took particular pride in the fact. He was born in Rochester, N. Y., March 19, 1856. When he was 2 years old his family removed to Dowagiac, Mich., and here he began the education, which perhaps is all the better for having been earned by his own stronuous exertions.

When Charles was but 8 years old a disastrous fire swept away what wealth his father had gathered and left the son to win his way in the world as best he could. Turning toward the first opportunity which was followed by the sale of pop corn, and said, will be decidedly limited. later pop corn and peanuts from stands at the country and state fairs; in fact, he could make an honest dollar.

It was thus the boy managed to obtain funds for his support and to defray his expenses while at school. After obtaining a high school education at Downgiac he gradnated from a commercial college at New Haven, Conn., and his education was completed by a three-years' course at Oberlin president of the institution Besides being receiver of the Kimball-Champ Investment company, which had a paid up capital of $200,000, Mr. Hannan was also receiver of the Lake Manawa Railroad company, and had direct charge of the mana rement of the steam railroad between this city and the lake resort, and of the resort itself. Mr. Hannan organized the Omaha, Council Bluffs and Suburban Railway company, but after a portion of the line had been built and put in operation the company sold out to the Omaha & Council Bluffs Railway and Bridge company. He was at one time president of the lowa Bankers' association and was interested in several other banks besides the First National of this city.

Before going to Boston as financial agent in the New England states for Swift and Company, the packers, Mr. Hannan was actively associated with others in the construction of the electric interurban road from Detroit to Toledo. It is estimated that he left an estate of over $1,000,000.

Matters in District Court. The Street Railway company is made defendant in two personal injury damage suits filed in the district court yesterday. J. F. Hunt, a dairyman of this city, asks damages placed at $10,150 for injuries alleged to have been received on October 2 or this year from picking up a live feed wire said to have dropped from the defendant company's poles on its Manawa line at the intersection of Twenty-ninth street. According to the statement of complaint contained in the petition Hunt's horses first stepped on the wire and were thrown to the ground. He got out of his wagon to investigate and, finding the wire, attempted to move it one side, when he received a shock which rendered him unconscious for some time.

W. H. Kilmer seeks to recover damages plured at 11 000. He alleges that on Seplember 19 of this year he was standing on the rear platform of a car enroute to Omaha when at Harney and Fourteenth streets in Omaha, the motorman, he claims, stopped the car and started it forward with a jork and the result was that Kilmer was thrown off the platform to the pavement and received permanent injuries to his back and shoulder.

death of Charles R, Hannan at 9:15 o'clock
The day morning in Boston. Mr. Hannan had been ill for some time, and owing to the hopeless nature of his allment his death had been expected daily for the last week. He is survived by his wife and two children, a son, Charles, aged 22, and a daughter, Hazel, aged 25, who have made their home in Boston since the family removed from Council Bluffs about five years ago.

The body will be placed in a receiving vault in Boston and will later, it is stated, be brought to Council Bluffs for burial. Mr. Hannan always regarded Council Bluffs as his home and had planned to return here to live, and for this reason had maintained his handsome residence on Second avenue since going to Boston.

Charles R. Hannan belonged to that class of Americans termed "self made," and he took particular pride in the fact.

COLD SNAP AVERTS FLOOD River at Pittaburg Will Not Reach Danger Point by Two Feet.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 25.-A sudden cold snap at the headwaters of the Allegheny river has averted a flood against which the local forecast issued a warning today, predicting that by Christmas morning the danger point of twenty-two feet would be reached and might be passed by several inches. At 11 o'clock it was announced that the rise would not reach twenty feet, possibly not over nineteen. Warehouse mer moved-large stocks after the warning. The most remarkable feature of the threatened flood is that since 1810 the danger point has been reached in December in only two years-1873 and 1875.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad late today abandoned passenger service at its Allegheny station, but is maintaining regular schedules through the Smithfield and Water A few mills are threatened, but having closed for the holldays the effect will scarcely be noticeable. A number of houses on the river front are flooded and families forced to move out. If you have anything to exchange, ad-
