PIONEERS GUESTS AT 'HILLSIDE'

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Baum Give Big Dinner-Miss Ruth Marie Tzschuck Receives the School Set.

It has been customary for many years for Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Yates to open their beautiful home, "Hillside," on New Year's day either for a reception or some other entertainment. This year it was a New Year's dinner and their guests included a large number of the pioneer residents of Omaha. The guests were seated at five tables, eight at each table. Red roses and stevia were prettily combined to form the centerpieces and for plate cards there were wreaths of gold and a New Year's greeting. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Manderson. Judge and Mrs. E. Wakeley, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Doane, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greene, wherever he can find room to hold it in. Mrs. C. E. HELD FOR FEEDING Will Not Come to Market Until Hogs and Cattle Are Higher in Price.

Grain dealers of Omaha declare the price of cattle and hogs must go higher before the grain of Nebraska will begin to arrive at the primary market in any great quan-

"As long as the farmers are feeding such large number of cattle as are now in the feed lots of Nebraska we cannot look for large receipts at the Omaha market," said a grain dealer. "Whether or not the price | of stock will advance is a matter of conjecture, but the grain will be held back the building to a great extent until some of the cattle are unloaded at the Omaha yards."

PIFTEEN HUNDRED PAY WAY

Secretary Tangart Says Show is Nonon Velvet-Manager Gillan Ents All the Eggs for Breakfast.

Kitty put in her appearance at the Audiorium poultry show Wednesday and diided honors and attention with the chickens and dogs. White cats and black cats, cats of curious curis, colors and kinds, The trouble seems to have been the vied with each other for popularity. Such a jam surrounded the row of cages in Dominek Annanis and the Gillottis which which the cats were displayed that mere had its inception in an Ohio town previous man could with difficulty approach. Poultry fanciers of Omaha as well as the overs of Tige and Puss turned out en masse and the big uditorium presented a most animated appearance. Over 1,500 paid admissions were registered before 6 o'clock down the aisles between the cages all evening.

"We are now on velvet," said Secretary Talbert, "and the money which comes in after Thursday we should be able to use for a nest egg with which to promote a big show next year. The directors are beginning to realize the possibilities of a big show and the show next year is sure be a hummer. This Auditorium is just the place and next year we will have to use the basement and the balconies." Since the opening of the show the big uilding has been splendidly decorated, the management, taking advantage of the fact that thousands of Christmas trees which were brought to Omaha for the holidays were not disposed of, has secured a large number of these and decorated all over

Display of Boston Terriers. Dividing attention with the chickens and cats is the new exhibit installed Wednesday by Charles Benson, owner of the Carnation kennels. He has a fine display of Boston terriers near the stage. Here may be seen Easter Girl, the $1,000 dog which carried off the honors at the Denver show; a new pup from Boston and Carnation Queen, the sensation of the show. All breeders of Boston terriers seem to be trying to breed the white marks out of the dogs and Mr. Benson has succeeded in Carnation Queen. Four brothers at the show have been it their year to the almost utter exclusion sold for $175. They were not dogs nor cats, but barred Plymouth Rock roosters, seld by F. F. DeVore of Valley. Some time ago sold for. Mr. DeVore has one of the largest exhibits at the show, exhibiting thirty-five birds, all of one kind.

Many dealers are fast selling their birds and several have declared they will sell every hird they care to sell, as the buyers are most plentiful.

One hen at the show has a big label posted over her coop declaring she is a $500 hen. Perhaps she is, but how is the layman to tell her superior qualities. It is said the roosters which traveled all the way from New York for the Omaha show will carry off the ribbons.

Manager Gillan discovered an organized bunch of boys industriously marching up and down the aisles looking for eggs. A stop was soon put to the practice and Manager Gillan says he needs the eggs for his breakfast. The biggest cat at the show belongs to Mrs. Frank Leslie.

COASTING!

Now that the time for coasting and other Winter sports is at hand, we want to speak a word of warning with particular reference to coasting.

On all streets on which there are street car tracks, and on all hills which cross or terminate on streets having street car tracks there is CONSTANT DANGER to those indulging in the exhilarating sport of coasting.

Men and women, as well as boys and girls, have lost their lives or have been seriously injured by dashing into moving or standing cars on their sleds or travelers

Why jeopardize your fives by coasting where the hazard is so great when there are so many places in this city of hills where this sport may be indulged in with perfect safety?
