purchases as quite a little higher than last week. Desirable fat lambs were also in good deniand and free seilers at good steady prices. There were planty of feeder buyers in the yards looking for stuff that the packers would not take, so that the common to medium lambs sold to very good advantage considering their quality. Feeder buyers paid as high as $6.40 for lambs to send back into the country again. Taking the trade as a whole it was a good healthy market and practically everything was sold in good season in the forencon.
