DAILY BEE THE OMAL.

FOUNDED BY EDWARD ROSEWATEL

VICTOR ROSEWATER, EDITOR.

Entered at Omaha Postoffice as second class matter. The.

CERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

Daily Bee (including Sunday), per week. 15 Daily Bee (without Sunday), per week. 16 Evening Bee (without Sunday), per week. 16 Evening Bee (witho Sunday), per week. 10 Address all complaints of irregularities in delivery to City Circulation Department Of String

OFFICES.

Ors Fiches. Omaha-The Bee Building. South Omaha-City Hall Building. Council Bluffs-16 Scott Street. Chloage-1640 University Building. New York-1608 Home Life Insurance .00

Washington-15 Fourteenth Street N. CORRESPONDENCE. Communications relating to news and edi-torial matter should be addressed. Omaha

Bee, Editorial Departs REMITTANCES.

Remit by draft, express or postal order payable to The Bes Publishing company. Only 2-cent stamps received in payment of mail accounts. Personal checks, except on Omaha or castern exchange, not accepted.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION. State of Nebraaka, Doughas County, ss.: George B. Taschuck, treasurer of The Bee Publishing Company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of The Dally, Morning, Evening and Sunday Bee printed during the month of December, 1907, was as fol-lows:

| 2 M WY 48 | 10 A. A. | | And the second second second |
|-----------------|----------|-------------------------------|---|
| 1 | 38,400 | 17 | 36,840 |
| 2 | 37,150 | 18 | 36,620 |
| 8 | 37,370 | 19 | 36,840 |
| 4 | 37,290 | 20 | 36,580 |
| . 6 | 37,320 | 21 | 38,350 |
| | 36,960 | 22 | 36,300 |
| G | 37,090 | 23 | 30,400 |
| . Terrorier | | | 38,890 |
| 8 | 38,900 | 24 | 36,600 |
| Beansterer | 36,930 | 25 | 30,690 |
| 10 | 37,090 | 26 | Contraction of the second s |
| Mereeeeee | 37,000 | 87 | 36,890 |
| 12 | 38,740 | 28 | 36,360 |
| 18 constraints | 37,520 | 39 | 35,800 |
| 14 decentration | 30,610 | 80 | 36,36.0 |
| 15 | 36,950 | 81 | 36,810 |
| | | 100 CONTRACTOR 100 CONTRACTOR | and the second second |

..... 36,900

Less unsold and returned copies. 9,204

GEORGE B. TZSCHUCK. Treasurer

Subscribed in my presence and sworn to before me this 2d day of January, 1968. ROBERT HUNTER, Notary Public.

WHEN OUT OF TOWN. Subscribers leaving the city temporarily should have The Bee mailed to them. Address will be changed as often as requested.

All official trains to Denver stop at Lincoln certain, but Georgia thinks it has dent; found it.

York is making a crusade against further use of the peek-a-boo hose in the fire department.

Vera Federovina Kommisarjewskaya, the Russian actress who is coming over to this country, has already made a name for herself.

If our two Nebraska senators will ntinue to ments, the congressmen will distribute all the patronage.

The Bryan-Sullivan love feast pulled hope to avenge Cavite and Santiago in this state, which list includes off Sunday on the platform of the by taking all the trade of South Amer- Bellevue college and Creighton college, rallway station at Lincoln, while in- ica from the United States. nocent on the surface, has a much deeper significance than first appears.

It must have been a sight fit for the gods to see William Jennings Bryan of sion and the republican party have all Nebraska and Roger Sullivan of Illisustained a distinct loss in the death of nols, arm in arm, proclaiming undying Charles Emory Smith. the accomdevotion to one another and swearing plished fervid fealty to the principles of un-Press, former postmaster general, mindefiled democracy.

ister to Russia and active in public life Here is another striking example on for many years. Mr. Smith, in many the part of Colonel Bryan of that respects, represented the best type of 'moral courage" in politics which he citizenship. A poor man, in the comso brilliantly idealized at the Jackparative sense of the term, he had for sonian banquet in Omaha a few days more than forty years been most active in semi-official public service. ago.

This is the same Roger Sullivan ac-As a newspaper editor, public cused by Mr. Bryan less than two years speaker and, in various capacities in ago of having "asphyxiated the demo- which he served, Mr. Smith was a cratic party" in Illinois. It is the same student of affairs, keeping fully in-Roger Sullivan whose professions of formed upon the development of the friendship Colonel Bryan repudiated, country and the interests of different declaring that he wanted nothing to do sections. He visited the west a numwith Sullivan or his associates. ber of times-once as the guest of the

This, too, is the same Colonel Bryan founder of The Bee-and was in touch that Roger Sullivan charged with "de- with the political, commercial and inliberate untruth" and likened to an dustrial situation in every state of the actress jumping from a diamond robunion. This knowledge made his counbery to the divorce court in order to sel and advice appreciated among the secure the publicity needful to swell leaders of the party with which he Interstate Commerce commission. It the box office receipts.

Yet the estranged have become reeditor and as a public official. conciled. William Jennings Bryan grasped Sullivan by the arm and as- ly American and few men were sisted him to the car steps and Sul- more enthusiastic and at the same time livan cried out to Mr. Bryan as he thoroughly practical for the advanceswung on the train, "'We're with you.'

NEVADA'S RESPONSIBILITY.

longer temporize with the state offi- country's institutions and its needs, he cials, but will order the immediate is entitled to distinction even higher field, President Roosevelt has put the itably.

responsibility for the preservation of law and order squarely up to Governor Sparks and the Nevada legislature now

Whether the work is to be done in session. This decision is doubtless under the direction of an elective county officer as provided in the county hastened by reports indicating a disposition on the part of the Nevada comptroller law which has been held legislature to emulate the example of up in the courts, or is to continue to inaction set by Governor Sparks, . It be performed as heretofore under the has been shown that the legislature supervision of the county board, the has no plan, and apparently no inten- accounts of our different county oftion, to create a state militia or a body fices and county institutions must be of rangers to serve as aids for the properly checked up and audited. governor in preserving peace. As the Whether this work of audit and acsituation now exists, the president has count is to be done for both city and served notice that the state of Nevada county under one set of officers and can not expect the federal government accountants, or must continue to be to do its police work. This action was done as heretofore separately for the based upon the testimony of the spe- city under a city comptroller and for "Is there any cure for hiccough- cial commissioners who, after investi- the county under a county auditor, it ing?" asks a reader. Don't know for gation, made this report to the presi- is none the less important that this street cleaning gang contains at least work be performed in both cases in a

COUNTY AUDITING.

There is absolutely no question that if thorough and competent manner. the state of Nevada and the county of The county of Douglas is now Esmeralda exercise the powers' at their suing, or preparing to sue, a half disposal they can maintain satisfactory order in Goldfield; that so far these au- dozen to a dozen former county offithorities have done nothing but rely on cers for fees earned and sometimes federal aid, and their attitude now is ex- collected during their official incumpressed by that of refusing to do anything and desiring to throw their own burdens bency which should have been turned on the federal government for the mainten- into the public treasury. Had the accounts of these officials been properly It may be said, with something more order for which they, and they only, are than the force usually belonging to a checked from time to time while they esponsible. figure of speech, that the western mine were in office and demands made upon Under that report, the responsibility

The public, then, must not be al-in abeyance the money devoted to maintaining an auditing department wasted. The county board is charged the county and it would not be dis-vide the means to make sure on the on the other that every dollar due the

The state superintendent of public county is paid in.

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: TUESDAY, JANUARY 21. 153

THE BRYAN-SULLIVAN LOVE FEAST ment and, until it catches up, it can not ised to grant teachers' certificates good located right here in Omaha or within street car distance. There is no need CHARLES EMORY SMITH. of would-be teachers in Omaha going The nation, the newspaper profes- away from home to get their certificates, unless they want to do so.

> After that meeting at Lincoln between W. J. Bryan and Roger Sullieditor of the Philadelphia van, even John Sharp Williams and Judge DeArmond ought to find some excuse for burying the hatchet until after the democratic national conven-

> > A tiger is said to be running wild in Indiana and the Chicago Tribune suggests that it probably escaped from Fom Taggart's menagerie at French Lick Springs. The Tribune is mistaken. The Taggart tiger is blind.

The Japanese who wore out a couple of armies trying to take Port Arthur should be good witnesses for General Stoessel, who is charged with having failed to use sufficient valor in defending that stronghold.

The courts have ordered Mr. Harriman to answer the questions of the Roger Sullvan. I wrote him a letter askaffiliated and marked his work as an may be necessary next for the courts mittee, in the interests of the democratic to devise some plan of supplying Mr. party. I explained to him that his cor-Charles Emory Smith was thorough- Harriman with a memory,

Our amiable contemporary, the democratic World-Herald, seems to be ment of every plan looking to the bet- getting more and more distressed over terment of the whole people. As a in- the way things are going among the telligent broad-gauged, patriotic Amer- republicans of Nebraska. It ought to By announcing that he will no ican with a keen appreciation of his take something for ft.

It certainly takes "moral courage" withdrawal of the troops from Gold- than the high offices he filled so cred- for Colonel Bryan to denounce Roger Sullivan as a corporation wolf in stolen democratic clothing and then to embrace him with both arms and clasp him to his bosom.

> in St. Louis. Anyone who ever heard an amateur glee club of St. Louis at its worst will appreciate some of the obstacles in the way of the progress of the Taft boom.

> Naturally the "wireless flash" tolling about the explosion on the battleships Louisiana and Connecticut is just the kind of information one might expect from newsless newspapers.

Another way for Mayor "Jim" help along his promise of cleaner streets would be to see to it that each of Mr. Sullivan's political methods. two or three able-bodied men.

Asking Too Much. Pittsburg Dispatch.

Will the people who charge President Roosevelt with responsibility for the money stringency credit him with the progress back to easy money.211

> A Light in the Distance. Chicago Interocean.

BRYAN AND SULLIVAN

Story Illustrating the Efficiency of Moral Courage in Polltics Told in Four Brief Chapters.

The Brynn-Sullivan Reconciliation

Special Dispatch to the World-Hearid.

Lincoln, Neb., Jan. 19.-William J. Bryan today grasped the hand of Roger Sullivan when the latter alighted from the train at the Rock Island depot. There were mutual Norman Mack, Tom Taggart and the other members of the Denver-bou party hurried to greet Mr. Bryan. Just hefore the train started Roger Sullivan and Mr. Bryan held a private conference in which pledges of harmony were exchanged. train started Suilivan and Bryan were engaged in conversation. Mr. Bryan grasped Sullivan by the arm and assisted him to the car steps. A large crowd was at the depot to see Mr. Bryan and the visitors.

"We're with you," was the declaration of Sullivan as he swung on the train after his interview with Mr. Bryan.

Bryan's Chicago Speech. (September 4, 1906.)

Insisting that the honesty of a party's purpose depended as much upon the man entrusted with the party management as the United States into an autocratic party upon the candidates and platform, Mr. Bryan said:

"Illinois presents a case in point, in the national committeeman from this state, Mr. ing him to reaign from the national com porate connections made it impossible for him to help the party so long as he was in official position. * * * I pointed out to him that as he held his seat by fraud there could be no harmony in the demo cratic party in the state until he, by re signing, showed his respect for the wishes of the majority at the last state convention. * * * onvention.

"The question now is what can the de nocracy of Illinois do to register its protest against the kind of politics for which Mr. Sullivan stands. What is the objec-tion to Mr. Sullivan? Re is a high official in a franchise holding corporation which is constantly seeking favors at the hands of the government. He is familiar with all the methods employed by such corporations to gain from local and state govern ment's special privileges. I am opposed to allowing a man situated as he is to use A Taft glee club has been organized the public treasury to pay the debts he owes to those who help his corporation to take advantage of the public and therefore I insist that the fight should be comenced today to prevent his election to the

Mr. national committee. "I do not regard it as a compliment to be endorsed for the presidency by a conven-tion which endorsed Sullivan. I toid them cratic party to defeat. If he is proud of in advance that I did not want an endorse that evidence of the people's confidence in his sincerity, he is welcome to it.

ment under such circumstances, and I repudiate it. If my nomination for any office depended upon that endorsement I would not accept it. Mr. Sullivan is not therefore compels him to oppose my parmy friend, although he pretended to ticipation in democratic affairs. The fore this discussion arose. I object to him as a political associate. My only political wrong to make money out of politics. This boast of his places the stamp of insinasset is the confidence which the people cerity all over him. If Bryan thinks it have in my integrily. I do not want that confidence shattered by intimacy with men wrong to make money out of politics, he

I do not hesitate to express the opinion has not one dollar that he ever made out that no man running on the democratic of anything but politics. As fortunes go, ticket in Iilinois is entitled to the support he is a rich man. He made every dollar of de pocrats in this crises if he either of his fortune out of politics as a stepping vith Sullivan or is afraid to oppose stone to the lecture platform. Ite is polistan

im. "Mr. Sullivan asphyziated the voters of Like the actresses who have abandomed the stolen diamond, dodge for the greater this state. Some of the voters may be willing to let the Ogden Gas company, publicity of the divorce suit, Mr. Eryan with which Mr. Sullivan is connected, will quit running for president and will dominate the democratic party of lilinois, quit politics just as soon as he discovers but I will not believe that the people will that some other form of advertising will consent to it until the issue has been made bring more dollars to the box office when and their verdict has been rendered." he is advertised to appear on the stage."

SECREARY TAFT IN NEW YORK. His Address and the Quiz at the People's institute

New York Outlook. in accordance with the custom of these nectings of the People's institute, Mr. Taft followed his oddress by three-quarters of an hour of extemporaneous answers to written and verhal questions presented to him by the audience. There is hardly a platform in this country which puts a speaker to so good a test of his frankness, his quickness of mind, and his innate sympathy with justice and human rights. Mr. Taft met the test to the entire satisfaction of the audience. The great hall was packed, hundreds of people finding it impossible to get even standing room. Capital and inhor, said Mr. Taft, are not enemies, but colleagues. They absolutely need each "What I am anxious to emphasize is that there is a wide economic and bustness field in which the interests of the woalthiest capitalist and of the humblest laborers are exactly the same." He defended the right of the laborer to strike. and peacefully to persuade his fellowlaborer to strike. But he attacked the employment of violence by laborers in striker, and reasserted his belief that infunctions prevent a resort to violence by labor. however, expressed his belief that this method of prevention by" injunction had been abused in this country, and proposed to remove this abuse by returning until the person or persons to be enjoined had been given notice and an opportunity to state their case. The courage with which he maintains the belief that he put into practice as a judge and the fairness to labor with which he now proposes an amendment to the law of injunction, order to insure equal justice to labor and to capital, will, in our judgment, meet with pears to us to be logical, human, and good humor, common sense, and through of capital, sometimes as vigorously in favor of labor. The New York Sun. comparing this bout of question and answer

"Now," said Mr. Taft, "I don't know exactly the rules of the game." Timre was a general roar at this, and he went on: questions discussion. Is that one of your rules, or shouted a score of voices. "Very well, then we'll start in," said the secretary. But the questions covered about every department of public life and thought before they got through handing them up. So it went for the better part of an hour. There were many questions that couldn't be answered for lack of time, but it was the general "Mr. Bryan insinuates that I make money out of politics and his sincerity verdict that the secretary was entitled to the referee's decision, and when the gong plain rang the crowd swarmed into the ring to inference is that Mr. Bryan thinks it grasp the victor's han .

PLEASANTLY PUT.

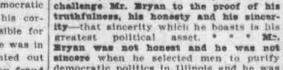

"I received your majesty's message." said the new missionary. "Did I under-stand you would do me the honor to call upon me and dine tomorrow?" "Almost correct," replied the cannibal chief, "I said I woulld call and dine upon you tomorrow.-Chicago Tribune. should quit making money. Mr. Bryan

"Do you think it would be advisable for you to make speeches in your own

'No," answered Senator Surghum. is better to have some one else do you talk-ing for you. Then if something is said which displeases, you can join the poular disapproval."-Washington Btar.

She-He has a most extrac

Røger Sullivan's Rejuinder. (Sept. 7, 1906.) "Mr. Bryan has again seen fit to make may properly be employed by capital to me the excuse for exploiting his new ambition to convert the democratic party of with himself on the dictator's throne. * Mr. Bryan would rather have his own way than have democrats elected to original federal law, which provided that congress or any other office. As a dem- no temporary injunction should be issued ocrat, I regret that Bryan's rule-or-ruin disposition has led him to make such misuse of his influence. So far as the Bryan speech refers to me personally, I democratic politics in Illinois and he was the ultimate approval of organized labor not truthful when he stood up in Chicago throughout the country. His position ap-"The first paragraph of Mr. Bryan's practical. In his answer to questions Secspeech on me contains a deliberate un- retary Taft displayed his characteristic truth. Practically every succeeding paragraph contains either a deliberate untruth knowledge of the principles of law. Some or an equivocation of the kind we expect times his answers were vigorously in favor only from the shifty word-juggling pettifogger. Mr. Bryan says he wrote me a letter asking me to resign. That is an un-truth. He knows that he never wrote me to a boxing match, gives the following a letter. He did write a letter to Judge Thompson in which he told the judge to graphic little picture of the contest; tell me that he (Bryan) wanted me to Charging that Bryan advised the Illinois democrats at the St. Louis convention to "But I understand that your bolt the nomination of Parker, Mr. Sullivan must all be germane to the subject under "Is this the measure of Bryan's party am I wrong?" "That't right!" fealty? Is this the way Bryan proposes to help elect a democratic congress? Bryan says his best political asset is the confidence the people have in him. He has twice led the demo-

to explain his position.

resign.

前出 又出

"Is verse worth while?" asks a magazine editor. Judged by the kind printed in the magazines the answer must be in the negative.

with buying every new book written the peace and protect life and propmust be as rich as Mr. Bryan.

'How are hornets' nests made?" asks a schoolboy. The boy should read the political life of Senator Joseph Benson Foraker of Ohio.

Senator "Jeff" Davis sternly refuses to mingle with the high society at Washington, Reasons not given by either party to the controversy.

"Back Numbers Wanted," is the heading of an advertisement published by the Department of Commerce and Labor. The country is full of them.

Admiral Evans announced before His saflors seem to have had both at Rio.

her dealers' convention. There ought States. In the course of a perfervid to be enough timber among them to editorial Imparcial says: fill all the offices without troublesome search.

Chicago claims to have more grip and the first step must be King Alfonso's sufferers than any other city in the visit to the Hispano-American countries. nation. Chicago always wins out when it is allowed to make the last figures.

That Roumanian baroness who committed suicide because she had commenced to look old at 50 should have gotten Lillian Russell's recipe for face lotions. 100.00

Nebraska democrats are not seriously troubled about sending delegates to the national convention at Denver "already honored with official position,"

"Family skeletons grin at the Thaw trial." is the heading in a New York newspaper. Even skeletons place a proper estimate on the testimony of the expert allenists.

hotels of New York a tip of 10 cents, acy in Latin-America. They have Kansas City is the home of brave-and likewise economical-men.

The plan will not work. Leaders in cheaper than can be done by other naengthening the hours of labor.

is fixed and the officials of the state them for surplus fees at the time they and the county of Esmeralda are to accrued, this expensive litigation would blame for any failure to maintain in large part have been avoided. The order. The legislature is charged with very fact that the accounts of the the duty of furnishing means for these present county officers have been more Vice President Fairbanks is credited officials to enforce the law, preserve carefully checked during the last few years has already brought into the by an Indiana author. Mr. Fairbanks erty, if the means at their disposal are county treasury thousands of dollars that would otherwise have been lost not adequate for the purpose. There is evidently no occasion for further in- to the taxpayers, although only a betervention by the federal authorities. Sinning at thorough auditing has been made.

CRYING OVER SPILT MILK. The voice of Spain, even when raised in anger, has not attracted much attention from the world powers since the time Admirals Dewey, Schley and Sampson executed those little naval maneuvers down in the vicinity of Manila and Santiago, but recently some excitement has been created over the announcement that King Alfonso charging its full duty if it did not prowas planning a trip to Latin-America and might visit the United State. The Imparcial, one of the leading newspa-starting for the Pacific that his fleet pers at Madrid, has become very much was ready for "a fight or a frolic." disturbed over the proposal. While endorsing the advisability of having the king visit South America, this paper protests against any show of Omaha is about to entertain a lum- passing friendship toward the United Brazilian police can describe minutely Spain can represent the role of spiritual of the Yankees. Our revenge for Cavite battleship in the fleet. and Santiago must come from this side, Avarice and tyranny separated us from our colonies; tolerance and love must unite us to go to the Blue Grass state to anew and forever to them.

If the Spaniards feel that they Manila and Cuba, they should disabuse state went republican for the first time their minds on that subject at once. in many years. They have had all the revenge necessary to satisfy the most sanguinary.

Cuba and the Philippines have not social clubs, which neglected to take been a source of unadulterated joy to out liquor licenses, is explained as the United States. Our duty to our being remnants of the supply kept suddenly acquired island wards has previous to the beginning of the new not yet been discharged and the pros- year. What kind of a club is it that peet is that we shall have them on our has liquer left over for more than two hands for some little time more. weeks? Aside from that, Spain has some thing to learn in the matter of trade, just as it did in the matter of war. King Alfonso will learn that he can not capture South America's business by of the new division in the railway mail 'love and amity." The United States, service. Good! This is one proposi-It remained for a Kansas City man Germany, France and England are alto offer a waiter in one of the swell ready fighting for commercial supremlearned, as Spain must, that the South American merchant is like the merchant elsewhere who wants to buy to power. A resolution has been offered pro- the best advantage. Spain will hold viding that congress shall hereafter Latin-America against all comers when meet at 9 s. m. instead of at noon. It lays down goods there better and speeches. pongrees have all they can do now tions. Spain is still several generaplaying off bills and reports, without tions behind the rest of the world in instruction has issued a list of accredindustrial and commercial develop- ited educational institutions author- rich voin for hims owners see a silver lining to the clouds Qualifying for Admission

Minneapolis Journal.

Jim Dahlman of Omaha promises to organize "the Bryan Volunteers" for the campaign. Anyone who volunteers to put a little bunch into the campaign fund will not be cast out.

The Terror of Crowded Halls. Baltimore American.

It was the old story at the Boyertown horror-panic rather than actual The left me." danger doing the deadly work. voice that raises the cry of fire in crowded public house is responsible for more lives than the deadliest instru lowed to get the idea that because the ment human ingenuity has ever i county comptroller law has been held vented.

Land Grabbers Disgorge. New York Tribune.

under the county board is being The Interior Department has recovere in one year 2.372,223 acres of public lar with the approval of all claims against claimed under fraudulent entries or u lawfully fonced in. That is evidence accusatians in its general prosecution of one side that every claim is valid, and fraudulent entry cases.

Canned Music Creates a Smile. St. Louis Rebuplic

The Supreme court of the United States The approach of the party convenis reported to have laughed aloud in full session for the first time in its history tions makes this the season for politiwhile attempting to decide who ought to cal pipe dreaming among the big and little yellow journals. These adepts music from perforate paper rolls. The proin mind reading can uncover a daily cess is now known as that of "canning ragilize," and perhaps many of those who political conspiracy just as easy as the suffer from it will hope that its merits Rome against the absorbing industrialism an anarchistic plot to blow up every the judicial intellect finds that it is not alaughing matter

A PROFITABLE CANDIDACY.

thank Colonel Bryan for volunteering Financial Victory Placked from Political Defeat.

As long as Mr. Bryan holds his personal should seek revenge for the loss of fall for a series of speeches and the as a public speaker is not likely to degrip on the democratic party h's popularity cline, and this means that his income from the platform alone will continue to be over $50,000 a year. The secretary of the lyceum bureau that manages Mr. Bryan's lecture both sides, not forgetting the public. tours has just stated that it arranged 175 his share of the receipts was $52,500. Mr. Bryan's regular charge at chautauquas is the first $250 taken at the gate, and half preachers.

of season tickets. For an evening lecture the terms are a cash guarantee of $300 and to boast of as a political illustration of the tion advanced by The Bee which Mr. Hitchcock is welcome to appropriate. Senator "Jeff" Davis says that 97 per cent of the newspapers of the country have been subsidized by the money The senator should furnish a list of the 3 per cent of the papers that have spoken kindly of his to defeat and still holds under his whip prehension and satisfy all sober minded and spur? Is he in danger of getting into men among employers and employed that the ranks of the wealthy he has inveighed the secretary's position on the large social against? At all events he is working a questions of the day is impartial, thoughtful and progressive.

Bryan on Moral Courage

(January 6, 1908.) "No question is ever settled until the moral element in the question is discussed and decided; nothing but a moral issue-that is an issue involving justice-stirs the heart. Andrew Jackson addressed himself to the moral nature and aroused a moral enthusiasm that outlived his period.

"The time is ripe for another appeal to conscience and indications point to a greater study of public questions from an ethical standpoint. The corrupting influences which have flowed from mercenary politics have at last excited attention and there is a searching of men and of measures such as has not been known in recent times

"In a multitude of ways the moral sentiment is manifesting itself, and unless the signs of the times are misleading, there is going to be a return to the Jeffer-sonian and Jacksonian doctrine of equal rights to all and special privileges to none. "My father taught me early in life that I could afford to be in the minority. but that I could not afford to be wrong. It was the best heritage he could have president in the country.

bank of which he is now the head.

Louis composer, has been elected a mem

| SECRETARY TAFT ON INJUNCTIONS | PERSONAL NOTES. |
|---|--|
| Clear Statement of His Opinion on | It is evident that the president of Brazil |
| the Question. | knows a good fleet when he sees one. |
| Minneapolis Journal. Another evidence of the fine qualities of | The Darling family of Long Island is rightly named. There are twenty-nine in the bunch, including father and mother, |
| mind of Secretary Taft is revealed in his | the last comer arriving this year. |
| letter to a labor leader on the injunction | A number of interesting mementos of | enough that the government is not pur- agree with his questioner. He does not Thomas Nast, the caricaturist, have just suing a false trail or using trumped-up try to agree or disagree. He states his passed into the possession of the Metroown views frankly and without dogmatism. As far as temporary injunctions are concourtesy of Mrs. Thomas Nast. cerned, he calls attention to the fact that alist.

the old rule of law was that they should not issue without a hearing. He favors a president of the Chicago Savings Bank return to that rule. As to trying the merits of a case of injunction violation before the judge who issued it, the secre- years ago he was a messenger in the tary says that, while he does not believe profit most from the process of evtracting that judges uphold their own injunctions through personal pride, he sees no harm in calling in another judge to hear the As to jury trial of contempt protrial. ceedings for defiance of an injunction, Sec that the power of discipline must remain in the court to protect the dignity of its own processes. Judge Taft, as a presidential candidate bears the onus of being opposed by organber of the Societe des Beaux Arts of Paris. ized labor, because of some decisions of his when he was on the federal bench. The decisions, when examined, so far from Germany, composer of the "Prince of Pilproving him an enemy of erganized labor, sen." Mr. Robyn has just finished a new as the bumptious Gompers proclaims him, opera, which will shortly be presented in show that he was neither an enemy nor a Chicago. friend of organized labor or organized capital, but a judge holding the scales of justice evenly and giving a square deal to The letter on the injunction issue is calm lute mind. It doesn't do Taft any harm, however much it may disturb the socialist Thoughtful and Progressive. Chicago Record-Herald (ind.).

The same breadth of view, fairness of mind, reasonableness and independence which characterized Secretary Taft's letter on the injunction question mark every paragraph of the comprehensive speech which he delivered at Cooper Union. In the New York address much ground was traversed and many vital problems were extent to which the one-man power can discussed, but it is certain that none but extremists will withhold the appreciation which is the secretary's due for so able 'pathetically bald" books, decidedly places | balanced, just, truly judicial a presentation um in the plutocratic class which it is his of the issues between capital, labor and the third party, the public. Socretary Taft is opposed to misuse of power either by capital or by labor, but he holds that been among the best sellers in democratic the interests of both require efficiency, circles. His lectures are better, but far co-operation, enterprise, increased producfrom profound intellectually. He same his tivity. He is for the policy that spells inmoney honestly and is welcome to it, but dustrial peace with honor and justice to what about the party he has ridden twice all. The address should dissipate misaphasn't he? He-That's so. I believe an umbrella is about the only thing he can buy ready made!-Philadelphia Inquirer.

"Say." said the would-be wit, as he and his friend passed a weeping child in the street who had lost her penny down the sewer, "that little girl is very much like a panic in Wall Street." "Will you please tell me hew?" "Becauses she is a cry-sis."-Baltimore American.

American.

"You look unhappy?"

"I am unbappy." "But you once said that if your husband ever accumiated a million you would be "I know it, but Mrs. Nexdor's husband has accumulated two millions."-Houston Post.

"In your opinion," asked the member of the investigating committee, "what is the cause of the evident unrest among the In-dians?"

dians?" Comanche Peis, the noted scout, blew a cloud of smoke into the atmosphere. Then he took his pipe out of his mouth. "Fleas," he answered.—Chicago Tribune.

"Conductor," she shrilled indignantly re are twenty-nine in "Why didn't you tell me I was on the wrong car? I want my nickel back." "Us conductors, ma'am," was his re-sponse, "has to learn a variety of stunts, and if the barn boss ever starts a class in mind readin."

mind readin' I promise to attend, ma'am. That's the best I can do. Your nickel? Why, how could I ever identify it among so many?"-Philadelphia Ledger. Why, politan Museum of Art, through the

THOSE OLD COLLEGE DAYS.

Lucius Teter, who has just been elected John Kendrick Bangs in Harper's. good old college days, see you thro' the hazeand Trust company, is the youngest bank Only sixteen

I see you thro' the haze-The hazy many days of yesteryear. I recollect the hour When in my youthful pow'r I kicked the merry pigskin without fear.

William Kent of Chicago, now at Kent What tho' my knees is stiff From Hefflefinger's biff. What tho' my hip is broke beyond repair! I mourn for them no more The while I'm dreaming o'er The cheers that round the gridiron rent the air. field, Cal., has deeded to the United States government a tract of land of 2% acres of natural redwood forest in the southern slops of Mount Tamalpais, about six miles from San Francisco. It is the intention to name the national monument "Mulr Woods," after John Muir, the noted natur-Alfred G. Robyn, the well-known St.

What the' I cannot hear, Deprived of either ear. Because the Harvards used them for a mat? What the' my neck is like solid iron spike, Because the Princeton 'leven on it sat!

The only other American elected to its membership is Gustav Luders, a native of

All that is left of me Today is full of glee. As, lying on my back. I dream of days When, spurred by battle-hymns, I sacrificed my limbs To cover Alma Mater's name with prates.

dates for its chief star last year, and that and quiet, but proclaims a man of resowill be tested in the supreme court until retary Tafe opposes it on the safe ground

Mr. Beckham of Kentucky may not

St. Louis Giobe-Democrat.

straighten out the senatorial tangle. Colonel Bryan went to Kentucky last

The presence of booze in several of all the receipts above $500, exclusive half the door receipts. Half the gross recelpis are asked for lectures not in the regular course. Last year Mr. Bryan spoke It is announced that Congressman almost every day from January 6 to Sep-Hitchcock will go to the front with tember 10, and often twice a day. a bill to make Omaha the headquarters Mr. Bryan is a striking example of Amer ican business opportunity, though nothing be carried in a party. His lecture income, together with that from his paper and his habit to denounce. Mr. Bryan's books, which are universally prenounced compendiums of stale stuff, poorly arranged, have