmeal is strong. Buckwheat flour has been a good seller and the price is firm. Tomatoes and corn, the two big features of the canned vegetable line are firm, with a fair demand.

The declines during the week were: Pork, 31 per barrel; apples, 20 cents per barrel; sugar, 19 cents per barrel; hard corn, 10c per cent per bushel; cranberries, 50 cents per barrel; currants, 15 cents per bushel; raisins, 15 cents per bushel. The advances were only in the produce market, and that in the case of tomatoes, which were 10c per bushel. Never has a better supply of Christmas goods been seen in Omaha. The market is coming week.

STOLEN JEWELRY RECOVERED

Sale of $3,000 Necklace for Twenty-Five Cents Leads to Arrest of Express Employee.

NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—William White, a 37-year-old boy, is confessed thief, a package of jewelry stolen from the United States Express company. He was arrested in Jersey City today after trying to dispose of the entire collection for three dollars. The sale of a $3,000 necklace for 25 cents led to his capture. The prisoner was a helper on one of the express company's wagons in Jersey City. His wagon carried the valuable package which he put into his pocket as the wagon was being unloaded.

Banquet to Boomer.

PLATTE CENTER, Neb., Dec. 21.—(Special Telegram.)—As advertised, the big blowout in honor of John W. Myler, the hustling real estate man of this town, was pulled off here last night, and speakers of note from Columbus, Humphrey and other towns were present and participated in the event. Mr. Myler now has made a sure go of his suburban annex to this town and the people are joyful. However, from the lips of certain speakers last night it came to light for the first time since the booming by Mr. Myler of his ventures in this city that the Burlington railroad is evidently behind him in order to lead off what was formerly known here as the Midland Central, but which is understood to be the great Western railroad that has already surveyed a line from O'Neill to Omaha.
