BIG YEAR FOR FRUIT MEN

Large Amount Handled by Growers and Prices Are Also Satisfacto.

GRAPES THE LARGEST ITEM

The reports of officers of the Council Bluffs Grape Growers' association at the annual meeting held Saturday in county court house showed that the fruit men of this city and vicinity experienced the most prosperous year during 1907 in the history of the organization. Not only did better prices prevail, but there was also an increase of nearly 50 per cent over 1906 in the amount of business done.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, J. A. Anlabaugh; vice president. Alex Wood: treasurer, Charles Mr. Konigmacher; secretary, J. J. Hess; directors, W. S. Keeline, W. J. Rich, R. Mc-Kenzie, Henry Sperling and John S. Gret-

The amount of business done by the association, according to the report of Secretary Hess. was $126,213,17, as against $88,231.22 in: 1906. A new warehouse was constructed at a cost of $21,000, which amount was secured principally by the Issue of new stock of a value of $9,700 and by profits derived from the business. The entire indebtedness of the association does not exceed $2,000, while the value of its property is over $35,000.

Although the association was originally formed by the grape growers of this vicinity, all kinds of small fruit are now handled by it. During the last year over 260,000 baskets of grapes were handled, while the total value of the fruit handled was $120,688.11.

The Bee Building

is the only office building in Omaha in which the vaults are planned as a part of the building. They are not filmsy affairs, made of fire tile, but the walls of the vaults are brick and are two feet thick. This is the most desirable feature for a firm having valuable records and papers. Even if the furniture in the office should catch fire and burn, there would be absolutely no danger to the contents of the vault.

A large corner office will be available January 1st. Now is the time to make application, as corner offices are the most desirable. For office space apply to
