LAW APPLIED FIRST TIME

Fink Checked Out and Furry In Strictly as Statute Requires.

NO MORE HAP-HAZARD WAYS

First Time, So Far as the Records Show, This Formality Will Be Observed in the Treasurer's Office.

For the first time in the history of Douglas county the retiring county treasurer will be checked out of office and the new one checked in by the county commissioners in strict conformity to law Thursday morning.

As far as the records show the statute requiring an account to be kept with the treasurer by the county clerk has never been strictly complied with, but with the installation of Treasurer-elect Furry the account will be opened and the terms of the law followed in strict detail.

PROCEEDINGS ON THE HOUSE

Mr. Norris of Nebraska Discusses National Banking Laws.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The annual resolution referring the president's annual message to the several committees furnished the occasion in the house of representatives today for a number of addresses, mostly by members on the democratic side.

Mr. Willett places all the blame for the recent financial panic on President Roosevelt, whom he denounced in severe terms. He charged the president with not being a sensible man and with having turned on the gas and not the light, and with going up and down the country condemning and striking with the big stick the heads of great industrial institutions.

Republican policy were attacked by Harwood of Georgia, who predicted that the only safety for the party lay in the nomination of Secretary Taft for the presidency.

The national banking laws were discussed by Mr. Norris of Nebraska, who urged as a protection to depositors the taxing of bank deposits with the view of securing a fund for that purpose. The resolution was pending when the house adjourned until tomorrow.

Disbanded the Congregation. The persons who usurped the congregation last Sunday by continually coughing requested to buy a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar. All druggists.

One More Warehouse Burned. CARLETON, Ky., Jan. 7.—The warehouse of A. R. Robertson, an independent tobacco buyer at Bethel, was burned by night fire at midnight. Peters Bros. store caught fire from the warehouse and was completely destroyed, causing a loss of $200 in excess of the insurance.

SOLOMON STILL UNDECIDED

Refuses to Discuss Question as to the Comptroller Law of Nebraska.

While County Commissioner Solomon, who was elected county comptroller under the law declared invalid by Judge Redick, still refuses to discuss a future course in the case, the rumor was current at the courthouse Tuesday afternoon that he intended to retain the office of county commissioner while making his fight in the supreme court to have the decision of Judge Redick reversed.

As long as the district court has knocked the law creating the office of comptroller, it can no longer be a matter of resignation in order to put himself in a position to claim his rights under it in case the supreme court holds the law valid. As a legal proposition it is not necessary in his opinion. As long as the injunction stands Solomon cannot lose his rights if the law is valid.

Mr. Solomon will announce what his course will be some time today. It was rumored Monday he intended to resign to become county auditor but rumor is discredited by members of the county board. The board yesterday afternoon directed the county attorney to appeal the comptroller case to the supreme court at once and use all proper means to secure an early reversal of the injunction.

Judge Redick signed the injunction order in the case Tuesday. It restrains the county board from expending any money on the office, but does not prevent Mr. Solomon from offering to qualify.

SUNDAY LAW IS GOOD TO TROUP For the Second Time He Sustains the Statute and Says It Is Law.

For the second time Judge Troup yesterday afternoon sustained the validity of the Sabbath breaking law and refused to release on habeas corpus William Rhyn, who was fined $1 and costs for selling cigars and newspapers at 70 North Sixteenth street Sunday, December 15. Frank T. Ransom, Rhyn's attorney, raised some new points in his argument, but Judge Troup said the arguments did not change his opinion expressed in his first decision that the law was valid.

Mr. Ransom took the position it was not the intent of the legislature to prohibit the keeping open of stores on Sunday, as it repealed at the time the present law was passed a statute which specifically prohibited the opening of stores, shops and places of business. He also argued the use of the term "common labor" was indefinite and therefore the law was bad. He said the supreme court had decided a contract to buy or sell made on Sunday was valid and therefore the law could not make bargaining and selling on Sunday a criminal offense.

In retracing his decision Judge Troup said that probably the Sunday law, like nearly all other laws should be revised from time to time to suit changing conditions, but he declared the legislature and not the courts should do this. He said any judge who would base his decision on what he considered public sentiment to be in disregard of law, was not fit to go on the bench.

Announcements of the Theaters. The big demand for seats for the special school children's matinee at the Orpheum this afternoon indicates one of the biggest crowds of children and women that ever attended this popular theater are going to be present to see Master Gabriel as the irresistible mischievous kid, "Tommy," and his famous dog "Spikie" in Al Lamar's comedy, "Auntie's Visit."

Father Kidnaps Children. TOPEKA, Kan., Jan. 7.—The dead bodies of Clarence Snider and his wife were found in the bedroom of their burning home here this afternoon. Both had been shot. It is the general belief that Snider killed his wife and then himself and that the flash from the revolver started the fire. They had quarreled yesterday.

Sort of Judicial Jealousy. CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—(Special.)—Cleveland, whose establishment of a wholesale parole system for offenders against police regulations has become widely known, was last night transferred to the trial of civil cases. The transfer is attributed to jealousy by other judges to Judge Cleveland's plan.

Why I Lost My Job

Reasons Why Thousands Like Me Cannot Satisfy Their Employers.

"I believe my fate is not unlike that of thousands of other workers who daily lose their places because they do not know, and probably would not believe, when their last pay envelopes comes along it usually, 'Your services no longer required.'"

If the truth were known, the reason for their unceremonious removal would probably be that their usefulness was destroyed because of general indigestion. These things, as we all know, are the most fruitful causes of failure in all walks of life. The battle of Waterloo was lost because of a headache. In this quick age our minds must be clear, rapid, active, and easy to go down to business with the thought of "floaters" who go from one place to another, giving no satisfaction to others or to themselves, constantly growing older and less useful, with no ambitions, no will power, and no hope.

Every man requires in every other man the best that is in him. But no man can use or get the best that is in him until he is first free from all fretful indigestion and worries.

That was my trouble. I was full of troubles. That's why I lost my job. My stomach in the first place was always out of order, and I was worrying about it and my mind grew cloudy, and slow. I made mistakes, and grew grouchy. That was the end.

There are thousands like me, going about with "quick lunch" faces, dyspeptic manners, and repulsive atmospheres. No employer wants such men's services.

Take my advice. A healthy stomach is half the battle, for it keeps your mind clear, and your face rosy. I have a healthy stomach now and hold a good position, and my employer is satisfied, and so am I.

I started to take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets which I was told were good for the worst cases of indigestion and dyspepsia. The first two tablets made a wonderful difference in my condition.

One ingredient of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digests 2,000 grains of food. The tablets do all the work, no matter how heavy your food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets cure brash, eruptions, burping, gas, flatulence, heartburn, loss of appetite, nausea, and indigestion in their very worst forms.

No other little tablets in the world can do so much. You should carry them around with you wherever you go and take them regularly after meals. Then you will realize what it is to be free from stomach trouble, and have a clear mind, a quick memory, and a happy disposition, comfort and rest. Get Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at any drug store for 50c a package.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a complete package free. Address P. A. Stuart Co., 159 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

BYLAWS LIKELY TO BE CHANGED

More Active Interest by Carload Shippers, Especially Lumbermen, Who Will Work Through the Club.

With the beginning of the new year, of the Commercial club a more active interest is likely to be taken by the carload shippers, especially the lumbermen, who some time ago held a meeting to discuss the organization of an exchange, but finally rested with the idea that the Commercial club could do for them in rate matters what they sought to do through an exchange of their own.

The election of sixty directors of the club for the coming year will be held in the club room Wednesday when members will cast their ballots from 10 o'clock a. m. until 6 p. m. for those nominated by the nominating committee.

May Change Bylaws. In the history of the Commercial club the board of directors has been called to meet special session once or twice, according to officers of the club, and the board holds no regular meetings. The executive committee transacts all business.

As a result of this practice there is some talk of changing the bylaws to give all members an opportunity to elect direct members of a board of directors of twenty-five members of an executive committee will be selected.
